THE 2015 BOOM SIGNAL IS DEDICATED TO:

Richard (Dick) Taylor

1921-2015

Dick Taylor was a design engineer and test pilot. He joined The Boeing Co. in 1946 as an engineer for the B-29 modified aerial-refueling tanker which later became the KB-29. Having been part of the test team for the original KB-29 he was the perfect person to demonstrate and test the flying boom concept. Since he was the first person to make contact with the boom, he became the world's first boom operator. His contributions to the Boom Operator community will never be fully realized.

It was only fitting that on Sept. 25, 2015, Mr. Taylor was at Paine Field to watch the first flight of the newest tanker, the KC-46. Dick Taylor passed away nine days later at the age of 93.

2015 Prep for Contact

Welcome to the 36th edition. Thanks to the overwhelming support from Boom Operator leadership who understand the importance of our traditions and heritage, The Boom Signal is alive and well! This has been one of the most successful years as far as participation to the Boom Signal, thank you for your inputs!

This has been an amazing year for the tanker community, especially for the KC-46 program. On December 28, 2014 the 767-2C (tail # 11-46001) first flew from Paine Field in Everett WA. The “-2C” will be used primarily for FAA certification testing and uses a dummy Boom and WARP systems for stability/control and flutter testing. Eventually the dummy equipment will be replaced with fully operational air refueling equipment.

The first KC-46 (tail # 11-46004) flew for the first time on Sep 25th, 2015 from Paine Field in Everett WA. This aircraft has fully functional air refueling equipment and will be used for air refueling testing to include boom, centerline drogue, and WARP. The third and fourth KC-46's will join the test team soon. All testing will be based out of Boeing Field in Seattle WA.

Finally I would like to thank all the participating units for their 2015 Boom Signal inputs, as busy as you all are, you still managed to take time and contribute to the Boom Signal- THANK YOU for keeping the tradition alive! ALTUS AFB, OK

54 ARS

“Jesters”

CMSgt Sean Rix (CEM) – For those that know Chief Rix, you know he’s been marching around acting like a Chief for years. This year he finally added the stripe to go along with the ego. If you need to know something, Chief has a story for it, and he will tell it to you more than once. Some of us think he has a mild case of Alzheimer’s as he repeats himself quite often. You can find Chief driving one of his two Jeeps to the local gun range to practice his sharpshooting skills. Oh, he does some of that mentoring stuff too.

Operations Superintendent/First Sergeant

MSgt Michael “Potato” Russell – MSgt Russell is the 54th’s resident vegan expert. Aside from the lack of red blood cells in his diet, he enjoys long walks around Lake Altus and handfuls of Tofu as a treat. You can find him ordering stockpiles of tofu through Amazon and occasionally disappointing his wife when throws meat down his gullet over at Val’s. He also handles day to day issues that arise during training as the Ops Super. Pretty sure the only perk to being Chief Rix’s henchman is the reserved parking space.

Student Training Management

MSgt Justin “Papa D” Dixon – MSgt Dixon is the NCOIC of the Student Training Flight. His days are filled with all the joys of explaining to students why they are on CAP, how to not be on CAP, and completing the paperwork associated with it. He had shoulder surgery late last year and still hasn’t flown. If you’re looking for him, just call, he is more than likely on leave.

TSgt Earl Mayhew – TSgt Mayhew is MSgt Dixon’s right hand man, and served almost literally in that capacity after Dixon’s shoulder surgery. Earl fills in where needed, stealing the First Sergeant’s parking spot on occasion, and basically being a jack of all trades. Well, he kind of is, just ask him about his pre military job history. I think the only things missing from that list are rocket scientist and cartoonist.

TSgt Matthew Hunsinger – TSgt Hunsinger is our most recent NCOA graduate. He collected himself a little DG action from there, and I don’t mean Dunn Gradgiated. Matt puts all the students at ease when passing out his Werther’s Original candies and tells stories of when he was in boom school. Matt has enacted “common law” marriage with his BFF Nate Bahr. They make a great couple.

TSgt Logan Berry - If you’re looking for TSgt Berry you can find him snuggled away at his desk or taking long runs around Altus. Logan has become our running expert and has been known to give classes on running shoe type and running technique. You can catch him on the schedule flying quite a bit as well.

SSgt Kristopher Echols –A recent addition here at the school house. Kris was here long enough to sign in, and off to Honor Guard he went. We see him floating around the building once in a while.

SSgt Alexander McGinness – Alex served as the past years ABOA president. He is highly involved in the male Boom Op review calendar, where half-shirts are mandatory. When Alex wasn’t busy flipping tires and doing two-adays, he was busy doing some really great things to propel the ABOA into the local community. He should be PCS’ing as well as promoting within the next year. Your tutelage will be missed El Presidente.

SSgt Jacob Nenneman – Nemo is relatively under the radar. We don't really know what he does; we are pretty sure he flies (when he remembers to check his schedule). He and his wife welcomed another little one to their family. Congratulations!

SSgt Justin "Tyler" Yow – You can find Buzz Lightyear flying to infinity and beyond. This is the same place you can find Yow. Yow took a trip to Thailand (pronounced Thigh-land) with Porter and Matthews earlier this year and seems to be disease free. Yow lucked out, through studying (who does that?), to make TSgt. He will sew on next year some time.

CFIC

TSgt Theodore Dinwiddie - After sewing on TSgt, Theo found himself as the NCOIC of CFIC. He imparts all of his wisdom to everyone at all times. If you don't want an opinion, he will give you one. Aside from knowing everything, and performing facing movements while walking the hallway, you can find Theo coaching basketball and riding his new motorcycle (and nearly dropping it at every turn).

SSgt Nathan Bahr – Hunsinger's boy-toy and resident CFIC expert. Nate recently graduated from scheduling to the CFIC office. You can catch Nate traveling to many comic-con's around the nation dressed as Sméagol from Lord of the Rings (no make-up required). He still hasn't found his precious.

SSgt Thomas January –Tom is our resident meat smoker/tenderizer. He is a self-proclaimed Rec-Tec god and his meat is pretty good. We're pretty sure that he gets his meat and sauce from Billy Sim's (local BBQ joint) and just claims to have cooked it himself. Tom will be being promoted to TSgt here in the near future and has been appointed the newest ABOA President.

Scheduling

TSgt Rob Miller – Rob is the NCOIC of the heart of the squadron. His truck strikes fear into the hearts of the students who want their schedules changed and inspires the rest of us to stand tall or run from the threat of the bumper. He claims to have used the winch... but only once, to pull a Prius off a curb, in the snow. Brodozers Assemble!

TSgt Daniel "Duke" Newcombe – Duke is another new addition to scheduling. When he's in the office you can find him searching campers, trucks, motorcycles, etc. Out of boredom and lack of things to do with his hands, he picked up an extra job at Pizza Hut....if you need a discount guys, here you go!

SSgt Justice Coker – Justice is the local representative for Hillary 2016; his favorite colors are ROYGBIV (the colors of the rainbow for those who forgot grade school teachings). Another member of the local motorcycle mafia, Justice was finally able to paint his purple motorcycle a more macho hue; magenta. Not sure that it'll actually help, but it looks good. Justice is another TSgt select.

SSgt Michael Danilowski – There isn't really much bad to say about D-Low. He is an avid workaholic as noted by his 80+ days of use or lose. You can find him playing Destiny for Xbox one and petting his new AR 15, although I believe he hasn't shot it yet. (Really sad) He's another boom who found himself on the TSgt listing as well.

SSgt Derek Lyles - Derek's had a rough year, but I think it's mostly his pride that's been damaged. Not everyone is able to say that their girlfriend rear ended them right after getting their car out of the shop. In his fury, he sold his GTO to a poor unsuspecting Airman in the dorms. That way, when he drives around base he can smile at the manliness he once had.

Stan/Eval

TSgt Christopher Yontz - Yontzy-poo is our NCOIC of Stan/Eval and resident fire safety expert. Over the past year, he found himself talking with OSI about his fire skills as he nearly burnt down base housing in a blaze of glory...(a small trash can fire too close to his house). We know he doesn't love Altus, but arson is a felony Chris.

SSgt Derik Melson – Fast witted sarcasm is the best way to explain Derik to you. He can crack a joke only he understands, that's because he is much smarter than most of us. A graduate of Ohio; he and his wife recently welcomed their first child. Congrats on the little one and that TSgt selection.

SSgt Jose Prado – Not much to say about Jose. He works hard back in Stan/Eval. He will be a TSgt within the next year. He is the strong silent type and most of us are afraid of him. (It's the quiet ones you need to watch)

Faculty Training

TSgt Jesse Wright – That's Wright (see what we did there), he's back! He missed Altus so much he came back for a second tour. In charge of Faculty Training, you can find Jesse passing out MQF testing for our UEI prep. No one sees him outside of work, so he really is a mystery. If we knew where he lived, we're pretty sure we would find a coffin and no mirrors inside his house.

SSgt Brandon McAnally – You want to know something about explosions? BMac is the guy to touch you, I mean teach you. With the best Tom Selleck look-alike mustache; you can find BMac building explosives for our annual AITW's. If you hear "fire in the hole" you better start moving.

SSgt Lucas Treat – Lucky Charms called and wanted their mascot back, but we at the 54th flexed our muscle and kept him here. Lucas does good things back in Faculty Training. Relatively low-key, he works hard and spends off time with his family.

Tactics

SSgt Bryan Lee – You can find BLee at Scooter's on a nightly-basis. I make that assumption based on the one time I was in there he was there. He's there to scope out the Altus Night Life and you can find him teaching local dance classes on how to "whip and subsequently watch him nay nay?" We don't know what that means but when he's not DNIF you can find him....wait you can never find him.

Safety

SSgt Kevin Matthews – Kevin has had a recent spout of DNIF. We think his disease came from his trip to Thailand but none of us are willing to get close enough to him to really ask. We're not Flight Doc's around here, but Wikipedia suggests you stay away from the lady-boys. If you need Kevin he's busy ensuring you aren't daisy-chaining computers, fridges, coffee pots, etc. He is another 54th boom to make TSgt.

Readiness

SSgt Marino Miklja – Milkjug is our go-to UDM. He stays busy getting us ready for those long two-month deployments we are scheduled for. He is pretty over-work (how do we note sarcasm here?) If you need to find him, just talk to him on Clash of Clans. He is the boom leader there.

OGV

MSgt Jon Adams – You can find this guy flying whenever we need him. During his down time you can find him purchasing gun parts, bows and arrows. That's not a bad thing, however, one day he hopes to actually shoot something with all of his new toys. Don't worry Jonny; there are plenty of booms here who can give you animal meat if you start to starve.

Pubs Shop

SSgt Mark Waski – Mark upgraded from Scheduling to the Pubs Shop. If you thought he didn't fly when he was in the squadron, you really can't find him flying now. On his weekends he travels back and forth between Wichita to see his fiancé Jillian. Talk about getting "Waski'd," sorry Jillian. That's right, if Waski is engaged, there is hope for the rest of you.

OSS

TSgt Shonna Calisi – The Calisi's have returned! Shonna and Matt welcomed their first born child this year. Congratulations. Shonna stays hidden away over at Current Ops. Most of us don't know what she does, but hey, what's that matter?

Losses

SrA Andy Lopez – Andy got back from a 6 month deployment and then got out of the Air Force. He moved down to San Antonio to move in with his girlfriend and is currently awaiting the Reserves to in-process him to be a Flight Engineer. Good luck Andy, we miss your musk.

SrA Justin Holbrook – Holbrook got out and moved back in with his parents. No one knows what he is up to but we assume its growing facial hair and eating Cheetos. We hope all is well!

SSgt Brian Porter – Off to greener pastures, Brian, left the Air Force to pursue running dreams and life outside of the Air Force. Good luck to him!

SSgt Nic Inzana – Nic separated this year and he was more than happy to head back to his family's farm. Good luck to Nic as he chases dreams outside the Air Force.

SSgt Ashley Sigaoat : Ashley was our resident TODO pubs expert until she separated earlier this year. She worked really hard keeping the EFBs updated and keeping track of all the iPads the students tried to break. We will all miss her and wish her the best!

TSgt Ryan Clauss- Ryan left us for the green pastures of England. No one really saw him for the last year he was here. If this really were his senior year he would have failed due to his attendance record. Good luck Ryan! (P.S. Chief cries himself to sleep at night now that you aren't here to pat his back gently before he falls asleep and do his CBT's)

MSgt Robert Jenkins – Bob is headed for sunnier lands, or at least the Sunshine State. Maybe once he's there, he'll actually commit and get that King Ranch, or EcoDiesel, or whatever it is that he keeps talking about getting.

ALTUS AFB, OK

97 TRS

“Team Eagles”

SMSgt Matt Calisi: He loved Altus so much he decided to move back, not only that, he convinced Balfour Beatty to give him his old base house back. Currently the tallest person in the TRS. He hit the ground running as Superintendent. The students amaze him every day with innovative new ways of getting into trouble. He has been a blessing and we are thankful to have him.

(M)Sgt Jessica Elmore: Jess has always been known as the mom of all booms, so it was fitting that she slid into student admin to be the student superintendent. She is still a mom to them all, but pretty soon she may snap and start putting them in the corner if they don't listen. The students drive her crazy, but for some reason she enjoys it..??

TSgt Brendan Balko: His real name is Brandon, but he made an alter ego and called him "Brendan" just to see how many people would call him by it (weird). He has been killing it inspecting the CAE contract and whatever else they do up there on the 3rd Floor, so much he was the AETC Robert “Dutch” Huyser winner. When he isn't working, he is manufacturing an amazing home brew, so if you are in Altus and don't want 3.2 beer he's your man.

TSgt Thomas Vesser: No clue what this dude does? Seriously, no clue. He held the title of biggest truck on base until Rob Miller got a mortgage for a monster truck, but he doesn't mind. Tom's exact words were "I don't need to compensate as much as Rob does", but who knows what that means? Tom just came to the TRS this month, so all I could say is that he showers often, is pleasant to talk with and he carries himself like a gentleman. He is happy to be in the TRS and we are thankful to have him on our team.

TSgt Aaron Tessmann: Our training expert currently holds the record for most additional duties. When he is not flying with a BIQ S-1 (thanks scheduling) he's complaining about holding the record for most additional duties, and flying with BIQ S-1's. He has hit the 3 year point which turns everyone jaded, but he keeps his crustiness down to a minimum. As the program manager for wing training he deals with the syllabus so the pilots don't have to, he's a people person. Prime candidate for the Powerball.

ALTUS AFB, OK
730 AIR MOBILITY TRAINING SQUADRON

REBELS

Four years strong! It has been a good year for the 730th. We continue to grow in strength and unity while enjoying all the fun in the sun Altus has to offer. If you are interested in molding the future of the Boom Operator force? We are currently hiring, Full-time and Part-time positions.

CMSgt Alvin “Koop” Kuper 730th AMTS-ARC Liaison (AGR) Koop has decided that he could not live without Altus. He has returned taking over Chief Buss’s job. He enjoys long walks with troubled students attempting to set them on the right path. Welcome back Chief Koop!

SMSgt Sean Cain 730th AMTS Ops Superintendent (ART) Sean is leading the way; from far away. He took a short deployment surrounded by a bunch of leave. However, he still finds time to make sure that the rest of the Boomers are well taken care of. We appreciate your support Sean.

MSgt Kelly Witt OA KC-135 (ART) Kelly has moved from FTM over to QA. She spends her days pretending she is inspecting CAE when she isn’t trying to decipher the courseware. This however seems to be a common path to becoming a TR.

MSgt Gene Ernst FTM/STM (TR) Gene has moved back home to Nebraska, most of the time. He works as a SIM operator (not instructor) full time and graces us with his presence every chance he gets.

MSgt Trevor Halpain QA KC-46 NCOIC (TR) Trevor has decided that Altus is such a fun place he became a full time civilian working the contracting aspect for CAE. He is working hard developing the syllabus for the KC-46.

TSgt Mark “Frito” Fioritto DOB (ART) Our newest member, weighing in at 74 pounds and enough kids to start a soccer team. Mark comes to us from Active Duty here at Altus. We look forward to watching him grow, literally!

Departed the Fix:

CMSgt (Ret.) Brian “Good Deal” Buss Our suspicions were correct. Chief was working his way into becoming a permanent fixture at Altus. He successfully retired and is now working at CAE. Best of luck Chief.

ALTUS AFB, OK

Greetings from the Civilian Boom Association.

This past year has slowed down somewhat with a slightly reduced number of students. We currently have 12 full-time instructors. We have had several personnel changes this past year.

We continue to experience random BOWST malfunctions that cannot be duplicated. Scheduling constantly has to reflow these missions so they stay busy. We now have IPADs and e-pubs the same as the Air Force uses, this helps immensely with teaching students what they will actually experience once they leave academics. The new plan is to accomplish student pre-flights with two students and one instructor. The 15-10 class will be the tryout for this new method.

I

Our Current Personnel Roster in order of seniority

“Full-Timers”

Marty Sabourin – Marty is still the same. He is however planning on going to Sturgis again this year during the 75th anniversary of the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally. He keeps talking about retiring but we have heard this before. We need to start an office pool when his retirement will actually happen.

Rick Raprager – Still stays busy with numerous Union Steward issues. Between the C-17's and KC-135 union folks, his time is occupied. Not sure if he has a home life since he is always busy here at work and doing union business after hours.

Chico Gallegos – Stays busy with courseware and teaching students. The Jeep is still immaculate and he is putting both his kids through college.

Steve Tuttle – Teaching and doing whatever the schedule calls for. Riding the Harley as much as possible. One year after purchase have been over 16000 miles. 2015 Sturgis trip coming up soon.

Eddie Cole – Lead duties continue to keep him busy. He is scheduled as much as the rest of us for classroom instruction, BOWST missions, and pre-flight's. He tries to remain calm but with this bunch, he stays busy keeping us all in line. Rule # 1; What Eddie says – goes. Rule # 2; Refer to Rule # 1

Joe Surovy – Joe still brings in a weeks' worth of food as his morning snack. The schedulers keep Joe busy so he doesn't have as much time as he used to have to hide courseware on his desk or lock up the office computers.

Phil Blaisse – Phil is in the process of fixing up a house he bought so he can move to Tampa and retire in a couple of years since his wife accepted and moved to a new job in Tampa, Florida. He occasionally rides the Harley to work when the temperatures are cooler.

Clay Lifer – Clay likes being full-time and volunteering for as much overtime as possible. Clay enjoys stirring up whatever he can in the office. He recently got two different arguments going in our office at the same time and then walked out – he loves this stuff (and he's pretty good at it too).

Joe Wilkins – Joe stays busy like the rest of us. He is now finishing up his third week of vacation up in the Maine woods. He teaches the motorcycle safety course on weekends. Learning how to write TAPR's.

James Hill – James made instructor of the month (do you suppose we teased him mercilessly??). He also volunteers to conduct remediation on weekends. He appears to love being back at Altus.

Brian Buss – Finally retired from the Reserves. He is working on getting his VA disability figured out. He asks way too many questions and seems to be following in Clay's footsteps for getting arguments started.

James Bautista (Jaws) – Still the FNG (junior full-timer) since Billy left. He's still trying to learn GTIMS. He is trying to make "Instructor of the Month" by bringing in donuts from time to time (but he usually eats them all before anyone else can get them).

Recently departed Instructors:

Terry Daffern – Still in the local area, travels and golf's a lot.

Lew Timbrook – Lew is still working as foreman for his brother-in-law managing large amounts of property. He occasionally still works as a paramedic when he can find the time. He says he wants to completely retire fairly soon.

That's about it for now. Stop by and chat if you are in the area.

ALTUS AFB, OK

HQ AMCAOS DET 2

Greetings to all from HQ AMC Air Operations Squadron Detachment 2, home of the KC-135 / KC-46 SIMCERT program. Det 2's primary mission is to certify all KC-135 Boom Operator Weapons System Trainers (BOWSTs) and Cargo Load Trainer (CLT) at Altus, and to certify all KC-46 Boom Operator Trainers (BOTs), Boom Operator Part Task Trainers (BOPTTs) and cargo Fuselage Trainers (FuTs).

(S)MSgt Hanev, Shane M: Shane has decided to retire this year. He will be moving to the lovely state of GA to join his wife Heather and daughter Jordyn. Shane is looking forward to his new assistant pro golfer's job where he will be hitting golf balls all day long. Shane has ensured everyone that moving to GA will not turn him into a Bulldog fan, that he is!

MSgt Chatham, Jayson : AMC's DET 2 BO ATS QA Manager, MSgt Chatham is in for 2 more years at which time he wants to move closer to his daughter and be a better father figure. There have been rumors of him marrying again, what is it 4 times? Common denominator?....haha I'm writing this so I can make fun...

(M)Sgt Harp, Heather: Working for the DET on the new 46 program, Heather is a sharp motivated worker that is always striving for new heights. Heather has recently earned the rank of Master Sargent!! She and Cortney recently bought a house and are currently residing in Wichita KS, where she lets her dogs poop in the neighbor's yard for fun...

TSgt Russell, Michael S: AMC's DET 2 BO ATS QA Manager. Mike recently moved over to the DET where he brings a vast knowledge of his flying experience as a school house instructor. His experience is sure to be a valuable resource when certifying simulator profiles and functions. Mike lives in Altus with his wife Kim and four daughters!! Mike likes to go TDY around the 15th of every month.....Hum. Mike always brings interesting facts to the office (example: taking 10min poops a day equals roughly 40hrs of paid vacation time a year).

Retired MSgt Pickering, Dean: Doing a great job on the KC-46 program, we think? Even though he's retired he still makes sure the active duty guys come in on time and are in the proper uniform. You can't pull anything over on Dean!

Retired MSgt Stoermer, Jeffrey: Jeff now works for the Guard as an Aircrew Training Device Specialist. Jeff bought a new truck and is looking to buy new house. He is also contemplating a mail order bride. Nah...seriously he is doing well.

JOINT BASE ANDREWS, MD

National Guard Bureau

CMSgt Frank Santos: francisco.r.santos8.mil@mail.mil Well Boomers another old guy is pulling up chocks for the last time and flying off into the sunset. I've had a wonderful career after 33 years of service with 22 years of active duty. Taking care of the Airmen has always been my number one priority but always remembering we are all here for the Air Force mission and the greater good of this great country of ours. During this time I have made a lot of good friends that I will remember for the rest of my life. If you find yourself in the DC area in early September, there seems to be a final "Chief Roasting" going on. As long as I can drink cold beer while set aflame it's all good! We'll follow that up with ANOTHER double knee surgery before heading back to Hawaii In October 2015 with my wife and son. If you are traveling through the Islands give me a ring and we can have a few cold ones. Thank you to all that were always there to support me.

SMSgt Steve Butler: Stephen.j.butler10.mil@mail.mil Well, it's been one full year as the FAM for the Booms and Flight Attendants here at NGB. Let me just say that the Flight Attendants are far less trouble!!! (Maybe because there are only 31 of them) 98% of my first year was dedicated to getting the BOSS certified for Vol 1 Training and FINALLY, it happened!! Now I can focus on the remaining 98% (Public school math) of what this job entails. Although the BOSS is good to go, I still travel quite a bit to perform Certifications on each of the 16 devices out there every 6 months. I have a great team of 5 to help with this, but I still get to travel. When your unit is scheduled for a SIMCERT, stop by and say Hi!! I want to meet as many folks as I can!! Thanks for your support this past year and feel free to call anytime!!! Take Care!!

SMSgt Eric "Skog" Apelskog: Eric.j.apelskog2.mil@mail.mil On the home stretch of my four year Stat tour. Suz and I were blessed last year by becoming grandparents!! We can't wait to get back to Spokane and spoil our granddaughter!!! It has been a good run out here out at NGB. I have been privileged to work with some really fine people throughout the ANG on this tour. One of the things I have enjoyed the most is been able to go out to all the 135 units to fly, thanks to all of you for allowing me into your family (Even did a total TFI at March AD, AFRC and me as the lone ANG guy) . If you ever get out this way give me a call, we have plenty of room and would be glad to show you around DC we know it well, cheers Skog

“THE MAINEiacs”

GREETINGS FROM THE MAINEiacs. We have been on the road alot like the rest of the Tanker World, If you're in Bangor stop by the Boom Office and say Hi and we'll point you in the right direction.....

FULL TIMERS

SMSgt Jay Ellingsen: (Schmeg, Tattoo) AGR Current Operations. Always looking to make something go faster; car, motorbike, snowmobile or whatever.

SMSgt Gerry Martin: Technician Stan/Eval. On his off time you'll find Gerry roaming the Northwoods, hunting down innocent young grouse. He often forgets what the daily bag limit is. General rule – hunt til the Whiskey is gone.

MSgt Dan Benner: (Dano, Minuteman) Technician Tanker Task Force. He is still convinced there is a place in the NASCAR Hall of Fame for Ricky Craven.

MSgt Jim Dickson: (Jimmy D'Vin) AGR Boom Office. A devoted disciple of Ronald Reagan. We send him out at 0800 for noon coffee. Now off to CFIC.

MSgt John Haney: (Steve-O, Big John) AGR Training Flight. To sum John up; Works Hard and Plays Harder.

MSgt Asa Honey: (Miso) AGR Scheduling. Also works as a Special Investigator for OPM. His favorite beverage as he calls it, "delicious Budweiser, he loves the Beachwood Aged Flavor". And is search of the elusive casual shot of Crown.

MSgt Ray Rauscher: (Ray-Ray, Caveman, Half-A-Day Ray) Technician TODO. Where's Ray, if anyone has seen him let us know.... And Ladies please don't marry him he's been married enough. Ray is recovering after being in one of the largest pile-ups ever in Maine. One of our wounded warriors.

MSgt Ed Seymour: (Sped) Technician Weapons and Tactics. As the chief keeps telling Sped this isn't the Old Guard... NO more boom lunches!!! DNIF, One of our wounded warriors.

MSgt Andy Robichaud: (Robi, Sandy) Technician Scheduling. He doesn't believe in the quote "SHARE THE ROAD". Just please don't make him cry!

PART-TIMERS

MSgt Mark Doughty: (Stretch, Chuck) The man with the most toys wins. Hello, my name is Mark Doughty, "what can I do for you today?" Leans any further forward he'll fall over. Great guy you definitely can't miss him in a room.

MSgt John Fidler: (J.J. Buzzsaw, Shocker) John learned how to whisper in a saw mill, Learning volume control. Just started working around the country with an old high school buddy.

MSgt Fergus Kenny: (Boggy) Former AGR and scheduling, now sucking up trips and orders. It's amazing how he keeps his Harley upright going so slow.

TSgt Ronald Martell: (Viet-Ron) Straight from Vietnam to the Boom Pod. The only Active Boom Operator collecting both Social Security and Flight pay at the same time.

TSgt Marilia Rodriguez: (M-Rod) The Jersey terror came to us from the 108th. I've heard she's a killer on the Roller Derby Track! Fresh back from Altus CFIC.

SSgt Hailey Harder: Just back from Altus and Survival school and ready to dive right in to Mission Qual. training.

SSgt Melinda Metten: (Mel, Crossfit) Works as a local fire fighter and owns a Cross-Fit Gym... Do I need to say anymore Don't mess with this boom!

SSgt Matt Morneault: (Toot) One of our traditional flyers. Came to us from the Cop Shop. He's working on his SA hence the nickname.

SSgt Michael Newey: (Poof) Now you see him, now you don't... keep an eye on him or "Poof" he's gone.

217th AIR MOBILITY OPERATIONS SQUADRON
AIR REFUELING CONTROL TEAM
“FIRST IN THE FIGHT”

Greetings to all. Due to deployments and reorganizations we have missed submissions to the last couple of Boom Signals but glad to submit this year. We have heard “The only thing that is constant is change” and it cannot be any truer than now with the ARCT here in Battle Creek. Just six years after standing up, the ARCT is going away 1 Oct 2015 due to reorganization with-in the Guard. We look forward to reading future Boom Signals and attending Boom Symposiums to stay in contact with a great team of professionals.

CMSgt Jeffery Rooding- After 38 ½ years, Chief Rooding has retired. Having worked his way up to CMSgt in the Reserves, voluntarily taking a strip off to join the Guard five years ago, and then another stripe last year, he finished up a great career. Collecting military retirement early and at his highest grade, Chief Rooding is still busy deploying to Afghanistan as an Army civilian working the retrograde of Army equipment. We suspect he has dual citizenship by now.

MSgt Robert “Sud” Sudberry- Sud has also decided to hang it up and retire. After trying his hand with used car sales, he decided on yet another career move. One night, after watching back to back movies Every Which Way But Loose and Smokey And The Bandit, he decided he wanted to be a trucker. Have not gotten a 10-20 on him but we wish him well.

SSgt Doran Chadwick- Doran is the last and sole remaining boom operator. He made SSgt which puts a little more money in his pocket to help with school and feeding of his big family. He can now add peanut butter to his jelly sandwiches. Hope is the AOG will find a home for him so he can finish school, get a commission, and a good civilian job.

“DIXIE REFUELERS”

Greetings from Tide Country! The Black Knights are alive and kicking down here in Birmingham, the ops tempo is pretty busy but we still find time to hate the humidity and try to find ways not to kill Alabama and Auburn fans. We've been enjoying the BEST TFA unit in the Air Force and yes it's true, we DO NOT work Mondays. So, update your dream sheets if you're ready for a change of pace and peek behind the "Air Guard" curtain...it's friggin' awesome!

Chief Boom

MSgt Rodrick "Putt" Taylor (EB)- Putt finally got a little more facial hair, so that he can look the part of Chief Boom. He has been patiently waiting to move to Randolph to head up KC-46 training program for AETC. He has put in a lot of work here building up the TFA relationship...mainly by hanging out in the lounge drinking whiskey with the Guard guys and trying to convince them that his precious DAWGS will win the SEC this year.

NCOIC Stan/Eval

MSgt Dustin "Dusty Balls" Clark (EB)- Dusty done got promoted and got DNIF. Apparently he got too excited at the Holiday party when he heard a Justin Bieber song and decided to do the worm thus dislocating his shoulder. Luckily the Flight Doc was there to wipe away his tears and patch him up...there are pictures by the way. Dusty is our resident hall walker and he's really good at looking busy but, we know better.

NCOIC Training

TSgt Dustan "With an A" Foret (IB)- Dustan has arrived here from his school house tour last year with his shoulder barely attached to his torso, yet he still deployed for us and that was all she wrote. He hasn't touched an airplane since and just came from under the knife for the 3rd time. He blames Altus for botching him up, but we have our suspicions...deployment...hurt right arm...riiiight. We look forward to getting him back in the mix and when he returns we plan on letting him keep his Grizzly Adams beard too!

NCOIC Scheduling

Jay "Ham Bone" Hammond (IB)- Jay is our local Bama boy and fits right in down here. He's beloved by our Guard brethren and they would love to have him, we are hoping to keep him over on the "blue" side for a bit longer if possible. Jay is moving on to training flight shortly and should have a good time exercising his instructor chops on the youngn's.

Scheduling

TSgt Eric "Sonic" Sonnenberg (IB)- Sonic is a recent transplant from across the pond and we are grateful to have him. Not sure if they call him Sonic he's fast (in the busy since) or because he looks like a hedgehog. We were told he was a hard worker and he lived up to the hype. Sonic is already wearing tan and about to take over scheduling once he returns. He may be the coolest/bluest guy around.

Tactics

SrA Mike “I Got You” Robinson (MB)- Another EGUN transplant, this guy can’t say no to any job thrown at him especially if it’s “Go home Mike” I think that I actually seen him drop ninja smoke one day. Everyone has nice thing to say about Mike’s ass, since all we ever see is him walking out the door. He will be joining Sonic in the sand box shortly, and is prepping for CFIC once he returns.

Mobility

SrA Andy “Pony Boy” Birmingham- (MB)- Andy is our resident Brony who lives in Birmingham, with the last name Birmingham. We have to try REAL hard not to get EO complaints about this guy. He is literally a two trick pony...he fly’s his butt off and goes missing...that’s what he does. If you’re looking for him just google the nearest BronyCon, he’ll be there dressed as a unicorn and surrounded by rainbows and “friends”.

Hallway Wakler Jr. aka he ain’t got no job

A1C Dmitri “MCT For Life” McIntosh- (FB) - Our most recent Altus product (You guys are to a bang-up job by the way). Dmitri has fallen victim to the “waiting to get night fighters for two months” debacle. This guy is a 100% millennial, I want to gut-punch him & hi-five him at the same time. We put him on airplanes as much as possible to get him out of the building or you will see him doing his best Dusty Clark impression in the hallway chatter-boxing with anyone who can relate to a 19yo, which ain’t many considering most around here have children his age.

Inbounds:

SSgt Cody Brister- McGuire AFB

BOEING FIELD SEATTLE, WA

418 Flight Test Squadron Det 1

SMSgt Ernest “The Don” Burns - Superintendent. Is still in heaven being so close to the birthplace of Boeing. Burnsie finally made Senior, just before legally being eligible for senior discounts. Despite his graying hair, he continues to lead the Detachment in making milestones toward certification of the KC-46A.

MSgt Ryan “RMFP” Perry – If not at the gym, or getting a tattoo, can still be found operating as the Detachment “common sense” police. He is also the resident SAPR training specialist, and we aren’t sure if that is because he needs the training more than anyone else. We are thinking he spends so much time at the gym, to counteract all of the estrogen at home, with his 4 lovely girls.

MSgt Rich “Rain Man” Craft – Master of ‘esprit de corps,’ can often be found scheduling golfing and fishing outings (not necessarily for the squadron, but at least for himself). He is slowly breaking into the idea of being a SNCO (very, very slowly). He is our resident expert when it comes to memorizing KC-46A specifics, as you can tell from his nickname.

(M)Sgt Lindsay “On Leave” Moon – Somehow sells 40 days of leave back to the USAF, and takes twice as much leave as everyone else, but still has Use-or-Lose in September. We are still trying to figure out how to get him to do some work around here. He also lucked out to make Master during the highest promotion rate in years.

TSgt Mike “Can’t Stand It!!!” Miranda – Is almost as easy to spin up, as MSgt Scotty Scurlock. Sometimes we like to just make things up to see how he will react. He can often be found following MSgt Craft to the golf course, although no one wants to play with him after he went to the US Open, and watched the pros play. Now it takes him 4 hours just to line up his first putt.

(T)Sgt Colin “STILL - Low Man on the Totem Pole” Wernecke – Made Tech this year but still can’t climb the ladder. Now he figures, if he can’t pass us in rank, he will pass us in knowledge. He completed his private pilot’s license, and is completing college at a blistering pace. We are trying to talk him into crossing to the dark side, and becoming a Boom Operator Taxi Driver, and we think he is starting to consider the idea.

AFOTEC

Operating Location - Everett Washington

Greetings again from the Pacific Northwest; we are getting closer to the KC-46A's first flight! Boeing completed the first flight of the 767-2C back in December and EMD 2 (1st KC-46A) is completing the final ground testing in Everett, WA. The mad rush for Boeing is to complete the Milestone-C entrance requirements in order to meet the contractual requirement to precede with the low rate initial production aircraft. Regarding operational testing, we are underway with our 2nd operational assessment but progress has been slow as we are waiting for the KC-46A to begin flying. As it turns out, we are already getting pressure from the Program Office to produce a report to support the decision even though we are still months away from seeing a refueling. The schedule pressure is having an impact on the start of IOT&E and it appears that the current schedule shows a start date of October 2016. Good luck to all of you selected as initial cadre; I hope AMC lets you keep your slots. Even though the Program Office and Boeing are showing a 2016 start for IOT&E I wouldn't hold my breath. At the current pace we'll be lucky if it's summer of 2017.

AFOTEC Det 5/OL-EW

SMSgt Scott "Ironman" Beasley: Scott continues to function as the backbone of the operational test team. His knowledge of acquisition and test is second to none. Unfortunately, he's also a SMSgt in the boom career field and has been spending the past year ducking and dodging potential assignments. He's been spending his off time prepping for an Ironman race and counting all the money he's made from his real estate holdings. If we could get him to put as much effort into his job as he does planning vacations we'd have our test report written by now.

AMC TES/OL-C

MSgt Jason "Toastmaster" Schaub: Jason is an extraordinary ARO (Boeing's official name for the Boom Operator)! When not ARO'ing he moonlights by taking the dreaded speech CLEP for anyone that is willing to pay the right "price". He is also a member of one of those ancient and super-secret fraternities of grey hairs, so BEWARE! He continues to be valuable to the KC-46A Operational Test Team!

AMC TES/DET 1

MSgt Joshua "Josh" Mullen: Josh is the newest member to the KC-46A operational test team. He brings a vast amount of test experience from his time at McGuire AFB as a Test Director in AMC's Test & Evaluation Squadron. His timing to the program is impeccable; in his short time on the program he has already received his KC-46A type-1 training from Boeing and will likely see the program through IOT&E. If only we he could have PCS'd to Seattle's hipster Scene instead of Edwards AFB. In addition to wanting to own a Prius, he would totally fit in with his turtle neck sweaters, skinny jeans, and all-star hi-tops. Who knows, if Boeing continues to move the schedule any further to the right, Josh's dream to live in the city that has perfected the "cold brew" coffee could come true. Josh, you can have everything.

BOEING FIELD SEATTLE, WA
FLIGHT TEST BOOM OPERATORS

“FLY BOEING TANKERS”

Greetings from the Boeing Boom Operators!

It truly is amazing what can change in a single year! The 767-2C finally has some hours under her belt, the KC-46 is tantalizingly close to first flight, and #3 and #4 airplanes are close behind. Our partnership with the USAF Test Booms is still in place, and is evolving from planning testing procedures to implementing them. Their collaboration with us has been crucial during this transitional phase, and we look forward to their continued support through the progression from support roles to flight test. This is the home stretch folks, the wait is nearly over!

Sean Martin – Sean is a machine, has elevated multitasking to an art form. He actually can be in 2 places at once, and makes the Energizer Bunny look like a slacker. When told to take a vacation his plans somehow got approved smack in the middle of testing, leaving Rickey and Kate to pull 12 hour shifts while he lounged around Cabo! Needless to say they had a few words with him, and his next leave request won't be approved until 2020. Seriously though, Sean is the hardest working Boom on the program and the 46 is that much better for it.

Rickey Kahler – Bell bottoms and 8 track tapes hailed his entry into flight test, and at the rate he's going, flying cars and hover boards will see him out. 40+ years, 10,000+ hours and swears he's still in training! All that experience is being put to good use up here, and this grumpy old man is gettin' the job done. Don't let his gruff exterior fool you though – on the inside he's a screaming school girl counting down the days to the first contact!

Michael Kibler – Mike all out abandoned us to work for the dark side...otherwise known as Airbus...(traitor!) Seriously though, Mike is a great guy that brought a lot to the 46 program; we were sorry to see him go.

Kate Lowry – likes to know her schedule and plan out her life, unfortunately...she joined a flight test team where you can plan all you want, but it will change and nothing happens fast in test. On a serious note, Kate has been a valued gain to the test program and has been exceptional in managing the fire hose of learning the aircraft, flight test, and assisting with engineering and procedural changes!

BOOM OPERATOR TRAINING AND TECH PUBS TEAM

“FUELING THE FIGHT, ANYWHERE, ANYTIME”

Greetings from the Great North West, where fish and bears are plentiful! Initial home to the U.S. Air Force's KC-46 Tanker! We have taught the USAF Initial Test Cadre, class B-1 to B-5 and accomplished 5 continuation training classes. It has been an honor to teach all the new KC-46 booms, as they are truly a select group of highly motivated boomers! We look forward to our IOT&E students and then we will ride off into the sunset!

- Phil “The Real” Deal, Lead, KC-46 Boom Operator Training. Phil has accepted a new job working for the U.S. Department of Agriculture in JAWJAW or Georgia if you were not born there! He will go from aviation to slopping the hogs! A return to his roots! We have asked if his new job requires shoes, optional Phil stated! He also said something about cow flatulence testing! Seriously, it is a very important job that covers farming in Georgia, Florida and Alabama and Puerto Rico! Congratulations Phil, as the first KC-46 training instructor, we hate to see you go!
- Don “Bubba” Cox, KC-46 Aircrew Training Subject Matter Expert. A steady diet of teaching classes and AROS SIL classes has kept me very busy this year. Looking forward to getting back to Florida soon! It's getting close to the time I need to be on the front porch!
- Al “Yo Boom” Miller, KC-46 Aircrew Training Subject Matter Expert. Al has volunteered for every project thrown at him, although getting long in the tooth, he has an unprecedented memory! A walking knowledge bank for the KC-46! He recently bought a John Deere X500 lawn tractor to ride down to his river in front of his log cabin in Michigan! He said it will mow grass too! But mostly push snow!
- Stacy Tansits, KC-46 Boom Operator Publications Author. Stacy has created the initial set of aircrew checklists and daily she checks them out in our AROS SIL. She is working toward the completion of the KC-46 technical publications and helping us get over losing Phil.

Again, we thank Phil for all his contributions and wish him and his family well and safe travels! As always, we thank you, that are currently serving, and for those who have served and sacrificed their lives for our country, a debt we can never repay!

Fly safe, Bubba.

CENTENNIAL, CO

KC-46 ATS BOOM INSTRUCTORS

“Aplá Metávasi”

Steve Vaughn (KC-46 Courseware Manager): Moonlighting as a courseware manager, this property mogul is quickly snatching up real estate around Denver to house his 40 children and grandchildren. He just recently welcomed ANOTHER grandchild into the tribe. Congratulations...we think! When he is not telling war stories or exposing “THE LEXUS” to thousands of dollars of hail damage, he is battling the forces of AETC & AMC to develop a top notch courseware program.

Chris Prosser (Flight Certified Boom Operator...aka Prima Donna Flyboys, aka The Bearded One): Our resident “expert” on all things KC-46 but only because he was here about a year before anyone else and looked at all the pictures over and over. He grew out his beard for a cameo role in the “Sons of Anarchy” season finale, and leaving Monday to start filming the new seasons of “Vikings”. Reportedly, the Colorado Department of Agriculture has recently discovered two new species of birds living in his beard. Chris provides sage advice and expert technical guidance to our sim guys in Oklahoma so if they don’t work like the plane...talk to him and Lou. Helps Steve battle against AETC & AMC and is routinely heard explaining high end concepts such as zone loads, max fuels and adjacent axles, AGAIN. Just bought a house and created a super deluxe man-cave, at least until his wife changes it.

Luis Drummond (Flight Certified Boom Operator...aka Prima Donna Flyboys, aka Paparazzi): Our other resident KC-46 “expert” and bearded comrade of Chris. Can name any prop job that flies by the building (we think he makes the names up) but can’t remember his computer password. When not distracted (look squirrel) by all the bug smashers, he provides lots of tech data for the Courseware department. Yes, Lou, we know the light switch requires 1.24lbs of pressure to move, student doesn’t need to know that. When not annoying Lynn with his ‘ATC-like’ call outs of planes in the local pattern, he can be found using his camera with the oversized lens (compensating....?) taking awesome pictures of Colorado and of course...planes.

Dan Phillips (Courseware SME...aka Non-Flying Admin Boom, aka FlightSafety Penguin): Cerebral, thought-provoking, and incredibly long winded...Dan, "The Professor" can beat a dead horse like no one else. When you think the solution is in hand, he will snatch defeat out of the jaws of victory with the statement "Well, you know...". You know it is time to break out the Egg-Timer as he waxes philosophically on the issue at hand. When not in South Carolina for his quarterly conjugal visits, Dan is the brains behind courseware development...so if you don't like the Boom Operator FTC courses...talk to him!

Lynn Thatcher (Courseware SME... aka Non-Flying Admin Boom, aka FlightSafety Penguin): Instigator extraordinaire and the Mayor of Whyville! There isn't an answer in the world (or courseware graphic) that quenches his incredibly irritating quest to ask "Why"! When he is not stirring the pot of cargo courseware chaos he is shopping for the cheapest possible meat products at his local Walmart to subsidize his car fetish. He just returned from his 22 hour Cannon Ball run from California to Colorado in a 22 foot U-Haul packed to the gills...who knew a U-haul could do 120 mph for that long. Is anyone looking for a Corvette...$10,000 or best offer.

EDWARDS AFB, CA

TEST OPERATIONS

“The Divorce is Final...for now”

What a year it has been. TestOps has been shut down. This is a normal, every ten years, type of thing here at Edwards. The 445th FLTS folks (Active Duty) were moved to the 418th FLTS and the 370th FLTS folks (Reserves) moved into their own building. The 418th is the unit responsible for flight testing, while the 370th is responsible for test support air refueling missions. On the Boom side of things, we still mix and match and fly on both types of missions. Despite the growing pains between the units, the Booms have stuck together and made sure things keep running...like we always do. It's amazing how a crisis that some folks want to elevate to have the DOs fight about can be solved by a simple call between Bros. The Booms in the 418th hit the ground running and have adopted the loadmasters we found when moving into the new squadron. Kind of like Big Brothers/Big Sisters, we are trying to help the less fortunate. We've gotten to do some fun and exciting things this year. We finished up F-35A testing with the -135. We thought we had finished the F-35A with the -10 until someone decided to add some extra testing. F-35B/C model testing with both the -135 and -10 is ongoing. We started testing the -10 ABCU, but had to stop due to some software anomalies. We continue to test -135 Block 45, but don't expect that to be done for quite some time. We are beginning to test Italian KC-767s and both Australian and UAE KC-30s against US receivers. We also get to fly with the Seattle KC-46 guys to help them regain currency. They started flying the KC-46 in June 2015...oh wait, they aren't flying it yet, surprise! As always, it's great to see you guys when you come out on Business Efforts. The 370th does a great job in taking care of the TDY crews. The beverage light is always ready to be turned on if you're out here. We won't give any details about our Boom gatherings, as we don't want Burnsie to get another IG complaint about the Signal (It wasn't our fault last year, we swear).

CMSgt Jim “Pitt” Pittman (OG Superintendent): His wife, “Mini-Pitt”, always blames us when he buys new toys (motorcycles, guns, campers, etc). After breaking himself last year racing motocross, he decided to take on less strenuous activities like Iron Man Triathlons. Constantly rearranging his schedule to fly and then canceling.

TSgt Lonnie Moon (OGV): Averaged 1 day a month in the office at OGV this year, due to all of the KC-10 testing. Amazingly, no antennas were claimed by Lonnie this year. However, a certain company did question his ability to “correctly” execute test maneuvers. That just proves he is doing it right. He introduced his sister to another boom and thought it wouldn't affect his life...he apparently forgot his fellow booms can be a-holes. He finally got a boat, but with the drought in Cali, it's hard to find a place to take it. He did manage to go fishing once and managed to catch a dachshund puppy.

MSgt Aaron “A-Ray” Ray: When he's not rescuing his wife because his 3-year old locked her out of the house and won't let her in, he can be found playing at being a MSgt, hustling business effort crews to buy the best swag ever, and maintaining friendly relations between the active duty and reserves. He upheld standards by making a female, civilian flight test engineer cry because she was wearing her flight suit with a nametag that had pilot's wings on it. No A-Ray, it apparently isn't Halloween around here.

MSgt Scott “Scottie” Scurlock: Still not married...until A-Ray and Lauren get him and Jen drunk and perform the ceremony as newly ordained ministers (Gotta love the internets). Just passed the stress test for his heart-problem waiver. He should be headed to Altus with his little buddy for requal when he finally gets off DNIF. Had 10 years of PII paperwork dumped all over the desert when a pilot tried to “warm up” the campfire at Koopalooza.

MSgt Dave “Married to a Lt Col” Stanko: The only TR boom in the squadron, he drifts in and steals all of the flights when he’s around. Despite not being a test boom, has more test experience than anyone else here from his civilian job as a test pilot. Seriously, TPS had him come in to see if their courseware was good enough. The Stanko was not impressed.

MSgt Matt “Matty” Werner: Was the epicenter of the first post-divorce battle between squadrons when we tried to send him to Pax River for testing. Like all children of messy divorces, Matty just did his best to keep everyone happy. But we’re watching him to make sure he doesn’t snap one of these days and run off to get a tattoo and marry a stripper. Last minute update: One day after this was initially written, Matty verified that he was curtailing his AGR status and will move back to a TR position. Get in touch with Scotty or A-Ray if you are interested in a MSgt AGR position.

Departed: SMSgt Alvin “Koop” Kuper – Went back to Altus because flying with student PIQs is less stressful than flying with test pilots. Or it might have been the Chief stripe and being closer to his family. We frequently get emails from the new Chief reminding us of the importance of PME, the Airman’s Creed, and maintaining a warrior ethos.

MSgt Jason “Ralphie” Larimore: Is retiring to go work for Amazon as a loggie at one of their fulfillment centers. He promises the next Prime Day will be better. When he leaves, he will likely to be found hogging a fam camp site at a base near you. The trailer should be easy to find: look for the Air Force flag and the trailer with the Test Tanker One (61-0320) paint scheme.

MSgt Titan “Gangsta” Miller: Turns down bums who ask for change because he “only carries whole dollar bills”...#THUGLIFE. Does YouTube reviews on light bulbs and is testing a manufacturer’s claims about biodegradable plastic forks by leaving one in his yard...forever. Pinned on Master at 28 years old and applied for OTS. Should be a LT by the next signal.

MSgt Jamie “Drizzle” Morton: Wants us to call him C-Drizzle, but “Little Lou” is more accurate. Working with Comm to get his email forwarded to Facebook so he can actually keep up with work when TDY. Went to Pax River for F-35B/C testing, only flew twice, but took 50,000 pictures of all the tourist spots on the East Coast.

TSgt Justin “JT” Thompson: His fourth kid is due any day now, after Cierra pulled the goalie when he wasn’t looking. He promises he isn’t trying to be the next Joe Blakely, but we’re not buying it. Somehow he has managed to keep all of his kids off meth while living in Mojave. If he ever takes a break from managing the Flight Test Engineer’s training so they don’t kill us, he might just get to work on a sweet test program sometime.

TSgt (S) Lauren “Pow-Pow” Powell: “Gina” is still trying to bankrupt Lauren during late-night, drunken Amazon shopping sprees. “Gina” bought a treadmill, Lauren thinks it makes a nice statue in her living room. “Gina” bought a Keurig; Lauren has started drinking coffee just to use up all the K-Cups “Gina” bought with it. She declared war on the Edwards flight docs, but swears she will fly again someday. In between DNIFs, she stole all of the TDYs.

SSgt Adam “Haywood” Joachim: Currently at KC-10 training to get dual-qual’d...bro. He caught some crap when he showed up; because it somehow got to us that he was claiming to be a Block 45 test boom...yet still hasn’t flown an actual Block 45 test mission. His goal is to be the first KC-135/-10/-30/-46/-767 SOBO.

SSgt Jake “Jerry” Sarno: Now in a long-term bro-mance with a loadmaster. He spends a lot of time with “Gina” performing drunken acts of awesomeness. A typical day of Jake at work: Check email, go steal water from Boeing’s office, go outside and smoke, repeat with a lunch thrown in sometime between 0900-1500. Or else he’s flying everyday. He’s the Boom scheduler, but I can’t tell if he’s doing it wrong or very right.

Leighann “L-Ray” Ray: Got out last year. Is still in the local area, as she’s still married to A-Ray. Is a full-time Mom. And a full-time student working on her Master’s. And runs a sign business full-time. That’s a lot of “full-times”, so she’s obviously staying busy.

EIELSON AFB, AK

168 ARS

Greetings from the Last Frontier. We're still busy up here and seem to have plenty of work to go around. We got a couple new booms back from school and three more on the way. Feel free to contact us anytime at john.r.duhaime.mil@mail.mil or call the Boom Pod DSN 317-377-8836, commercial (907) 377-8836.

CMSgt John "Doc" Duhaime (AGR) – It's great to have a Chief in the building again. Congrats on the promotion!

SMSgt Rich "Smitty" Smith (AGR) – He is our Stan/Eval rep and newest SMSgt. He seems to be showing way too much interest in his drone hobby. Some say he is secretly training for his future career with the CIA. I think being a boom is just his cover, wait, did you hear that? I've said too much...

MSgt Christian "Willey Cat" Willey (AGR) – Still doing great things in training. If your copilot needs help with his GRAC book, Willey Cat is the guy to talk to. Just make sure he studies first!

MSgt Tanna "Queen Bee" Carter (TRAD) – She's our A Flight NCOIC for our traditional force. There is currently a petition floating around to move the alert shack into one of the wings of her mansion.

MSgt Tracy "T-Purd" Purdy (AGR) – Our newest AGR. She is currently working in Current Ops and spending her free time being a new mom. She even talked Cole into joining the "Dark Side."

TSgt Keith "KROW" Rowan (AGR) – Still working hard at keeping all the booms happy with the schedule. During his free time he can either be found riding his motorcycle, or lifting weights on the crossfit float at your local parade.

TSgt Wes "Shamus" Hudnall (TRAD) – When he's not on Alert or in the 'Deid, he's busy building his compound, hording guns, and raising chickens. When the zombie apocalypse comes we're all coming over to his place!

TSgt Pete "Hormel" Gardella (AGR) – Pete has proven that no matter how much money you throw at a Suzuki Samurai, it still doesn't make it a Jeep. At work he spends his time in the training shop teaching new booms about his 5 rules to live by.

SSgt Jonathan "Jonny L" Legan (TECH) – Not even a year since finishing CFIC he's become the newest poster child for the Air National Guard! He's learning that life as a celebrity is a lot of work with all the interviews and many adoring fans wanting autographs. He still has time to do great things for us in the scheduling shop. "God Willing," he'll be able to keep this pace up.

SSgt Rachel “Ray-Ray” Cook (AGR) – Full time DTS guru, part time boom. We’d all be lost without her DTS experience. Just got married and is enjoying lots of family time.

SSgt Kyle “Groot” Armour (TRAD) – Seems to have escaped the Alert shack and found him a temporary gig helping out in Stan\Eval. He and his wife are expecting their second child soon. Congrats Kyle!

SrA Kyle “Speed Brake” Betts (TRAD) – Anybody check out his hairdo in the Deid? Rumor has it he’s already signed up for another 120!

SrA Chris “Sparky” Frazier (TRAD) – Fresh out of MCT and ready to “Bring It On!” Just got engaged and we all wish nothing but the best for him and his bride to be!

TSgt Chad Hill (TRAD) – Former Security Forces Cop turned Boom Operator, Chad is all about check lists; MCT complete, check; Al U Deid deployment, check; Alert tour, check; Boom Signal update complete, check; get more stuff to attach to his FJ Cruiser, check; get “Cop” beat out of him...still working on that one!

FAIRCHILD AFB, WA

92 OPERATIONS GROUP

Group Superintendent:

CMSgt “Wild” Bill Fitch – What can be said about Chief Fitch that he hasn’t already told everyone? Ha! Seems to be in bit better of a mood since the Cubs are above .500 this late into the season for the first time since Teddy Roosevelt was the POTUS. That brief moment of happiness will come to a crashing halt as soon as the Bears hit the field and Cutler tosses 4 picks in a game. Doing great things at the Group, like sending out reminders to complete Fire Extinguisher training, to stop drinking at the VFW in uniform, and making sure we all have clean patches. Bam! But seriously, we love having him here, looking out for the boom force and making us all better professionals.

Operations Superintendent:

CMSgt(s) Tom “Joker from Full Metal Jacket” Ireland – Arrived at FAFB and immediately set the fear of god into baby booms. Has been working on his photography skills, documenting improperly tied down pelican cases, chains and straps not up to speed, and general disarray at the galley. Doing his best OJ Simpson impression, rolling around the base at 25 mph in his white Ford Bronco. Great to have a CFIC boom at the OG and looking forward to him improving the crew force knowledge, one beating at a time!

92 ARS

“BLACKHAWKS”

Squadron Superintendent:

SMSgt Michael “Roddy” Rodriguez – Sgt Rodriguez recently put on Senior and is now spending his time making sure the Airmen aren’t sitting on the desks. Still trying to get the TI out of him all these years later...

Operations Superintendent:

MSgt Joe Koch - Did such a horrible job over at the 93d that he got fired and took over at the 92d. Came up with an ingenious new plan for the deployment schedule, it involves telling people that are deploying the next week by saying, “H-a-a-a-y I sort of have an inconvenience...I know...” Joe has done a great job as Ops Sup, and is a great addition to the 92d.

Stan/Eval:

MSgt Ryan Soule – He's enjoying being back at Fairchild instead of Altus, just ask him, it's one of his five stories he repeats weekly. Currently being a "good boy" on Facebook...we'll see how long that lasts.

TSgt Eric “Ned” Flanders – Since he hasn't flown in three years it only made sense to put him in Stan Eval to grade other people flying. Somehow swindled Distinguished Grad out of the NCO Academy; must’ve been his brisket technique, Texas charm, and girlish figure.

SrA Daniel “Back at Kadena” Childress – Dan just became an evaluator (instructor at Kadena) as a SrA (Made SrA at Kadena) because he's been in longer than most SSgt's in the squadron (and at Kadena) and has more flying experience (from Kadena). Just had baby number two (not in Kadena) and has started to break the habit of "Well back at Kadena..." (Not really)

SrA Ryan Kemp – Our resident ginger ninja. Currently doing all the dirty work in Stan Eval, and looking to finish his time out and Palace Chase in the near future.

SrA Greyson Sandoval – On the first half of his first deployment Greyson figured out what we've all been trying to for years...get permanently banned from the Deid due to an immigrations "misunderstanding." Unfortunately he's becoming very familiar with the phrase, "Message follows..."

Training:

TSgt Dan “SSgt Select” McCrillis – Angry Dan recently took over training. Due to recent anger management classes he’s learned stabbing Amn for going overdue for contacts is no longer considered PC in today’s kinder, gentler Air Force. Instruction technique is notable. Recently, taught a student how to knock off a tacan antenna or was it two...Just received orders to McConnell where he will definitely show he is not the same Dan of old, will do great things.

SSgt David Askins – Apparently there aren’t enough beans in squadron to count because this guy can’t stop producing children, maybe it was that sweet deployment stache? He purchased a boat with more holes in it than Swiss-cheese. We tried to tell him if it flies or floats it’s cheaper to rent it.

SSgt Andrew Abney – Most guys wait until after they’re married to let themselves go. Abney doesn’t believe in all that. Andrew just got back from CFIC and has found his niche in the squadron, getting counseled by McCrillis.

SrA Andrew Keepers – Bought a Camaro to compensate for something...is that why we’ve never seen him with a significant other? Can’t catch a break between picking up a stalker during ALS (so he says) and getting in the middle of a SERE bar fight. Drew just moved to the UDM office where he will do good things for the group.

SrA Jimmy Ray “Fat Bieber” Bailey – A resident of the pomade household, had to get a falcon loan to fund all the drinks he buys girls downtown...Still can’t get a date for a Luke Bryan concert. Likes to leave his old broke down truck on base so long that security forces had to inform squadron leadership to make him remove it. Maybe next time he’ll buy a Chevy.

Scheduling:

TSgt Chris “Knife Hands” Pedersen – Chris got here from Altus (where he earned a STEP to Tech) and has taken over scheduling. We’d say he pulled his hair out, but that already happened 35 years ago. Chris is a walking PME course. He’s continuing to pretend he has a Harley by getting a huge tattoo. Upon closer inspection we found out he got the entire Enlisted Force Structure on his back. Chris was recently named NCOIC of OST where he will continue to utilize those Altus skills.

SSgt Ladarious “The Watcher” Malone – Loves being a Staff so much he refuses to take his WAPS tests for Tech. Ladarious is our silent warrior, manning his scheduling desk with not much time for anything else.

SrA Joey “They Call Me the Fireman” Burnett – Finally got shingles off his face, and just in time to save some kittens from trees in Georgia. For some reason our scheduling shop makes people want to Palace Chase as far away from Fairchild as possible. Good luck and thanks for all the hard work.

SrA Amy Zemaitis – Amy came into the Air Force with her degree already completed, “over achiever.” Although her degree is in Hospitality and Tourism...she swears that’s a real thing...It has helped her be the best flight attendant on the KC-135 in history. Look out for Amy to be your next cruise director.

SrA Erica Mann – Hated flying so much that she got pregnant as soon as she got to Fairchild. One of the few baby-booms to get R&C’d to MB as a SrA, maybe she’ll deploy before she makes SSgt.

SrA Hector Acevedo – People were confused and thought that SMSgt Rodriguez had a 30 year old son...Still using Rosetta stone to learn English, hasn’t quite grasped it yet... It’s hard to teach an old dog new tricks.

SrA Kevin Haggith – Our resident lurch. One of those guys that's too nice to make fun of.

A1C Carrie “Jo Lynn ~~Vaughn~~ (NO MORE!) Death-rage” Williams – The reason our squadron is in debt to the name patch company. Between changing her last name and her rank we just can't keep up. She likes the rank of A1C so much that she put it on twice. Currently harassing people to do G240 Sims, but still can't figure out the difference between SrA Childress and SSgt Childers when scheduling.

Readiness:

SSgt Rich Johnson – Rich learned why you don't go to shady audio shops when his Corvette caught fire. He recently sold it to someone by advertising it had “brand new interior!” He bought a truck with an eight inch lift kit on it. Is anybody seeing a trend here?

SrA Nick Eykamp – One of two SrA in the 92 ARS that actually wore BDUs. Also had to hitchhike to work after his brand new F-150 was stolen from his apartment complex.

SrA Eli Kohorst – Our resident metro who lives in the pomade sponsored household with two of our other “Slick and Shiny” booms. Basically he has to split rent with 4 people just so he can afford his quiff addiction.

A-Flight:

(T)Sgt Spencer Balcom – Spencer somehow found his name on this year's Tech list. Now he'll at least look age to rank appropriate. “Safety locks stowed” includes the giant red handle Spencer!!

MSgt Greg Patterson – The other “Old Greg”. Greg is a recent convert back to AMC from a hardship tour at Ramstein. He loves it so much that he's decided to retire! If you need to know anything about the A-Model you can find him splitting his time between the VFW and adult day care. Thank you for your service and enjoy the good life...

SSgt Ryan Kiser – Ryan's headed across the street to join the WANG. Where he can hide from Amy, annoy them with war stories, and complain about active duty. Now he won't have his girlfriend available to schedule him for sims on blues day. It's been real Ryan but make sure you fully understand their leave policy.

SSgt Mike Childers – Ah Childers...where do we begin. When he isn't spending his time reviewing travel vouchers you can find him adding people to his list, and cleaning his unnecessarily large collection of guns. We're not sure what his list contains, but we're pretty sure we don't want to be on it. Mike recently married, and will be separating in September, good luck.

SrA Robert McKnight – Keeps telling us he's going to leave us all behind and become a mathematician. Yet for some reason he still has to use his fingers and toes to do the Form F. Watch out for Robert; he's going to be the next Bill Nye the science guy.

A1C Edward Acosta – He's being a good boy so far...Just completed MCT, and in the queue to deploy. He recently purchased the same car as the wing commander so people will salute him while he's driving around.

A1C Mercedes Johnson – She just arrived from Altus, and is looking forward to what the future has in store for her.

Amn Sara Jordan – Arrived from Altus as I'm typing this out. Not much on “Amn” Jordan so stand-by till next years.

Safety:

SrA Greg “The Plumber” Webb – Our resident SrA who is almost old enough to start collecting AARP benefits. He holds the record for the oldest person to ever live in the dorms. Finally moved out, and happy to be on his own.

Tactics:

SSgt Neil Patras “Harris” – Doogie is done dodging responsibility over at the alert shack. Oh, never mind he’s in tactics...

SrA Wes Tinch – We keep hearing this name around the squadron but were not entirely sure who it is. He survived a near death experience in the Deid when his AC decided to fillet a duty van open. What we now call the panda van.

Execs:

SSgt Shawna Sims – Shawna is the Sq’s TV star and just loves everything about flying! So much so she’s currently logging A-model time. Trying to catch up with Sgt Soule by roaming the dorms for “Friends”, she just had a huge party for her current beau for graduating FTAC. Rumor has it she’s been seen shopping for prom dresses lately.

SrA Eric Medina – One of the three Hispanic people in the squadron that actually knows how to speak Spanish. Before coming home he decided to shave his deployed mustache off, and made his pilots attend a funeral in its honor.

SrA Shane Halford – One of the strongest booms we know to this day...Even though he’s been fighting the good fight, he lets us know that his eyebrows are always on “Fleek.” Keep him in your thoughts and prayers!

On Loan:

SMSgt Jeremiah Docken – He’s spending his days running CCX and trying to figure out what his board score will be.

MSgt Kevin Wilson – Did such a good job as Ops Sup that he graduated to counseling Amn on parking tickets as the Group First Sergeant. If he stays on this path you’ll see him at your next drug testing. Kevin is doing such a fantastic job as the shirt that the Command Chief does not plan on filling it with a Diamond any time soon.

SrA Josh Ortega – Seems to turn pale when someone mentions possible re-board of the KC-46. He recently became the expert on reverse mortgages in the squadron. Our resident sports aficionado, if he’s not in the 92 OSS exec office (yup he’s an exec), he’s running around a court or field somewhere.

SrA Stephon Sharief – Sharief is finishing up a year stint in the group UDM office and will soon be deploying. Upon his return he will come back to the Sq.

SrA Erin Ong – When she’s not working in the OG, and wearing the people’s uniform, she can be found babysitting everyone’s pet animals or taking in strays. Erin will be transitioning to the civilian sector in the very near future, and we wish her well. She will be missed.

Attached:

TSgt Zachary Donarski – Zach is a great guy. At least we think he is? Nobody really knows since he hides out over at the alert shack. When Zach isn’t spending his time dodging deployments, you can find him scrubbing crust out of the hot tub.

SrA Jesse Doecker – Who? Just kidding, he’s one of the schedulers, best friend or worst nightmare since he works for Wing scheduling. Such a sweet voice can bear such bad news...

Outbound:

CMSgt Steven “Opie” Flax – Opie is one of those Chiefs you’ll always remember. He’s down in Texas now smoking funny stuff and riding his Harley. Not at the same time Opie!! He was a mentor to all of us and now that he’s gone we can finally get some work done. Thank you for your 30+ years of service, enjoy.

SSgt Jeff Watson – Parted ways with Big Blue to join Little Blue (WANG) and pursue his Masters. Future Chief in the making who will do great things in whatever he decides to do when he grows up.

SSgt Caleb Sieben – Caleb separated and was hired by MacDill reserve. He’s desperately trying to find a hair product that will withstand the Tampa humidity. He was the inspiration of many of our young booms for their “Slick and Shiny” look.

SSgt Steve Cantu – Steve has been here so long that the unit he PCS'd from, back in 2008, was changed to a C-130 Airlift Wing...seven years ago. He finally got an assignment to the Center of Excellence at Lackland where he'll teach new aircrew how to watch movies at the Nav table, run half marathons in Vibrams, and how Romo doesn't always lose games for the Cowboys.

SrA Melanie Bright – BYE FELICIA!

SrA David “DJ” Simpson – Our Gucci boy finally made peace with Fairchild and threw us the deuces.

SrA Dave Fernandez – Just like every other SrA his age, he went Guard to be a firefighter. He missed being a boom so much that he’s trying to get Reserves slot at Andrews. We think he just wanted to leave the scheduling shop...

SrA Korbin “The Buff Hamster” Hays – Changed his relationship status to “married to the gym” and just HAD to Palace Chase like the other five SrA his age.

SrA William Pelkofer – Another Palace Chaser...

Inbound:

A1C Garrett Peirce – The Gese brothers started a trend in Fairchild. All siblings must be booms and go to the same base. So the Peirce brothers followed.

A1C Jacob Magda – Arriving from Altus

A1C Justin Cutright – Arriving from Altus

FAIRCHILD AFB, WA
93 AIR REFUELING SQUADRON

SUPERINTENDENT

SMSgt Christopher Rueckert christopher.rueckert@us.af.mil

Chris just departed on an all-expenses paid vacation to a warm and sunny location. About to find out just how busy we are out there. Have fun boss!

OPS SUPER

MSgt Lee Adkins lee.adkins@us.af.mil

Badass Outlaw is the first thing that comes to mind when I hear Lee's name. Ok, I'm writing this myself so I'm gonna say what I want. Hope everyone out there is doing great and I can't wait for the signal to come out and see how some of my students are doing in the real world. Cheers

SAFETY

SSgt Shon Shirley shon.shirley@us.af.mil

Shon will be making the move to safety to become the NCOIC as soon as he gets back from the desert. Another cross trainee that should be upgrading in the near future.

SrA Alexander Orr alexander.orr@us.af.mil

Alex gives the best briefs! We never get tired hearing about cellphone distracted driving, heat stroke, and numerous other safety related topics. Can't wait for this young man to head to Altus. Will be a great IB.

SrA Alexander Vaughn alexander.vaughn.1@us.af.mil

Is looking to Palace Chase or something as soon as he can. Why bro? This is the best job you will ever have!

SrA Kyle Cleis kyle.cleis@us.af.mil

Kyle just recently moved here from Mildenhall. I think he is still on GMT, because he can't make it to appointments on time. But seriously, he will be a BIG help in Safety.

AWARDS & DECS

SSgt McIntyre paul.mcintyre.2@us.af.mil

P-Mac is doing great things in his shop. Looking to upgrade soon, will be a great addition to our instructor force.

SrA Kathrine Dickey Kathrine.dickey@us.af.mil

Kat is one hell of an artist. She helped paint our patches, hallway, Xmas card, and tons of other stuff. Looking to give her a break so she can focus on flying and getting that illustrious upgrade. Does amazing things for the squadron and we are lucky to have her.

Number 23 is moving on up in the world. Getting 1206's together and decorations, who knew the AF would be so exciting!

TRAINING FLIGHT

TSgt Matthew Machala matthew.machala@us.af.mil

Matt Finally sewed on TSGT. Has been singlehandedly running training since I arrived last year. I think we have pretty much all of the AWACS stink off of him now, or is that just 55 yrs of funk from the boom pallet cushions???

SSgt Brian Huls brian.huls@us.af.mil

Brian just got back from deployment. Missed TSgt by 0.84 points, trying to see if he is missing anything. Luckily though there was a TSgt select in his house, his wife Denise made Tech. Congrats!

SrA Michael Dmytriw michael.dmytriw@us.af.mil

A1C Jordan Gese AKA "Goose" jordan.gese@us.af.mil

Goose.....What can we say about Goose? Nothing really, he doesn't give me much fodder. We need to work on this.

SrA Nicholas Barker nicholas.barker.3@us.af.mil

Finally got Nick back from his stint at CCX. Nick is looking to fly choppers in the civilian world and we do what we can so that he reaches this goal.

A1C Logan Lord (of the wings) logan.lord@us.af.mil

If he spent as much time studying his MQF as he does playing Clash of Clans, he would probably get a 90%.

READINESS

TSgt Evangeline Evanzia evangelinemarie.evanzia@us.af.mil

Old Red is crushing it down in Readiness. Doing great things in her shop and leading the team. The only thing I have to say is "No you can't deploy again!" Good problem to have.

Still angry.

SrA John Blackburn john.blackburn.5@us.af.mil

I'm going to go ahead and guess that he needs another haircut. Going out on a limb here. I will give him this though, if you find yourself in a firefight, have him next to you. Just gonna call him "Tex" from now on!

Haglund-make sure you remember to get you debit card from your GF so you can pay for gas and make it to work from Idaho. Bam

SCHEDULING

Filling in as Ops Super while Rueckert is deployed. Has a personal X-wind limit of 5 knots, a strong wind would definitely knock him over. Running half marathons like they're going out of style. Will be pinning on MSgt at the end of the month. Congrats!

SSgt Dave "mustache" Ballmer david.ballmer@us.af.mil

Dave is a worker. Was re-introduced to AFI 36-2903 as soon as he walked down the air stairs from deployment. It was a good looking stache man, even if it the outside portion was touching your chin! All kidding aside, Dave works his butt off and does the things necessary for the Sq to succeed. Keep it up man!

Sat is about to take a 5 week vacation from scheduling to attend ALS. Get them uniforms ready!

SrA Cameron Bilyeu cameron.bilyeu@us.af.mil

Finally got Cam back up and flying so we could send his butt to Altus for upgrade. Should be hitting the flight line soon. Don't suck.

SrA Nathanael Bussey nathanael.bussey@us.af.mil

Going through Pre-CFIC as we speak. Having a hard time briefing without telling jokes. I'm sure he will do great, as long as he gets a smoke break every now and then.

SrA Jesse Lee jesse.lee.8@us.af.mil

Learning the ways of the scheduling office. Hasn't managed to screw anything up....Has been a phenomenal addition to this shop and should be upgrading in the near future.

SrA Timothy Weber timothy.weber.5@us.af.mil

Our resident hipster and BTZ winner! Doing great things for the squadron and damn if that guy doesn't grow a great mustache.

SQ TACTICS

SrA Travis Peirce travis.peirce@us.af.mil

We have a boom in tactics??? Hangs out more in scheduling with Ballmer than anything else. Travis is highly valued IB and contributes immensely to the Sq.

A-FLIGHT

TSgt Christian Villanueva (NCOIC) christian.villanueva.1@us.af.mil

V-just made the move to A-flight a couple of weeks ago. Will definitely enjoy working with our brand new, fresh out of Altus Boom Operators. What could possibly go wrong???

SrA Nathan Barnes nathan.barnes.2@us.af.mil

Deployed with a March ARB crew and they had nothing but great things to say about this guy. Will be watching to see how far this boom goes.

A1C Dalton Bray dalton.bray@us.af.mil

Should be deploying soon, as soon as we find a non-first time AC. Dang deployment schedules!

A1C Ryan "No Car" Dillingham ryan.dillingham.1@us.af.mil

A1C Michael Stringfellow michael.stringfellow.1@us.af.mil

This guy is famous. Actually has a sushi roll named after him here in town. Not gonna lie, kind of badass!

A1C Scotti "No Soul" Smith scotti.smith@us.af.mil

Too new to have any dirt, but I got a feeling there's something out there!

A1C Stetson Vigil Stetson.vigil@us.af.mil

Finally enjoying his first deployment as I write this. Great attitude, hope he still has it after 120 degree temps!

STAN/EVAL

SSgt Derek Greene derek.greene.1@us.af.mil

Will be holding down the fort with Champagne leaving us. Couldn't ask for a better person to be in Stan/Eval. We are very lucky to have Derek and Mellon running the show.

SSgt Jonathan Mellon jonathan.mellon@us.af.mil

Change of plans. Will now be heading to Altus AFB instead of McConnell. Literally changed since my first version a couple of weeks ago. JM will do a fantastic job at the FTU and we will have a much stronger boom force because he is there. Best of luck man!

SSgt Michael Weidman michael.weidman.2@us.af.mil

Got Mike back from OST and is already killing it in Stan/Eval. Mike was the OG Amn OTY 2014! Altus will be getting one of our finest in the Fall and we expect to receive some great BO's that he helped train. Best of luck Mike!

MSgt Jonathan Gomez (OGV) jonathan.gomez.1@us.af.mil

JG running OGV like a big dog. Finally got the ability to update ePubs using Wifi, thanks to him and his office.

SrA Nicholas Roney(CCX) nicholas.roney@us.af.mil

Nick is doing mobility folder reviews like nobody's business. He just told me he hates everyone equally, that's commendable. We miss the guy in the squadron, but we know that he is doing a great job up at the OG.

SSgt Jacob Aufderheide (OSK) jacob.aufderheide@us.af.mil

Not sure what he does exactly, but he must be doing it well because they haven't shipped him back to us yet.

SrA Frank Pappalarado (OST) frank.pappalarado@us.af.mil

Leaving us next week to head to Kadeena. Enjoy it brother and thanks for everything you did while you were here at Fairchild.

SrA Anthonie Owens (OST) anthonie.owens@us.af.mil

Just got back from ALS where he absolutely killed it. Academic award and DG! Will be working in OST now enjoying flights with the FNGs.

TSgt Dustin Herridge (IG) dustin.herridge@us.af.mil

Herridge is working for the IG now and waiting to see the results of an OTS this fall. Fingers crossed brother! And thanks for still stocking the snack bar. Ha

SrA Michael McCloskey james.mccloskey.5@us.af.mil

Mike graduated from OTS and will be attending ENJPPT. BREAKAWAY BREAKAWAY BREAKAWAY

SrA Janet Yi

Janet moved on to the civilian world, we hope she is enjoying life on the outside. Thanks for your service.

MSgt Joe Koch joseph.koch@us.af.mil

Shipped him off to the 92nd ARS. Hated to see him go, but will do great things down the street.

TSgt Alan Champagne alan.champagne@us.af.mil

Sparkles pulled chocks and is a civilian now. We wish him nothing but the best and thank him for his service.

TSgt Ben Davis (509th) ben.davis@us.af.mil

Doing the Weapons School thing. Wish we still had him, but the 509th got a great BO!

WASHINGTON AIR NATIONAL GUARD

X Flight

CMSgt Monica “Chief” Gile (IB): (Traditional) – It’s been an interesting year for the Chief. It took all of a year to recover from the fractured tibia post marathon, then while deployed she broke a rib in the AOR weight lifting with the crew. Uncle Rico and the boom gang have talked her into a sprint tri in August so can’t wait to see what injury comes out of this! Interesting thing is that Uncle Ricco also recruited Panda and said it was “really no big deal” to swim 4 football fields in a remote northern lake knowing full well that Chief and Panda are terrible swimmers. Interesting.

SMSGT Walt “Night Train” Hinton (EB) A & B Flight Superintendent : (Technician)- Recently promoted in January, it has been a year of personal growth for Walt in trying to lead such an awesome group of Booms! The Math hurdle has been recently conquered, now it is on to that darn Speech class to finish his CCAF. Still pretty much runs Stan/Eval by himself....GTIMS is a great tool! The Night Train is starting to forget a lot of things, good thing he has the support of some ACE like Booms underneath him!

SMSgt Bob “Gibby/Bobby G” Gibson (IB) C & D Flight Superintendent: (Technician)- What a year for this guy. Not only did he try to burn himself to a crisp in a skid steer rollover accident that happened to dump him into a burning slash pile, but he defied all odds in avoiding a skin graft and surgical intervention. We were lovingly referring to him as “The Phoenix” but that quickly gave way to the “gloved one” when he came in with the one hand wrapped from fingertip to elbow. He managed to resurrect the old skid steer and is showing it who’s boss.

A Flight

MSgt Curt Smith (IB): A-Flight Lead Boom: (Technician)- A lot has changed with our incumbent “all that” boom. Curt is now a MSgt, a flight lead, and soon will be groomed for evaluator duties. WOW quite a year! While not doing masterful work in the scheduling shop, Curt has found a new money drain in a group owned Cessna 170; discovering all the secret landing strips around the Great North West!

TSgt Thomas “Chingis” Nance (EB): (Traditional)- Thomas has been keeping us all safe as our lead Alpha-Alert boom. When he’s not sitting hard alert or giving us our check rides, he stays busy at home chasing his 3 kiddos around. He logged another deployment this spring, and probably has some more ribbons to add to his blues. Still our resident artist, his caricatures can be found hanging up on the break-room fridge depicting various predicaments our members sometimes find themselves in...at least in his drawings he makes us look good.

SSgt Chris “Connie” Langus (MB): (Traditional)- Connie is still living the dream as an Alert-Boom/guard bum, living at the lake, and boating every day. If anyone saw a guy doing lap after lap in the pool, followed by laps around the ‘Died on a bike...that was Connie. He used our “spring break” deployment to train for an IronMan. While record high temps took almost 40% of the entrants out, he put his head down, went to his happy place and is now a full IronMan finisher! A true rock star if we ever saw one!

SSgt Louis “Fabulous New Guy” Winters (UB): (Traditional)- Louis is our newest hire, and just returned from Altus. Apparently he got tired of launching us out and then fixing everything we broke during the flight, so he decided to hang up his crew chief boots and put on a flight suit. He’ll be a valuable guy, with tons of tanker knowledge and experience as a guardsman.

B Flight

MSGT Dave “Panda” McDowell (EB) B-Flight Lead Boom: (AGR)- It has been a crazy year for Dave, who recently married a lovely lady named Shasta. Dave has a new hobby...Running! Dave has already run a marathon, and one ½ marathon recently with his new bride. While juggling a multitude of additional duties, he will still shine as a participant in an upcoming exercise, as well as perform a vital role on the WIT Team. WOW, Dave how do you do it all!

SSgt Steven “Wayne” Kerr (MB): (Traditional)- Wayne is continues to be one of our main “bums” despite his recent adventure to become an electrician. Wayne spends his weekdays getting educated on all things involving wiring and electricity, defending the nation on the weekends, and swimming like a fish every other time of the day. Wayne has also been known to enjoy some family time at the lake on a sky ski.

SSgt Dave “Gwen” Stefaniak (MB): (Traditional)- Gwen has truly adapted to the guard bum lifestyle. When not deployed or on Alpha alert you can find Gwen doing some kind of extreme backpacking adventure. His idea of “fun” often includes hiking into some remote lake, even in the dead of winter. His most recent accomplishment was summitting Mount Rainer. Many more hills to climb and insane adventures to come for our dear sweet Gwen.

A1C Tim “Big” Diehl: (Traditional) A1C Tim “Big” Diehl: (Traditional)- The Big Diehl is coming to us from CE. Not much is known about him since he is currently at Lackland attending his first segment of boom school, and the fact that he has barely two years in the guard. It is not often that our unit has a boom operator with mosquito wings for rank, but I’m sure we will figure out how to grow him into a productive joyful aircrew member.

C-Flight

MSgt Shaun “Boop” Bopp (IB): C-Flight Lead Boom: (Traditional)– Shaun is a fully qualified bad guy for JPRA. He is married with three young kids. Together; they are remodeling their home, raising chickens, and maintaining a vegetable garden and fruit trees. The abundant fruits and vegetables have caused a serious problem with the local ground hog association and he battles the infestation of them on his property. Caddy Shack may have tips on eradication. Shaun finds time to relax by spending time overseas. Someday, he’ll spend more time relaxing than working – someday.

TSgt Kevin “Next Year” Grubb (MB): (Traditional)- Kevin is still hanging out with us. Even though half-blind and half-bald, the ears still ops check good, as Kevin is quick to answer the phone when Scheduling calls... maybe we'll get rid of him Next Year, or if he ever learns to say 'No.' Like everywhere else, it's been a busy year for the 116th and Kevin has done a great job for us. If not spontaneously filling holes in the schedule, he might be found managing the City's Wastewater Plant, upgrading a rental, or surreptitiously subsidizing college grads. Kevin...will you slow down next year? Ans: "Not until 4 of 4 kids are taxpayers!"

TSgt Jennifer “JV” Ventress (MB): (Traditional-) Jen continues to add chapters to her book; “Where in the World is JV?” with her extensive travels. Aside from her travels, she has been busy raising her son, flying, and finished up nursing school. With school complete, she found a permanent home as an RN at the only Level 2 Emergency Room in the region. Although finished with college, Jen is pursuing further educating herself by joining the commissioned ranks within the next year. She will be missed by the booms she leaves behind. Good luck and best wishes wherever that commission takes you JV.

D-Flight

MSgt Rob “Uncle Rico” Mitchell (IB) D Flight Lead Boom: (Technician)- Rob is an instructor boom operator and our current boom scheduler. He recently got back from nearly a month off after his 60 day deployment. During which time he drove his wife crazy growing a beard and talking about the old times when he was jock and 30lbs lighter. Way to keep it real Uncle Rico.

SSgt Nathen “That Said” Leitz (MB): (Technician)- Nate is our newest technician hire. He spends his days pumping out daily packages, updating old peoples iPads and doing the things that the rest of us don’t want to. If we can teach him about the grey in-between the black and white we might start letting him book hotels. In all seriousness Nate works really hard for the unit. Squirrel!!!!

SSgt Kelly “Kelly” Donahue (MB): (Bum)- Boredom drove Kelly to us after a multi-year vacation and we are glad to have her. It’s not every day you get an SSgt boom who remembers the Dash 3. Kelly isn’t afraid to deploy, participate in exercises or tell you when you are wrong. Every unit needs a crusty “old” boom operator.... Ours just happens to be 30 something.

SRA Spencer “SA” Anderson (MB): (Bum)- Spencer came to us this year from McConnell. In his very short time in our unit he has deployed and sat his fair share of alert... Remember when paydays were hard to come by for a bum? We do wonder about our SA though. In his first week here he asked his friends to help him move, his lead boom was a bit surprised when he pulled up to a three story apartment building. Guess what floor Spencer lived on???????

NGB Stat Tour

SMSgt Eric “Skog” Apelskog (IB): (Stat Tour)- Skog’s been working hard in Safety for NGB and the tour comes to an end in July 2016. Skog is officially a grandpa now to a beautiful baby girl and will be coming back to the area to do all the stuff that grandpa’s do. Does it get any better than that?

Retired in 2014

SSgt Clint “The 40 Year Old Airman” Schumacher (MB): (Traditional)- Clint has figured out the key to a full medical retirement for us. All you have to do is separate your right shoulder, dork up your back, separate your left shoulder and to top it all off shoot an arrow through your hand; all in a three year period. Clint has moved on to focus on his real state career. We will miss his willingness to say yes to whatever we asked of him, his dry sense of humor and the mentorship provided by a card holding AARP member. Good luck Clint MSgt Steve “Wad” Waddell (IB): (Technician)- Wad left us last year and is now living and working for Burlington Northern Santa Fe in San Antonio doing a job very similar to air traffic control but for trains. His family has moved down with him and his daughter just recently graduated from high school, so he and Lori have officially left behind the high school years. Wad will be very missed as he was an incredible asset to the unit. If you are ever in San Antonio drop him a line... we are sure he would love to see you!

FAIRCHILD AFB, WA

509 WPS

Superintendent

MSgt Mike “OC” O’Connor michael.oconnor.8@us.af.mil

If you need him for some much needed chief boom mentorship, don’t look in his office. Check any home improvement or electrical supply store within a 100 mile radius. He’s usually there from 1030-1400, Mon-Fri. Why you ask? He recently sold his beloved tricked out Tundra and is using all the profits to electrify his man shop. If you want to see his involuntary OCD triggered eye twitches, just sprinkle some dirt on any of his cars. Or just say something about all the new gray hair he’s getting trying to keep his “dream” team of booms in line.

Training NCOIC

TSgt Will “Dirty” Perdew william.perdew@us.af.mil

It’s sad to announce an end of an era of filth, inappropriate jokes, second hand smoke, and “flawless” training records. Dirty will be retiring at the end of the year and will be dearly missed. He is currently working on his financial plan to help pay for his house and the mortgage on his Ford Raptor post-retirement. First plan of action...stop burning 5 gallons of gas per day smoking cigarettes in his truck. He plans on doing the same thing after retirement as he did on active duty...as little as possible.

Stan/Eval NCOIC

TSgt Greg “Crease” Sanders gerald.sander@us.af.mil

Crease is a doing a bang up job with his additional duty of NCOIC of STAN/EVAL. His primary duties include weekly meal plans packed with the most protein possible, intense chest and leg workouts, and posting on ski boat/body building forums. Be aware of his many pet peeves which include asking him to accomplish any task, show up for work, or treat any maintainer with respect. If Crease happens to do a no-notice pubs check on your checklist, make sure you have the most recent Navigator change so it matches his. Consider yourself warned.

Tactics & SOAR NCOIC

Dover is our newest arrival to the 509th. This guy makes everyone look bad, even the commander. When he’s not pulling old ladies out of burning cars, or running the 5/6 club, he can be found doing all the additional duties in the squadron. He has yet to say no so we just keep piling it on. Unfortunately Dover wrecked his pristine 1986 K5 Blazer last year but thank god he had full coverage insurance on it. Not sure why but he did. Amongst the many talents Ben holds, he is also an expert in finding non-existent “free parking” on Waikiki beach. Ask him how.

Scheduling NCOIC

Beavis is now “running” the scheduling shop after TSgt Converse PCS’d to Altus...God help us all. In typical Cleigh fashion, he continues to break every nice thing in the squadron including himself. Beavis was so desperate for a free helicopter ride; he decided to wrap his leg around a pine tree up on Silver Mountain. Well it was free for him, $30,000 to all you hardworking tax payers. It’s a tough way to find out that snowboarding isn’t your “thing.” Beavis has also become a great tour guide on our frequent visits to Las Vegas. All tours include a $35 rancid orange slushy on Fremont Street served in an embarrassing 4 foot DATA MASKED drink glass. Don’t forget to tip!

Course Manager

Z has been in the squadron so long we ran out of old jokes. We asked him to google us some, but he didn’t know what that meant. Then we asked him if he wanted to go with us to the new Jurassic World movie, but collapsed in fear due to flashbacks of his childhood camping trips. If his pants are any indication, there’s a biblical flood coming soon. This man doesn’t have time for fun; he always has REAL work to do. Between doing Beavis’s scheduling job for him, writing all the courseware for the Officers, and doing everyone’s DTS orders, he is definitely the crazy glue holding the squadron together. If you didn’t notice, he’ll be sure to tell you.

Previous Scheduling NCOIC (PCS to Altus)

TSgt Samantha “Shank” Converse samantha.converse@us.af.mil

Sam has moved on to the browner pastures of Altus. We know she will do a great job at the school house. A lot of life changes for Sam this year, like having a baby, pinning on TSgt, flying once, and out-processing for six months. Now that she isn’t here to run the scheduling shop, or coordinate Advanced Integration, Beavis finally has something to do. Too bad he cries about it the whole time...Come back Sam.

KC-135 ATS BOOM INSTRUCTORS

Greetings from the Fairchild KC-135 ATS Boom Shop.

Training here at the Fairchild BOWST is still going along smoothly. We are getting back a lot of positive feedback and the booms using it are getting a lot of "hands on" experience with multiple and unique malfunctions! We've been pretty busy with other units coming in other than Fairchild and hope to get more in the future.

JACOBS

The resting place for retired SMSgt's that want to work from home and fly. No other admin BS. In a complicated arrangement these two former Edwards testers work for Jacobs US, who loan them to Jacobs Australia who then have a contract with the RAAF. Complicated but works. Fantastic company.

Mark O'Connor - hit the ground running 4 days after retiring in Nov 2013 and can't believe where the last two years went. Since then he has helped the RAAF get the KC-30 out of Spain, completed the initial cadre training in Australia, and finally Wedgetail and F-35 receiver clearance programs. Life is good and the frequent flier miles better!

Michael Kibler - went from sitting in meetings for two years to completing the Wedgetail and F-35 clearances in his first 6 months at Jacobs. He was a little sad seeing his former mates flying around at Edwards in the KC46 but he still managed to make F35 contacts at the edge of every envelope. Enjoying retirement, finally.

Brew City Tankers

We made it through our NORI so our Commanders could all feel good about themselves and get promoted. Now it's time for us to enjoy the Wisconsin summer and look forward to our upcoming bucket to.....
The Deid!

We also say goodbye to CMSgt Marlin Mosley who departs us after 30 years of total service, 18 as a Boom Operator. He leaves us for greener pastures in the south and we all know that whatever he endeavors, if he applies the same dedication and passion in them he will be successful wherever he lands.

NKAWTG!

Fulltime

SMSgt (CMSGT Select) Donald Strickland- Program Manager –. Selected as the new Chief Boom and still never been to the Died. Congrats! Now we have to be nice to you.

SMSgt Patrick-“FruitSnack” Sosinski-STAN/EVAL NCOIC – Got that Stan/Eval NCOIC “disease”!

MSgt Peter Gauerke- Training- Has an approved leave request for 31 days. BEST EVER! at figuring out how to not be here.

MSgt Anthony Walter-Wing Plans- Probably going to be in the vault FOREVER!

TSgt Bryan Storbeck- Scheduling NCOIC –Still waiting for the KC-46 program to kick off, or an AGR spot here. Whichever comes first!

TSgt Lynda Matthews- Scheduling/MPC – Has to be getting sick of Guam at this point.

TSgt Brad Love – Current Ops – New IB, had a slightly better time than Troy at Altus, but not by much.

Traditional

Senior TSGT of the AF-Mark Lipinski-Scam Artist – Non-flying billet in Springfield. Still figuring out ways to acquire things.

MSgt William Mattert-State Investigator – Sooner or later he'll be assigned a case involving Mark.

MSgt Amanda Look- Senior Guardbum Extraordinaire – Taking any tour/trip she can get to fill up her time and pocketbook.

MSgt T-Roy Johnson - Corrections Officer – Newest IB. Ask him how it went!!!! Back to beating prisoners.

TSgt Mat Gryzb-Fireman – DNIF, but it doesn't matter he is never here anyway. Though maybe as much as Gauerke.

TSgt Ryan Peters-Engineer –Personal retraction rate issues have baby #3 on the way! So thrilled about it! ☺

TSgt Jordan Jungwirth-State Trooper – Not a guard bum, but being on the bottom of the trip list has its perks!! TRIPS!!!!

TSgt Karley Holtz-Guard Bum – Expecting baby #2 any day now. Pregnancy brain in full force! Flightsuit at capacity!

SSgt Natalie Belongie- Guard bum Extraordinaire – Takes even more trips than Amanda. A-level at getting paydays/orders/trips.

SRA William Pelkofer – Since we got rid of Kueffler to the pilot side we had room for another Palace Chase.

SRA Elvis Alvarado- Guardsman – 6 month tour as the Squadron XO proving once again Booms are better than pilots.

SRA Carla Prospero Guardsman – Just finishing up her MCT in time for the Died. SUCKER!

Incoming

Planning on selecting 3 newbies for the Squadron by the time you are reading this.

Defectors

Maj. Paul Matthews –Still doing an excellent job taking care of his fellow Booms. With American Airlines but gaming the system like a pro.

Lt. Nik Ilich –Currently at UPT, fighting off all the uglies.

Lt. Andrew Kueffler - Guardsmen – Newly commissioned, complete with IFS. Still a long road till we can get him back to the Deid.

TSgt Benjamin Casper- Airfield Manager – He won't lie, he'd still rather be a boom but the AGR spot is serving him well. Just procreated again!

TSgt Christopher Winchell- Air Traffic Controller-Volk Field CRTC, like Ben still would rather be a Boom.

Stowed and Latched

The list here can get pretty long and I'm sure I've missed a few so I apologize in advance. A few of these last names may look familiar, gotta love legacies.

“Fighting Red Tags”

Another year has come and gone comprised of AEF rotations to the sand which reminds all of us of last year, the year before that, and the year before that.

CMSgt Jeff “Heffe” Maier (ART/Evaluator)- Chief seems a lot more solemn since the XM radio went away but at least he still has his other favorite pastime of telling people “what valued employees they are”.

SMSgt Jim “Booger” Maxwell (TR)-Jim has been flying around the country for his corporate deal. He continues to give great life advice to other booms

SMSgt Drennen Gaffney (TR/Instructor/Flight Commander)- Drennen is getting ready to go to the desert and has been busy adjusting his boonie hat to get the perfect look. Hasn’t had any additions to his family this year but there is still the post deployment down time headed his way.

SMSgt Jerry “Shoe” Schumacher (ART/Evaluator)-Next time this year, Shoe will be in the retired section of the signal. Shoe has been on the road more than normal enjoying his last year with us.

MSgt Tim “Monkey/C5A” Stibbe (ART/Senior Evaluator)- Stib continues to be the nicest guy in the shop but when it comes time to yell DOWN PRESSURE or ANTENNA he is the man for the job.

MSgt Doug “Mud Vein” Preece (ART)- Doug knocked out his Master’s Degree and has taken to the scheduling shop like a duck to water.

MSgt Debbie “Yoko” Wood (ART/Instructor)- Debbie continues to be busy as the UDM because the next deployment is never more than 68 days away. Although extremely busy, Debbie still had time to go to a Remember Cecil the Lion Ceremony.

MSgt Chris “Nick” Nack (ART/Instructor)-Chris has another baby on the way and gave up the trougher lifestyle to switch over to the ways of the ART.

MSgt Josh “Radio” Welch (ART/Instructor)-Josh continues to be a morale boost to whatever shop he walks by with his one liners and impressions. Josh added a baby girl to his family and is rumored to try to catch up with Gaffney.

MSgt Nick (Shandy Man) Obusek (TR)-Nick has taken over from Chris Nack as the lead trouper and nothing makes him happier than to find Holmes doing nothing and subsequently finding him something better to do.

TSgt Caleb “Roadhouse” Daulton (TR)- After years on the road wearing out suitcase wheels over tarmac, Caleb moved to Florida to pursue a civilian career and saltwater fishing or maybe it was to saltwater fish and pursue a civilian career.

TSgt Vicki “Icky” Maxwell (TR)- Vicki continues to keep us all safe by upholding Indiana State laws and making the boom shop a more friendly place whenever she is around

TSgt Rob “POSH” Haswell (TR)-Rob continues to show his loyalty to his old AFSC and we all expect him to show up on Friday with an OSS morale shirt on.

TSgt Josh “Lamont” Sanford (TR)- The AMC Eagle has landed and has been replaced by a sweet Cadillac. When Josh isn’t deployed or cruising the world on his Active Duty tour, he is busy dodging responsibility about what happened to Chief’s $125 Family Sep Allowance.

SSgt Scott “Scott Floyd, Boom Operator” Floyd (TR)- Floyd returned from his first deployment with the Airman’s Manual memorized in its entirety and 39 sorties unlike some other guys who got 40 on the same deployment.

SSgt Corey Beck (TR)- Corey has been working for Chrysler and makes occasional guest appearances on a KC-135 although he is on the chopping block to go to the desert.

New Booms:

SRA Zach Holmes- Holmes used to be Army and doesn’t understand that we don’t call Jodys and march to chow. Zach also came to the boom shop from the gym and is constantly wondering where the basketball rack and folded white towels are at on the tanker.

CHIEF ENLISTED MANAGER:

CMSgt Wolfe – Chief came to us from the KC-135 via Kadena, Japan. He is still trying to figure out how an airplane runs on 3 engines and has air conditioning!

CMSgt Redden – We lost him to the Ops Group, and now he's off to play Command Chief in Germany.

CHIEF BOOM:

SMSgt Ottenwess - Otto has been here since Aug and is already planned to move to the CRW. He still plays hockey, but now it is with the old timers and a bad back.

OPS SUPERINTENDENT:

MSgt Hampton – Now working in Wing XP after completing an award winning deployed Chief Boom gig. Decided he liked camping and bought an RV.

MSgt Alfonso Duenez – Inbound from the Travis AFB CRW. We can't wait to show him how the East Coast rolls. Now he can learn the right way to fly the KC-10.

OPERATIONS FLIGHT:

Chief Scheduler - TSgt Mitchell – Our newest scheduler with two first names. Marcus's main goal now is to fix scheduling and find a staff job.

SSgt Murray – Recently assigned as a scheduler and already is tired of the excuses. One day he is going to tell us how he really feels.

SrA Bean – Our resident “Special Forces” boom has goals of becoming a secret agent man. All the KC-10 deployments and TDYs keep him busy enough. Sorry ladies but Kyle is getting married.

SrA Doane – Brian is about to finish IB upgrade. He will still be a scheduler, but the kind that takes all the good deals.

SrA Scott – A-Aron went to the desert and returned half the man he used to be. Can be seen whizzing by cars on his super cool 10-speed.

SrA Foote – We don't see much of Mr. Turner since he's been hiding out in Mobility, deployed, or on leave. Now that ALS is complete, we might actually find a flight that can squeeze into his busy schedule.

Flight Supervisor - SSgt Mould – Brian, “the bearded one”, is our additional duty guru, but has no clue about “Spell check”. He Likse to sned emails that no-noe can raed ro udnersatnd.

SSgt Drummer – Recently departed for bigger and better in the New Mexico civilian student role

SrA Gribauskas – “Shrek” is constantly hacking the mission. Still has too much useless knowledge, but some of it is airplane related. Recently seen advertising his Drogue skills on YouTube.

SrA Pearson – Winning BTZ was so great that he tried to become a Flight Attendant. Luckily for him that didn't work out. Now it's off the the AOR again and again and again.

A1C Jakab - Danny lifts things up and puts them down. He is the office Muscle man, but needs to stop skipping leg day. Don't Hate! He loves the KC-10 cause he want to be TDY for the Per Diem.

A1C Bush – Thanks to the lovely AF medical folks, Darren will now be a great personnelist here at JB MDL.

A1C Stickney – One of our newest baby booms straight from England, but he has a strange Aussie accent that no one can figure out. Still waiting for cargo missions to get qualified.

A1C Minto – Brandon thinks he is a ladies man. He better be careful or we will make a call to his mommy. His mom was a former chief boom of the Duce.

A1C Lamarca – Frank still spends weekends with mom since she is only 20 minutes up the road. We will get him trained as an MB whenever we get some cargo trips.

A1C Wood- Darren has now surpassed the others as the oldest A1C in the Air Force. Loved the Dorm life so much he got married just to get out of there. Still trying to get mission ready, but always seems to have something else more important.

TRAINING FLIGHT:

Flight Chief - TSgt Chenosky – If Cheno was any more laid back he would be sleeping. Still learning how to use the iPad, and telling off color jokes that nobody understands.

SSgt King – Melissa is our training flight expert. Without her, Benson would never leave the office. She may need the nickname of “Momma” since she had to take care of all the sick and broken booms on the road.

SSgt Benson – Jeff “Bennings” Benson has actually taken to his nickname. He is still the work horse of the UTM and Training shops. Now that his wife lives with him, he has even more reason to go shoot at things.

SrA Rogers – Sam is our fitness expert and is never wrong. Just ask her. She recently graduated from ALS with a bad knee, so... thanks AF PME.

SrA Robinson – “Ruffio” is an IB who tries to avoid instructing anyone. Must still be stuck in Never Never Land. He is still finding his way in Training flight and recently graduated from ALS.

Tactics - SSgt Reynolds – Patrick silently runs the Tactics shop for our booms. Our most reliable IB when we can get more than two words out of him. He is hoping to go down to the COE in the future.

SrA Edmonson – Recently selected for upgrade and still trying to read the Dash-1. We may have to add some more pictures for him to figure it all out.

READINESS FLIGHT:

Flight Chief - TSgt Thomas – Mike is still keeping these Amn in check. When they step out of line Mike is always the first to know. But he is a softy on the inside.

NCOIC - SSgt Marquez – If Mike is not deployed, he is TDY somewhere. When he is home it is to finally complete a DTS voucher that Ms. Liz has been hounding him about for months.

SrA Ploof – Tyler recently graduated from ALS! He figured out how to get the AF to let him have a beard. Thanks SSgt Mould for showing him the way.

SrA Martonik – Kurt aka “Smiles” is working on his deer hunting skills from a video game in the desert. When not on leave, he is begging the scheduler for a good trip.

SrA Johnson – We ask Uriah questions just to watch him dance. This kid can’t sit still. He is a workhorse on the jet and needs two flight suits for every flight.

COMMANDERS SUPPORT FLIGHT:

Flight Chief - TSgt Mailander – Luke came in like a hurricane. He has all airmen running in fear, so we put him in charge of PT. We just sent him to initial qual to knock off that 4th engine.

NCOIC - SSgt Upegui – Juan loves everything about this job. His favorite activities are CBTs, DTS, Power Point presentations, and writing bullets for award packages.

SrA Ayala – Recently assigned to the Awards and Decs office. Marco has been successfully avoiding the office while going on every flight and mission possible.

SrA Brundige – Still having dreams of the Vegas scene. This may actually happen someday soon.

SrA Hogan – Sterling has been working with OGV. The daunting task of updating all of our IPads is getting in the way of his other appointments.

SrA Dahl – Some poor girl decided to actually marry this kid. She may let him out of the house long enough to go TDY, if he asks nicely. Dylan likes to talk about hockey, but has no skills on the ice.

SrA Hodge – Cross training to Personnelist. We are wishing her the best of luck with the 1500 daily “training” at MPF.

STAN/EVAL:

MSgt Rickenbach – Our newest evaluator and Chief procrastinator. Scanning the internet for new “girlfriends” is the latest hobby. He is on his way to Dhafra for a Chief Boom gig.

SSgt Chrisman – If he knows one thing about the airplane he knows it all, except that he doesn’t. Our newest addition to stan/eval.....look out world, Nuggets for everyone.

SSgt Giles – The Stan/Eval continuity. He is consistently handing out Q-1’s like candy. It is hard to see the negative trends when his eyes closed.

SrA Sweaney – Our Shiny penny and resident SELE. Ian keeps Stan/Eval running while the evaluators are out goofing off. If the MBOA needs help, he is the first to show up.

“BLUE EAGLES”

Greetings from the Blue Eagle's nest! We've had another great year and welcomed more incredible booms, but unfortunately had to say good bye to a few of our folks! While the machine never stops, we also never stop seeing smiles when it comes time for a little A/R or a fun cargo run. If you're ever in town, stop on by to say hi, and we'll trade a few stories...

SMSgt Jeremiah Love IB – Jeremiah “Doc” Love is the booms’ fearless leader. When not trying to manage our deployment schedule, he tries to fly with our young booms to impart his many, many, many years of experience and wisdom.

WOFF (aka Chief) Damien Brown – Damien is our Australian exchange boom operator. He’s currently upgrading to be an instructor and has been a huge help in our training office...he keeps us out of trouble. He always takes time to explain the Down Under way of doing things.

(S)MSgt Shawn Lightner UB (IB) – Shawn was our Assistant Chief Boom and is heading to OST to run our cargo training. He’s also our resident fantasy football expert who’s a loud and proud Cowboys fan. We don’t know why, so we try not to judge him.

MSgt Justin Pascoe EB – “The Sledge Hammer” Pascoe runs our Stan/Eval shop. He likes to use his previous Current Ops experience to work back door deals to get our training and check ride needs. When he’s not doing that, he likes to chat about racing his M3 or taking his new boat out.

TSgt Tim Land UB (IB) – Tim is another one of our instructors and is doing his best in managing our aging facility (which was opened just before he came here in '98, does that mean he’s aging too?). If he’s not flying on our jets, he’s usually jumping out of a perfectly good airplane (still trying to figure out how he does that being DNIF or is that why he’s DNIF?).

TSgt Steve Porter IB – If Steve had his way, he would PCS to our deployed location. It seems like he’s always deployed or trying to burn off his use or lose leave. Is he even still in our squadron?

TSgt Javier Mendoza EB – “The Hammer” is one of our resident evaluators. If he’s not on the jet judging someone, he’s at the gym or jumping out of an airplane with Tim.

TSgt Keith Machon UB(IB) – He just arrived to us after a 3 year gig teaching BBOC. He’s happy to be out of the classroom and flying again. Not even 3 weeks in and he’s already telling us the great stories of base housing.

TSgt Ken Pryor UB (IB)– Ken is assigned to our Wing Tactics office. If not in the office or DNIF, he likes to get out and fly as much as possible. Might not be with us much longer, he’s been approved to move to the officer-medical corps.

(T)Sgt Jeremy Becnel IB - Jeremy recently returned to us from a sweet TACC gig. He’s recently been requalified and is another road warrior. When not flying, he likes to listen in on ATC radio calls in the office or talk about his collector Mustang. Everyone just loves that.

SSgt Adam Sochia IB - Adam is one of our training flight workhorses who gets used and abused on the regular. When not teaching the youngins, he’s in search of greener grasses.

SSgt Phil Gordon IB – He just got certified as our newest instructor and was also rewarded with a prompt round-trip ticket to our desert oasis. Can’t forget to mention that he knocked ALS out of the park, he was a DG and received the Academic Award.

SSgt Alex Meeds MB – SSgt Meeds is the best resource for professional development; he teaches us what not to do. When not projecting his voice throughout the hallways, he’s running our scheduling office and acting as our resident AFI lawyer.

SSgt John Darby MB – Another boom who ran away from the “Duecers” to become a “Blue Eagle”. When not flying, he’s making sure everyone is legal to drive on the flight line. He’s slowly becoming a jack of all trades in the unit. Where should we put him next?

SSgt Jason Mellein MB – Jason is our go-to EPR proofreader. When he gets out of the office, he loves haggling prices on the road and checking his stocks. He’s also a Patriots fan...nobody is perfect.

SSgt Andy Keiser MB – SSgt Keiser left the world of the C-5 crew chief to become a boom operator. When not scheduling, he’s a great babysitter. He’s one of our hard chargers & we’ve been fairly successful recognizing him...something along the lines of being AMC’s nominee for the Red Erwin Award. No big deal, right?! Glad to have him!

SSgt Alex Pugh UB (IB) - SSgt Pugh runs our boom training office and has his hands full with many, many students. When not dealing with that, he tries to get involved in every office and learn what he can about everyone. He’s also usually good for a joke or two when he’s not silently judging everyone. (he wrote that line himself...there’s your warning)

SrA Patrick Donavon UB – Unfortunately, Patrick is moving out of the boom career field. He tried very hard to remain a boom and we definitely wanted to keep him. The good news is that he’ll still be around the area, just moving down the street to bigger and better things at MPF. His hard work will definitely be missed!

SrA Chris Witherspoon MB – When not deployed, Chris is always game for a good argument concerning the future of the Air Force. He’s wise beyond his years.

SrA Anthony Velasquez MB – AJ is currently coming off of a DNIF and is anxious to get through requalification training. He likes to tell jokes that he found on the internet and swears that they’re his own. We’re on to him.

SrA Brian Register IB – Brain is one of our go to instructors. He’s currently in ALS where he’s learning what we are doing ~~wrong~~ need to be doing better. We look forward to the “re-blued” version of Reggie to come back. Great boom & great IB.

SrA Bryce Smith IB – Bryce is one of our newest instructors. His reward for successfully completing upgrade training was a prompt round-trip ticket to our desert home. Some say that Jimmy Neutron was modelled after him.

SrA Derek Fredrick MB – SrA Fredrick is a great boom operator who is holding down the scheduling fort while his counterparts are deployed or living life on the road. He only requires minimal micro managing as he likes to schedule one boom for two flights a day.

SrA Josh Houston MB – Josh is one of our most seasoned MB's. He has the ability to sniff out those great coronets that nobody else can find.

SrA Jeremy Sears MB – Our squadron's political correspondent. When not informing us about national controversy, he's a road warrior. When he goes to Alaska, he's always good to bring back a case of the local brew.

SrA Josh Krueger MB – Josh got married this past year (the whole squadron attended his "reception"...we mean the squadron holiday party). Prior to that, he was our ladies' man. He is another one of our constant deployers. When you see him, be sure to ask about his texting and travels getting to Diego...that's all we have to say about that.

SrA Hannah Byers MB – Another seasoned MB who tries her hardest to burn off leave if not volunteering for a deployment. Recently purchased a nice fish tank, but can't seem to keep certain critters alive and now she wants a cat. Oh boy! She's looking forward to one day upgrading to IB.

SrA Andrea Ruan MB – Andrea was with us for about two years before she decided to move on to the bigger and better life of a reservist. Heading north to NYC for school and Mass for the career; we'll miss her hard work and wish her well.

SrA Jeremiah Sims MB – He gave up the dismal life of a 2d ARS "Duecer" to come across the street to be a "Blue Eagle". We like to try to get him to raise his voice and bust out of his shell...we still haven't been successful.

SrA Shay Draft MB – Shay is one of our newer MB's and works in our scheduling office. She never forgets anyone's birthday and makes sure the entire squadron knows about someone's day.

SrA Challis Johnson MB – Challis is another workhorse MB. If she's not on the road or deployed, she's in the squadron helping out wherever she can. We moved her over to awards and decs to utilize those skills she's been learning.

SrA Miguel Lanusa MB – A seasoned MB who loves the road life. He's a hard worker that also likes to lose shoes, glasses, ID card, etc while on the road.

SrA Elliot Hartle UB - Unfortunately, Elliot is due to separate soon. He's also our resident financial expert who is always being bothered for advice. He'll definitely be missed, but we don't think he'll miss tracking down computers and working tech refreshes...

SrA Dan King MB – A seasoned MB who likes to get a little too intimate with receiver aircraft. He just transitioned to the greener grasses of the Travis reserves; he's also going through the police academy. Watch your speed when driving in California!

A1C Jeremy Maradik UB – Our most recent arrival from BBOC. Came to us speed of heat without a stop for SERE and went right into -10 training. Discovered he and the Chief Boom graduated from the same small town high school; we're certain we'll hear plenty of stories about Florida panhandle life...again!

A1C Dante Taylor MB – Dante is getting his feet wet as a fairly new MB. He likes to pick the instructors' brain and stay as involved as he can. We haven't seen much of him lately, maybe he can be found in that oasis we keep going to?

A1C Cody Bizily MB – Cody has been qualified for about a year now and we don't see much of him as he is racking up those combat hours.

A1C James Balser UB – He gave up a golf gig, among other opportunities, to come be a Boom Operator. He just started base honor guard and is always anxious to fly.

A1C Amy James MB – A1C James is one of our new boom operators and by far the best artist and sculptor we have. Her brother was a KC-10 Boom at Travis so we have high expectations of her. Her hobbies include painting, drawing, sculpting, and spider taming.

A1C Tiffany Irby FB - She is currently in cargo training and can't wait to become fully qualified. When not studying or in training, she's our go-to for volunteer opportunities. She's always walking around the halls with a huge smile!

A1C Aaron Sanford FB – A1C Sanford is another boom who is cargo training. Quite guy overall, but works hard. Missed 2 show times while on the road with the chief boom and didn't stop hearing about it for weeks.

A1C Austin Denotter – FB He is currently AR qualified and yet another one of the many in cargo training. He's always joining the base intramural sports teams and likes to brag about his softball pitching arm. How are you doing today Denotter?

A1C Aaron Smith - FB - One of our newest booms in cargo training. He's always looking for training opportunities and is very anxious to be fully qualified. Kind of quiet and smiles a lot.

A1C Andrew Utterback – FB When not involved in cargo training, A1C Utterback is training to be a PTL. He's yet another boom who's very anxious to be qualified.

Amn Raiah Green FB – She is working our mobility shop and does what she can to get people out the door.

“Freedom’s Spirit”

SMSgt Joe “Let’s get a beer” Jones, EB (Chief Boom) – As Chief boom Joe has implemented some pretty good policies. One being we can’t leave the flight leader meetings until the beer fridge is empty, and two being the baby booms should keep the beer fridge stocked at all times.

SMSgt Aaron “Stew” Hendrick, EB (Asst Chief Boom) – Aaron managed to escape the depths of OSS to become the new Assistant Chief Boom. After his first UTA he was found rocking back and forth in his old office. Welcome back Aaron! Good Luck!

MSgt Dan Timko, EB (Stan Eval ART) – When Dan actually shows up he can be found working on his timecard in the depths of Stan/Eval. Spends most time at home with his kids (cats): Fluffy, Mittens, Little Man, Collar Kitty Handsome Pants, Fluffy Jr, Kitty Purry, Senor Meow, Kitler, Harry Pawter, and George R. Meowtin.

MSgt Garrett “Mini Ice” Rayno, EB (Scheduler ART) – Garrett has almost survived 2 years as the scheduler...which has brought him firmly into the 21st century with email and text messaging on his phone. If he’s not at the scheduler’s desk or vacationing in Maine he can be found in the Deputy Ops Group Commanders office discussing his latest home improvement project.

TSgt Shane “I used to be an FTU instructor” Lester, EB (Training ART) – Still around after his first year of being an ART and being upgraded to EB. We think the discovery of the app “Tinder” and his sudden surge in TDY’s has something to do with it though.

A – FLIGHT

MSgt Dean “One more beer” Reck, EB (Flight Leader) - Dean has an impressive record going, he has signed into 12 consecutive UTA’s from an alternate location even when there isn’t training going on. The scheduler has his social committed to memory for this reason.

MSgt Markos “The Greek” Moriatakis, IB (Asst Flt Ldr) - Whatever you do, if Markos asks if you want to see a picture of his new grill, JUST SAY NO. Markos is one of our newest IB’s and since then has racked up an impressive 235 hours non-current!

TSgt Vince Samuel, MB - Going for the USAF record of most consecutive times on the End of Half Letter. Vince keeps the IB’s employed and well paid. We would have better luck getting him current on a KC-46 than a KC-10 at this rate.

SSgt Chris Foley, IB - Chris said if he had a soul he would sell it to join the reserves. Luckily as a ginger he can steal other people’s souls and sell those, so here he is! He thought it was a trap when we told him he could say “no” if he couldn’t fly a mission. Seems to be adjusting nicely to reserve life.

SSgt Mary Pillion, MB - Mary just recently graduated from college! Although she has been in school for the better part of a decade she is not a doctor. She also sold her Jeep for a Subaru, which came with a rainbow bumper sticker and some dental dams in the glove compartment....hmmm...

B – FLIGHT

MSgt Vic Torres, MB (Flight Leader) - Vic shows up to fly whenever someone has brought in donuts, or is it donuts just happen to show up whenever he flies. Jurjo also shows up anytime Vic flies, not sure which one came first.

TSgt Phil Culotta, IB (Asst Flt Ldr) - Phil just graduated from the Police Academy and is currently looking for a job with a police department with uniforms small enough to fit him. In 87 years, booms will be calling him the “New Puch”, a cranky ex-cop who still can’t fly.

TSgt Kevin Howard “Be Thy Name”, MB - After almost 25 years in the Air Force and 50 years on this planet, Kevin is finally going to get a driver’s license. Allegedly. For now he has his learners permit, but his dad won’t let him drive with his friends for fear that he drives a car as good as he loads an airplane.

TSgt Jay Rosa, MB – Retired from the Pennsylvania State Police, to accept the position as the Squadron Security Manager, only to leave a month later to a better position in the Sheriff’s Department. Rumor has it that he is exploring the idea of another child but is waiting for the perfect time...we suspect that won’t be any time in this lifetime...

SrA Andy Saladin, MB - I see this name once a year, and it’s when I write the Boom Signal. I still have a note on my desk from last year that says “Find Saladin”. He’s most likely lost deep in Mt. Holly.

C – FLIGHT

SMSgt Kevin “The Talker” Locascio, IB (Flight Leader) - Kevin works at Pet Smart, or is it Pets Mart? Petco? I’m not sure, but if you see him around be sure to ask him. I’m sure he’ll be willing to talk to you about it...and talk, and talk, and talk....

TSgt Bill “Mayberry” Simurra, MB (Asst Flt Ldr) - Bill is getting married this September and couldn’t be more excited/looks like he’s being held hostage. He is still the most upbeat and excited person we’ve ever met. Almost Q3’d for high-fiving himself and yelling “Murica!” after every contact but the EB couldn’t stop laughing long enough to do it.

TSgt Todd “Farva” Dallman, MB - It appears Todd misses being a cop, and there is one space-a passenger out in the system that feels that as much as anyone. “Excuse me can I just...” “Ma’am, SIT DOWN, I WILL NOT ASK YOU AGAIN” “I just..” ‘Ma’am OBEY MY ORDERS AND SIT DOWN”. I guess she’s lucky he didn’t have his Taser on him, he would have made her ass sit down...

TSgt Juan “Carlos” Jurjo, MB - Or is it Carlos “Juan” Jurjo, I’m not sure, never trust a man with two Spanish first names either way. Jurjo can be found jumping on whatever trip/flight Torres is on. Those two are impossible to separate. We’re going to call them the new Joe and Dean.

SrA Mike Coll, MB –Mike was selected as a candidate for fire fighter school, in Philadelphia. He spends his spare time at convenience stores searching for discounts on cigarettes and Red Bull.

SSgt Alvaro “The Whisperer” Fable, MB - Fable is the quietest and most polite corrections officer we’ve ever met. It is amazing he can tell anything to prisoners without them having to ask what several times. I haven’t heard anything he’s said since he got here, I just politely smile and nod.

SSgt Brian “The Photographer” Kelly, MB - Brian claims to be a big sports fan and a fantasy football guru, but last year’s dismal performance makes us think otherwise. Brian has had a picture in the local base magazine since the day he arrived at the squadron. He’s so skilled he can make contact while taking a picture worthy of the cover of TIME magazine.

D – FLIGHT

CMSgt Bob Culbertson, EB – Bob has become quite the family man. He is bucking the trend at Flight Safety by NOT buying a BMW and he has managed to avoid putting on the proverbial Flight Safety 50. While he would still like to win the World Series of Poker he has set his sights on the more reasonable goal of facilitating the creation of an Ops Group Super (CMSgt) position for us lowly reservists...GO CHIEF!!!

MSgt Chuck “The Ex Cop” Puchajian, MB - Puch will be retiring next year, marking the end of an amazing 239 year with the military. Chuck spends most of his time in the boom shop telling old war stories to the baby booms awaiting training. My favorite story is the one where he dangled the hose out of something called the “Question Mark”. Truly inspiring!

ATTACHED

SMSgt Jimmie Rush, EB (ART) - Jimmie can be found jumping onto every local and TDY with us and instructing/evaluating everyone and anyone regardless of what the orders say. “Hey did you know....”

SMSgt Kim Asewicz, EB (ART) - I’m starting to think Kim may be a sadist, because every time the aforementioned boom is flying she ends up jumping on to fly. Most day’s she can be found wheeling and dealing in current ops trying to work trips we requested so we can cancel them at the last second.

SMSgt Tige “Tiger” Platt, EB - Tiger recently got moved from Assistant Chief to a position downstairs in OSS. Ever since the move downstairs we actually see him more than before trying to avoid doing any work. Being that he’s a firefighter and works for flight safety he is a professional at avoiding doing any actual work. With Tiger’s streak of landing dream jobs, the next time you hear about him he will be CMSGT of the Air Force.

“WANNA BE’s”

SSgt Alissa Anderson, UB - One of our newest baby booms here in the 76th. Very excited to begin training, and was even more excited to finally get to wear a flight suit. This was evident when she tracked down and accosted the UPS driver that was going to deliver her name tags to the squadron. She couldn’t wait the additional 30 minutes it would have taken him to deliver the package to the squadron.

SSgt Chris Park, UB - Chris is another baby boom and is currently at FTU finding out just how reliable our fleet of KC-10’s are. He has completed 37 pre-flights so far and hopes to get his second receiver any day now.

SrA Parish Brown, UB - Parish is our third and final baby boom for now. Very eager and excited to start training. Actually he’s very eager and excited to do just about anything in the squadron. I’ve never seen anyone drive in on their own accord just to stock the snack bar and vacuum the boom shop. Something tells me he’s going to be my favorite duty boom .

FAREWELLS and ALUMNI

CMSgt (Ret) Ron Jackson ... working harder than ever before in Alabama

CMSgt (Ret) Greg Jones ... “undercover” somewhere in the heart of California

MSgt (Ret) Gary Kozusko ... Hunting on his vast land holdings in upstate New York

MSgt (Ret) Martin Vinson ... Lost somewhere in Philadelphia

MSgt (Ret) Steven Weigert ... Last seen at the classic car show in Macungie, PA

SrA David Sebra - Dave has decided to go back to watching music videos with his friend Butthead on the couch and getting into hilarious situations. Situations that seem to work themselves out in half hour segments every week at 7pm on MTV.

“TIGERS”

Chief Boom Brian “Killer” Kilpatrick – Hurt his shoulder (Heyyyy.... Jose hurt HIS shoulder too.....) by throwing Dave out of his office every morning, most likely! So he’s been DNIF for a while. Itching to get back in the airplane and out from under the DTS monster!

Ray ‘Otto’ Petersen – We were lucky enough to get Otto back when the CRG closed its doors. Otto works here during the week as a plumber with C.E. Still our resident Master Hog Roaster. Same ol’ Otto – except now he’s CHIEF Otto!

Dave “Good Deal” Falkowski – haciendo el buen trabajo en stan / eval, muchos de los checkrides, y aprender a hablar bien español, también! Él ahora está teniendo las manos bilingües!

Tom “Tron” Miller – Newly retired from Verizon, and now a Grandpa, so we get to see Tom a LOT these days..... Not sure why.... So we’ve been keeping him busy; LIMA, Baby Booms, the ‘beach’..... he just can’t get enough....! Likes showing off his Personal Electronic Nicotine Inhalation System.....

Jose “I’m still heeeere!” Rodriguez - Still with us! Just had his next-to-last Birthday in the Guard. We’re getting to see a lot of Jose, too; he messed up HIS shoulder, too. All that ‘Couples Break Dancing’ with Killer, we’re thinking....

Jennifer “Mama Boom” Bowen – Works in Current Operations, finding us airplanes to refuel and working with MX on all the configuration plans/issues. Her ‘Jersey Girl’ skills, it turns out, are perfect for this task! Believe me, you’d better do what ‘Momma’ says!

Marshall “the Land Baron” Rice – Heading up our Training shop. Marshall did the banana-peel thing in the parking lot, so he’s been DNIF for a while too. The DNIF pool is slowly getting larger! Luckily, his new therapeutic truck enables him to drive around selling houses to all who seek the luxury of the Pinelands.

Miguel “Billy” Badillo – Moved from scheduling to work with Marshall in Training. Miguel is NOT getting any work done in training; since everyone’s DNIF or deployed, we’re flying the hell out of him.... When HE’S not deployed! I’d say he’s beginning to look tired, but..... he’s ALWAYS looked tired.

Don “I can’t find my glasses” Smith - Still our resident crime fighter, Don comes and goes, plugging along and filling holes in the schedule. Works with the P.D. at night, sleeps in the auditorium during Roll Call.

Patrick “O Canada” Ogle- We sent Pat to the desert with a pair of our Goombah pilots..... (this IS Jersey, after all) to keep them out of trouble. Turns out, Pat’s a great baby-sitter – he got them both back in one piece!

Shawn ‘Doctor EEvil’ Foren – Works in Scheduling, with Brian Kelley now, trying to keep us all current. Miguel doesn’t have to race around Ops with a clipboard NEARLY as much as he did when he worked in there with Shawn. Wonder why that is...?

Brandon Kehr – I guess we don’t have anyone in the Squadron who likes to fly more than Brandon; when he’s not here, he’s jet-setting all over the world as an Air Marshall. Haven’t seen too much of him lately – he’s DNIF..... With a.....SHOULDER injury.....!? What the.....!

Brad “Seriously?” Caruso – Helping out with the LIMA line, and in Stan/Eval. That guy can post T.O. changes with the best of them. Slowly rebuilding his house, one project at a time.

Vince “Marcus Stroker” Stokes – Don’t ask..... please.....Helps out with the LIMA stuff while furthering his education. Not sure yet what he wants to be when he grows up, but hey – he’s got time.

Brian ‘Bri-Bri Baggins’ Kelly – OH my GOD! Bri-Bri was SO excited when the last Lord of the Rings movie came out! It was “Bilbo is so cool” and “Bilbo is my Hero!” and “Don’t you love Bilbo?! EVERY one loves Bilbo!” We know. We’re working on him. Trying to get him interested in a big-boy hobby.....

LeighAnn Schuster – Doing the school thing. Going to be a nurse someday. Luckily we’ve built the perfect environment here for her to practice her diagnostic skills. I think she might want to specialize in shoulder injuries, myself..... Just sayin.....

Kim Moncayo - We inherited Kim from the CRG when it was being phased out, and she’s a keeper. Grandpa Tron took her under his wing, and helped turn her into a Boom good enough to go directly to the beach – do not pass go. And she’s STILL there! Hope she comes back.....

Brandon Moncayo - Kim’s younger brother, the other half of The Flying Moncayos! He’s doing well, too. And he’s working hard in the sandy place, as well. Thinking he wasn’t happy that Tron spent all that time training Kim. Maybe that’s why he threw up on him..... Take THAT, Grandpa!

C.J. “Dexter” Smith - Another inheritance from the CRG, and the last of our current crop of Baby Booms, C.J. is handling numerous projects for us at the moment. Did great all through training, got checked out, and then some Med Wizard looked into his medical records and said, ‘HEY!’ Annnnnnd..... He’s DNIF..... But he’ll be back!

Mike “Sly” Sylvester - Not satisfied with the amount of paper he was pushing in Stan/Eval, Sly moved over to become the Ops Group Superintendent. He’s MUCH more motivated to fly these days! Hey you! Put your hat on!

INBOUND

Chris Howe – Coming to us from our engine shop, and going to Altus soon. Chris has 5 kids at home..... wonder if that has anything to do with his career move...?

Thomas Moss – Coming to us from our CRG, where he was a porter, and also going to Altus soon. All that cargo experience..... I think I see an additional duty in his not-too-distant future!

OUTBOUND

Jeff “SMART” Praskac – Jeff made the smart move to finish his education, get a commission, and snag a pilot position in the squadron. He’s down at charm school right now, so we won’t see him for a while. But all us Dumb Booms will be happy to see him when he gets back. He’s already higher up on our ‘Favorite Pilot’ list than a couple we have here now!

Ken “This IS my Good Side!” Stoddard – The commute from his Boeing job in South Carolina was starting to negatively impact his TV Star good looks, so Ken pulled up stakes and towed his family, AND his Kettle Korn trailer, down south. Flyin with the Carolina boys of the 77th at Seymour-Johnson, these days. We’re betting he’s signed at LEAST one autograph by now. Could’ve left the Korn trailer here, ya know....

“SUPPORT FOR GLOBAL REACH”

> MSgt Rick "Uncle Steve" Dorsey: Rick is the newest member of the FTU even though he's on his second term. After a stint in Stan/Eval he became the chief boom of FTU, where he's made lots of changes in the way things are run. When he's not in the classroom asking questions that make students' brains hurt, you can find him stuck in his freezing cold, then burning hot, then freezing cold again office working on manning documents or doing his OPSEC duties.

> Jacob "Mom" Dieter: AMC instructor boom of the year as he's known around the office, recently sewed on MSgt. He hopes that by the time he retires he actually gets his orders to start training for the KC-46. To date he still hasn't given a single "U". So, a new nickname is in order...Santa! He referees soccer in his off time. We're starting to think he may have lost a step or two since he pulled both hammies out there sprinting around. He bought a Hyundai Veloster-rapter and loves driving to Wisconsin to get cheese curds.

> Eric "Woody" Cox: We're not sure how old he is, but judging by the grey in his hair and the minimum time he needs to pass the run portion of the PT test he's gotta be approaching the half century mark. He's still at the FTU, still a stickler for checking all 6 pins on the ground egress ladder, and we're still re-writing his ATPRS. He still hunts for "slightly less used" parts for his Jeep, which must be approaching 300,000 miles.

> Curtis "Magilla" Clawson: He's our teddy bear. Curtis has been at the FTU longer than anyone, we're pretty sure it's some kind of record. No one knows how long Curtis has actually been here or when he'll move on. We all thought he was in his 30's but it turns out he's the baby of the group. If you need something off the "top self" he's the guy to go to ;) He keeps himself busy at home by tending to his zoo of furry friends. Don't ask him about the ones in the freezer...

>Clay "Mr. Wonderful" Wonders: Clay is still making kids cry. We're working on the "break them down to build them up" approach here at work, and trying to convince him that he needs some "curtain climbers" at home to soften him up. He's also our computer guy, which is the real cause for most of the obscenities you hear coming from his desk. On his free time you can find him at the Gym with his wife doing Zumba, and sampling insanely hot "inferno" sauces at office BBQs.

KC-10 ATS BOOM INSTRUCTORS

TO: Air Refueling Specialists Worldwide
FROM: KC- 10 Aircrew Training Instructors / McGuire AFB, NJ

Greetings to everyone from McGuire AFB in New Jersey. Another year has fairly flown by...no pun intended. There seems to be some long hours and days in everyone's life but the months and years go by so very quickly. Here is an update of your instructor force here; in an effort for simplicity I tried to describe each of us by a simple single word:

Mike Cardina - Check Airman	Mercurial
Greg Heffron - Second Chair, Check Airman	Steadfast
James 'JC' Coleman	Linksman
Steve Smith	Diminutive
John Page
Mark Schumann	Consistent
Steve Custis	Commentator
Eric 'ET' Thomas	Legendary
Bob Culbertson	Kowabunga
Joe McGann	Reflective
Tige 'Tiger' Platt - Part Timer	Fiercy

The names of the personnel are listed by position/placement relative to the FCA slot; all others in the order of seniority. Greg is our actual most senior instructor, followed by Mike and on down the line.

As ever, our training is varied. We provide training for USAF active and Reserve forces, Dutch, Italians, Aussies, Israeli Defense Forces. We do two-day refresher courses, initial qual courses (7 weeks duration), instructor upgrades (3 weeks), and fulfill other training needs as required/levied upon us, to include Subject Matter Expert (SME) work. All for a very reasonable fee.

We're about to undergo some changes. As the Air Force seeks to maximize ground time flying (simulators) we're right there with them. We are undergoing mods and upgrades to get the most training for every dollar out there. Check with Mike for the lowdown on it all. Just know we love our job and we love our Air Forces 'round the world.

Big changes coming for some of us here and, by extension, for a few of you. Some of us will retire within a year or two at the most so if anyone has an interest in seeking employment in one of these positions, get busy with your résumé and present yourself. This is a wonderful, highly sought after position and I will leave you my dictionary and a pencil when I depart next year or shortly thereafter.

Our group salutes you, wherever you are. We send out our best to a diverse, capable, and invaluable Air Force specialty. Whatever tanker you are on, we need you. As ever, if you're not producing lift or thrust, you're a drag.

“Screamin’ Eagles”

MSgt Randy “SLIM” Stinnett – During this period, it seems to us that Randy rolled in just in time to roll out! Additionally, to keep with the recent Superintendent tradition, he will only have been here one year before he leaves...or well, heads over to PACAF AMD. Furthermore, he can mostly be found sitting in his office...in front of the computer...with bloodshot eyes, pretending like he knows how to write decorations for everyone leaving. When he’s not in his office, you can probably find him zipping around base on his motorcycle. Lastly, when you’re strolling through the Pacific and you find that your G2 info is bad, it was probably SSgt Hudson. (Ok, so maybe a bad use of transitions here...he still can’t figure this out.)

MSgt Joe Royer – Joe and family are gearing up to head out the door to lovely McGuire AFB come 1 Sep. I think he’s really excited for the move and ready to get out of here (insert sarcasm) because he’s been on island almost as long as Van Wilder was in school. Ok, so it’s really only been five years, but who’s counting? Joe has been our resident expert on just about anything and everything you can imagine. He strictly lives by the moto “You don’t need to be at work to get work done.” Write that down... On a serious note, thank you for your leadership, mentorship, and all you’ve done for the enlisted Eagles during your stint here. I know they sincerely appreciate everything.

SSgt Shane Williams – Shane’s reign of crushing souls in Stan Eval has come to an end, and he has now joined the “Dark Side” (Hawaiian Air National Guard) in an attempt to stay on the island forever! Shane was lucky enough to get picked up as a Palace Chase selectee, and I think he’s coming close to finishing his second Doctorate’s degree in Ameba Nucleus Health Sports Calisthenics Feel-Good Science by now. Thank you for all your hard work. The Guard did the right thing by picking this super star up.

SrA Keith Prochaska – When not plugging away in the Readiness shop, this bachelor enjoys long walks through the fields, a buzz-bait at the end of his line, and a Hawaiian deer trophy on his wall. That’s right, Hawaiian deer hunting is a real thing...who knew!? If you really want to get him spun up, just mention how much cheese (heads) stink...that’s right, I’m talking about the Packers! I know that Readiness can often be a thankless job, so I want to say that not only are your efforts within that shop appreciated, but you’ve come a long way as an instructor as well. Keep up the good work! FYI...I think Pease may need some help in their Readiness office.

SrA Scott Willard – Fresh out of upgrade training, Scott’s still got the new CFIC smell on him. Oh yeah, and he’s still tinkering with those stinking Mustangs. I think he just put a new sound system in one of them, because I heard him rocking out to WEDDING BELLS the other day! That’s right, Scott’s engaged! Let’s see, just pinned on Instructor, got engaged, PCS’ing to MacDill...what a year, does it get any better!? We’re not sure how you’re gonna live without Keith lecturing you every day, but we’re super proud of you and your accomplishments. Keep plugging away; you are destined for great things!

SrA Kenneth Stricker – I think this guy has watched way too much Iron Eagle. For some reason, he got this crazy idea that if he finished his degree and got his private pilot’s license, that he could apply to OTS, become the next Doug Masters, and have an instructor by the name of “Chappy” Sinclair. Well, through hard work, dedication, and a little bit of luck, Ken has made the All-Star team! Not only did he get picked up for OTS, he made the cut for pilot training too. We’re super stoked for you Ken!

However, in whatever aircraft you get picked up to fly, always remember...NKAWTG...N! Once a Boom...always a Boom! Wish we could all be there for your first "Cleared to contact" call. He gone...

TSgt Heath Tuma- Between Squadron Stan Eval, Group Stan Eval, RA duties, and a few other things, Heath's had a white-knuckled grip on the last few strands of hair left on his head because he just can't seem to slow down! Out of all that he has done here, his favorite by far is the RA duties...just ask him! Heath will be departing the fix in mid-September bound for glorious Fairchild, I mean Kadena, no wait...Edwards, ahhh..uhhh, Pease! That's it, Pease AFB, NJ! You've been a rock for all the Booms here through your guidance and mentorship, and I'm truly thankful for that. I heard Pease is also looking for a new RA...I'll drop your name in the bucket.

SSgt Marcus Hudson – After pinning on SSgt, we gave him the keys to the training shop as NCOIC, gave him a couple of Airmen to supervise, and sent him on his way! Marcus has been phenomenal; however, his reign has been short-lived. Although the squadron may be closing, Marcus will not be leaving the island. He will only be moving a block away to PACAF AMD, where he'll continue to do great things...sitting behind a desk...in a vault...with no windows...breathing recycled air...and oh yeah, scheduling for PACAF! If you're ever coming through the area and you find that your sortie info is a little jacked up, he probably had nothing to do with it (wink)!

SrA Rebekah King - Rebekah has been busy this past year with lots and lots and lots of trips. I think she racked up a kazillion alert hours somewhere in the Last Frontier and has been to Japan so much she bought an apartment there (not really). The amazing thing is, after all her travels, she still managed to complete all but one class for her CCAF...and she JUST put on SrA! After traveling all over the Pacific, she is now concentrating her efforts on a European Vacation...the Mildenhall kind. A little advice; mind your Ps & Qs, don't use the word "pants" in public, and a Wash Closet is not the same as a Janitor's Closet...keep that in mind. Thank you for all of your hard work Rebekah. We look forward to seeing you on the big screen working for NASA.

New Eagles: None

Departed Eagles:

SSgt Jerome "JJ" Jefferson – JJ left us earlier this year to go sit behind a desk in some cubicle at Scott AFB, IL. He said "I'm done with this beautiful weather, the sandy beaches, and the crystal blue/green water...I'm out!!" (insert mic drop) We have no doubt that he's continuing to do great things at Scott.

SSgt Nic Robles – Nic was finally paroled from the scheduling office earlier this year and was our first Palace Chase award winner. He has moved on to a Guard unit in New York where he will be cross-training into the Services career field. Best of luck to you and your family Nic.

CMSgt Kris “Tizz” Oka –Tizz is still tending to her “fireman” duties. In order to be more “sensitive”, she has traded “WTF?!” for “You’re killin’ me!” (60% of the time, it works every time)

SMSgt Gary “Chairman” Mau – Chairman is our OGV guy. Chairmans honeymoon is now officially over. They got a dog instead of a kid to live in their newly renovated house.

MSgt Mark “Uncle Buck” Sindiong – Uncle Buck is working in Current Ops. He is still secretly prepping for the Apocalypse AND he still has time to build Models. (it may be a spaceship...who knows?)

MSgt Eric “Shrek” Faurot- Shrek is our scheduling guy. He is the “projects” guy. BOSS, Renovation project? He is all over it. Everywhere.

MSgt Denny “Judo” Yoshikawa- Judo is our Squadron Stan Evil. He will dazzle you with his sunny disposition.

MSgt Derek “D-dub” Wheeler – D-dub is still a man with many jobs. Works at HX5 updating our pubs database as a contractor AND flies with us! He is one busy man! He is doing such a great job, we gave him ITEC as well. He is refining his impersonations of ALL squadron members.

MSgt Nolan “Bernie -aka Z” Zoller – Z is living the good life. When he is not on LTMPA or golfing, you can find him renovating his house.

TSgt Cal “Gaucho” Cordeiro – Gaucho is currently working in Training and done graduated College! He now has a piece of paper that proves he is smart. Congrats to him!

TSgt Noa “Donk” Morse - Donk is STILL working in current ops running a one man show! Help is on the way, we promise....did I say “help is on the way”?...no really, we promise.

TSgt Al “Albi” Fernandez – Albi is a DSG currently on LTMPA. He is still working on his new house...when he is home!..I forgot to mention his house is on the ocean AND he has a pool!

TSgt Bronson Abellanida - Bronson is a DSG who is an HPD officer fulltime. Bronson just blew out knee playing softball in an HPD league. We are hoping for a speedy recovery so we can send him to the Deid!

TSgt Anthony “Paki” Victorino – He is currently on LTMPA. Paki is our resident softball player, hits over the fence every time.

TSgt Travis Kam – Travis is newly promoted as a supervisor in his civilian job. He asks for “sensitivity pointers” from Tizz. (not recommended btw)

SSgt Vaughn Agonoy – Vaughn is our baby boom (FNG) back from school. He just got hired as one of HPDs newest recruits.

SSgt Caesar Lazaro- Caesar is our newest FNG, back from school this week! His civilian job will have to wait for a few months until they can get him back.

Retired:

MSgt Travis Jones (Flight Chief)

Travis manages 1A0s, 1A2s, and 1A3s as the section chief. In his spare time he raises two kids and trains for a marathon. His fleet feet don't stop on the track, he typically finishes a class earlier than projected with an extremely high pass rate. Without Travis the BBOC would be on its heels. Thanks for keeping things rolling.

SSgt Daniel Flenniken (NCOIC)

Dan took over as NCOIC and Instructor Supervisor at the COE. He keeps busy raising two boys, working towards his Master Degree and training for a marathon. As the official coffee provider for the office he found the time to study and make TSgt. Dan will be PCSing to Travis AFB in the spring and will be missed.

MSgt Rodrick "Putt" Taylor (EB) - AETC Boom Operator Functional Manager KC-135 & KC46

Hello from JBSA Randolph. I'm currently One Deep here at AETC Tanker Training. Just returned from KC-46 Type-1 training (Which was Awesome) and am busy working to make two schoolhouses the best in the AF. Look forward to and additional BIQ sortie and Night Certification "Recommendation" returning soon to the KC-135 program. Also am looking for some super sharp instructors to man the KC-46 schoolhouse here in the near future, so get your packages ready. These are some busy but exciting times as we begin teaching a new style of Boom Operating to legacy Boom Operators. We are all excited and look forward to blazing the path for many of you to follow.

HQ AETC/A3VM

Hello from Randolph AFB! Just finished up my second year here and this past year has been interesting. Due to the HQ staffing cuts this position will be gone whenever I leave. They put all the KC-135 work on the KC-46 Boom when they arrive is the thinking. The job role has changed here with the way inspections are accomplished; we don't really inspect and are more of a mentor. Not much else going on at work.

On the personal side I had back surgery and now have two rods and 26 screws in my torso. Haven't flown since Sept 14, don't know when or if I will be able to get back on the tanker again. Will see what the future brings.

Don't know how long I will get to stay in San Antonio, if you come through give me a call.

YOUNG TIGERS

Greetings from the land of the Rising Sun! Operating less than two-hours flight time from North Korea and one hour from China makes life hectic in the 909th ARS. Once again, we are the only active duty KC-135 unit in PACAF and we are almost always short on booms. Needless to say, because of America's "strategic focus" towards the Pacific we stay busy, but the choices of TDYs are first-rate...Guam, Yokota, Osan, Misawa, Kunsan, Thailand, Singapore, Australia, DG, etc., etc. And when the job is done, we come home to a tropical island that enjoys 178% humidity 16 months a year. It's just like being deployed but with sushi. Hopefully, someday, we will be manned appropriately so we can enjoy this place; in the meantime, here is the roster of our over-worked booms...

SMSgt Douglas Palmisano, FB- Inbound Supt, currently at Altus learning real Boom stuff (he's a prior Gucci BO).

MSgt Gabe "Oki for Life" Ourso, EB- OGV. Hangs out at the squadron more now due to sharing an office with AE guys.

(M)Sgt William "A-A-Ron" Widener, EB- NCOIC of Stan/Eval. Does everything else when Southern's not around, currently learning how to herd cats.

TSgt Gus Burns, MB- Scheduling. Being a BO is just a part-time thing he does in between taking leave and being DNIF.

TSgt Chris "Where's the Beer" Huber, EB- NCOIC of Scheduling. Will be leaving for McConnell this fall and is excited about that, but he may have been drinking when he found out.

TSgt Chad "What's my Job" Holloway, EB- OSW. Nobody really knows what his job is, he flies more than our line guys (currently pulling a 180 in the Died as OGV).

TSgt Jeremy "Stress Ball" Hall, IB- NCOIC of D Flight. Will be heading for the COE come New Year's?

TSgt Don "I Love Active Duty" Johnson, EB- NCOIC of A Flight. Enroute to beautiful Kansas after realizing that you need to read emails carefully from MPS.

(T)Sgt Josh "Hairy" Butts, IB- NCOIC of B Flight- Finally learning what it means to have some troops and supervise. Let the hair pulling begin.

SSgt Josh “Bill of Rights” Silva, MB- OSS/Current Ops.- If he’s not talking about his “Rights”, he’s stressing about flying.

SSgt Bobby “Silent but Deadly” Jones, EB- Stan/Eval. So scary that people go long-term DNIF instead of getting a checkride from him.

SSgt Michael “My name’s not Jason” Voorhes, IB- NCOIC Training Flight. Scaring students and adjusting extremely slowly to not being in AMC anymore.

SSgt Kelly Brooks, UB- NCOIC of Readiness. Went long-term DNIF after a preflight with Bobby Jones.

SSgt Jeremy Culliton, IB- NCOIC of Mobility- Volunteers for every TDY that comes around; one day we may get him to fly as an IB. He recently returned from his month long walk-about in Middle Earth.

SSgt Chance “Pre-mature emails” Italiano, IB- Scheduling. Likes to send out “tentative” schedules and then gets upset when Southern and Widener destroy them.

SSgt Ky “Where’s my neck” Larkins, IB- Recently arrived from McConnell. Has a glazed look in his eyes. I don’t know whether he’s “in the zone” or high on creatine.

SrA Victoria “Preggo” Mora, MB- Scheduling- Came to us pregnant and has taken scheduling to new levels with zero oversight. Hey Hampton, you just got replaced.

SrA Frank “Frankie” Pappalardo, IB- Training- Arrived from Fairchild and is amped to fly. Please don’t follow the “Fairchild” trend and go DNIF.

SrA Charlton “Not Carlton” Hampton, MB- Seasoned SrA that’s still confused about life in general. He’ll get it one day. Not in scheduling though SrA Andrew “Ginger Lead” Cole, IB- Tactics. Leaving for Birmingham after one last typhoon season after never having done ANYTHING tactical.

SrA Justin “Ginger 2” Gillespie, MB-Readiness, He’s still recovering from the broken ribs received in his Muay Thai fighting debut. Walking street, more like limping street.

SrA Preston “MARVEL” Gore, MB-Mobility. Complains about any and everything but is quick to volunteer for a TDY or deployment. Heading to Scott this fall. One day he’ll pay off his college debt, after financing more tattoos and video games first.

A1C Will “the Man” Scott, MB- Stan/Eval- Kid has an “S” on his chest. Arrived at Kadena doing 100 MPH and hasn’t looked back. This young boom has raised the bar for all to follow, even the veterans.

A1C Jesse “Waxer” Barber, MB- Stan/Eval - The man spends more on cosmetics and eyebrow waxing than all the squadron females combined. I’m pretty sure a unibrow is out of regs A1C Cory “Insta-Fam” Drummond, MB- Mobility- Got his girlfriend pregnant, got married and deployed all in the same month. Good luck with that!

A1C Eric” Ginger Ale” Severs, MB-Readiness- Still doesn’t have a clue on what he wants to do at work or in life. Would definitely be a 1st Place winner in a Rick Astley look-a-like contest.

A1C Malachai Epps-Carpenter, MB- Mobility- You can find him sleeping during briefings. If he has a mission to fly, best bet is to send a runner to his dorm for him to show on time.

A1C William “D’Oh” Schott, MB- Readiness- If you see him walking around looking confused, it’s because he is.

A1C D’vante “FNG 2” Wells, FB-Readiness- Still in MCT. May make a career out of it.

Departed

CMSgt Brad Wolfe left to become a Gucci at McGuire. Star Wars mug just got uglier

SMSgt Matt Calisi-- Tormenting staff and students at Altus.

TSgt Shonna Calisi—May be flying, may be at a desk depending on the month.

A1C Joel “#ARMS” Davila--retraining into personnel and still scared to work out his legs.

Hey y'all! Another year gone already?! It's been another busy year for our boomers! We've seen a little bit of turnover this year having lost one of our Chiefs to be the State Command Chief and another to maintenance, but we've also gained a couple new booms that have really stepped up to the plate. This unit is so resilient; you'd never know we were ever out of the tanker business. Chances are if you've spent any time on the road this year, you've seen a Meridian tail on the ramp. From the Atlantic to the Pacific, we've been there! We're looking forward to our first AEF rotation kicking off in October. See you on the road! NKAWTG...Nobody!

Steve is alive and well working as a Systems Support Representative (computer guy) here at Lincoln ANGB.

SMSgt Lang Anderson – Retired

Lang turned 60 and was forced into retirement. Lang is usually spotted with camera in hand at every AFA function. You would think with all the dues the AFA collects they could hire a real photographer.

MSgt Chris Hatley – Retired

TSgt Kerry Gulzow – Retired

TSgt Dan Kirwan – Retired

MSgt Bob Buck – Retired

MSgt Sandy Reynolds – Retired

TSgt Randy Millwood – Retired

ARRG! (Air Refueling Reserve Guys)

Greetings from MacDill. Another busy year in the bag. Deployments, inspections, blah blah blah.... Same stuff, different year. We added a few new faces to the boom shop and some new leadership in the mix.

SSgt Brittany Bahner – A recent acquisition from our active duty counterparts who is a full time student now and part time personal trainer. People pay her good money to have her tell them “run faster, you can do it”.

SSgt Shawn Conners – Another former AD hire from next door. Spends most of his time TDY and encourages others to drink as much he does.

MSgt Phil Costine – Mr. Conservative. Phil works in current ops, is very punctual. At quitting time (and not a minute earlier) you can see him blasting down the highway well below the posted speed limit.

SSgt Nikki Dover – Nikki landed some continuous orders working at SOCOM but still finds time to help out the UDM and flies for us from time to time.

TSgt Corey Dufresne – Full time college student, working on his golf game, just bought a house and participates once in a while to fund all three. I don’t get it either.

CMSgt John Fill – Moved out of the comfy gated community to have a house with a pool and yard but recently discovered that it floods. Currently homeless until the repairs are made.

TSgt Joel Hildebrand – The first boom operator to get picked up by the airlines. Currently he is waiting for a class date.....for airline stewardess school.....I’m not joking.

MSgt Nate Hooper – 11001001, 11000111, 10001110, 10100011, 11110110, 11011011. Oops, sorry. I was writing this in a language that Nate could understand, unlike the UTA schedule.

TSgt Matt Janson – Matt is our GS-10 professional golf tournament and bike riding organizer. But I give him credit, he works long hour and loves the work. In his spare time he does a little boom scheduling as well.

TSgt Josh Kirkland – I don't know that much about Josh. His wife works so he is not here very often.

TSgt James Kyper – James Kyper is very cheap.

SMSgt John Mercer – Who? Oh, John from CAE. He has been DNIF after being run over by a speeding parade float. He claims alcohol was not a factor.

MSgt Johnny Pullen – I think Johnny is studying to be a lawyer. Every time he is in the shop he is talking about attorneys, our legal system, contempt of court, injunctions. Good luck on that bar exam, I hear it's a tough one.

CMSgt Bob Renn – Bob's been in the Air Force now for about fifty years, if you know anything about him now you never will.

SSgt Caleb Sieben – Wow.....there is a whole lot going on here....hhmm. Reference 2014 Boom Signal.

MSgt Pete Stulginski – Pete is remodeling his house, I know this because he talks about it all day long. He works in squadron training, not group training. And for some reason he keeps putting his stuff in my office.

TSgt Tom Wicks – Tom is our UDM and doing a great job. He has his temper in check now too; it's been over a year since he last threw a wine bottle through his TV.

TSgt Robert Willis – Robert also bought a large house, lawn mowing business must be booming.

MACDILL AFB, FL

91 ARS

BOLTS

LIGHTING...WITH A BOOM!!!

91 ARS

A1C Greg Adams – Greg is one of our newest, most high speed baby booms. He blitzed through MCT with a record 14 flights in 179 days with a Sq and AMC waiver. To add to his merits he has also performed the “Harlem Shake” in a purple speedo on his parents table, has a creepy octopus tattoo, and finally cut a hole through his flight suit at to get his CaC card to get on base.

SSgt Fernando Brome – Brome just became an instructor and blazed through CFIC rocking it out with an EXCEPTIONALLY QUALIFIED, too bad that didn’t transfer over to Fantasy Football where he came in dead last. His love for the exec shop has lead him to be the new NCOIC of Wing scheduling, and on a recent note we discovered his passion for standing on corners in full drag with makeup.

SrA Travis Burnett – Travis is on full tilt trying to prove his manhood. He is the newest Squadron Evaluator, recently got rid of his 6-cylinder automatic Mustang and got an over-compensator lifted truck. Finally, unlike the Dallas Cowboys, he actually scored...Travis and Natalia are expecting a little boy on Christmas Eve.

A1C Kimber Camper – You can’t understand a word this kid says with his backwoods Mississippi slow banjo twangin’ drawl. He snapchat’s himself making it rain singles to impress his male boom friends. His associates believe he vocalizes his greatness but still has no girlfriend in sight. One day...

A1C Chris Cannon – Chris is working hard in the training shop, using his kung fu panda moves on the MCT students. He can give you the amount of time down to the second until the new star wars movie comes out. Pretty sure he’s going to dress as a wookie for comic-con this year.

SrA Crystal Cash – Crystal joined the base honor guard giving her the best “ninja smoke” to get out of anything she doesn’t feel like doing. (cough NORI cough) We think she works in scheduling but she’s always out doing honor guard ceremonies. Also has the gift of altering the flying schedule to get some friends out to Vegas for her 21st B-day. Tell us your ninja secrets!

SSgt Darren “Not-so” Clever – Darren earned his nickname by depressing a poppet valve on a boom undergoing MX, thoroughly covering himself in JP-8 and getting sent home by the CC for the smell. On a more positive note, his larva filled eye finally went away. God help us, he is our next CFIC candidate.

SrA Curtis Clishe – Curt is one of the hardest working Boom Operators in the 91st, guess you have to be when you work for TSgt(s) Jewell in scheduling. Curt truly is a magician as he has been able to avoid putting a ring on his girlfriend’s finger for going on what 10 years? I think she is shooting subliminal messages as he is caught singing Beyoncé’s - “Put a Ring on It”.

SMSgt Ben Cobb – SMSgt Cobb has come long ways from his days at Altus playing “Animal in the Woods” with fellow comrades. Now a days he spends his time wrecking everyone EPR’s and awards packages but to his credit can polish a turd and the results are proven. He still awaits the release of a song called “Brain Grenades” from his former Altus students. This one will make top 100 on the Billboard Chart.

SrA Leslie “The Hammer” Davis – Stan Eval’s enforcer evaluator, Leslie strikes fear into the hearts of anyone she shows up to fly with. Rumor has it, she’s made a few grown men cry. Just follow your checklist and nobody gets hurt.

Amn Nathan Deleon – “Safety Man of the Year” The only person that’s had 8 mishaps in a year and is still somehow operational. Social media socialite, #shitdeleonsays is currently trending on twitter with such quotes as “what if she had her face tattooed on her face, just slightly to the right?” and “Do you think if you raised a T-Rex it would eat you?” Yeah pretty strange uhh?

A1C Raphael Duncan – the 91st OPSEC Officer, no honestly just check out his dedicated Facebook and YouTube channels to find out the deployed ATO... He’s such a big deal he actually has a group of Airmen as his dedicated room service ensuring his room passes dorm inspections.

SrA Michael Dunn – Dunn managed our funds in R/A before recently moving into training and is on a first name basis with the Comm help desk operators. He’s literally the only person keeping us clothed and online.

SrA Darian Edwards – Darian has come back to his old high school stomping grounds and is a pillar in Mobility office. During his off-time you can usually find him hitting every Target in Southern Florida trying to build his Nintendo Amibo collection...Uh...Yeah...That’s cool. ...

SSgt Shawn Gallagher – Fear the Stache! When he first started growing his mustache it looked like two red caterpillars growing out of his nose. His peers refer to him as jack of all trades master of none, whatever that means. He will be heading to Altus this year to spread joy to the new students. This should be interesting.

A1C Jonathan Garcia – Garcia got tired of all the rumors about the AWACS giving you cancer or making you have only girls so he decided to knock one of those pesky antennas off of it in the desert. He sure showed them! He is a quiet type and his jokes are terrible when you actually hear them. Most interesting thing is that he gets married and doesn’t tell a soul - not even family.

SrA Dahron “Hambone” Hambrick – Dee moved into Stan Eval and got hired on as a bouncer...he made sure everyone checked their attitude at the door. That was short lived and they shipped him over to Wing scheduling. Now he is trying to hit the road (TDY) because his NCOIC is a cross dresser and it terrifies him.

A1C Nick Hart – Nick’s one of our newest baby booms. He was close behind Adams for the MCT timeline record, but pulled it off and is now deployed. He enjoys long walks on the beach and sunsets over the dorms. His most recent accomplishment was having too much amber nectar and accidentally took a nap on the dorm lawn. Night-night.

TSgt(s) Jake “Juggernaut” Jewell – Jake came to us from Altus to run our scheduling shop. He recently moved to B flight and can’t figure out to do with his new found free time, so he got a planner – which is still empty. He’s asked the snack-o to set aside one case of M&Ms each week for just him.

SrA Richard “Jimmy” Jimenez – He’s our Sq Tactics expert and newest CFIC candidate. People still don’t realize his first name isn’t Jimmy. He augments his SrA pay with his underground Jordan shoe sales... Kids if you see Jimmy at a trunk sale, it’s smart to just keep rolling through that stop sign.

A1C Jarrod Lemons – One of our newest MCT booms, he spends all of his day playing Clash of Clans and his weekends getting his butt kicked at paintball. He is absolutely terrified of balloons and loves pigmy midgets from Antarctica, which is not strange by today’s standards.

SrA Castulo Lucero – Lucero is in charge of ground scheduling and is Brown’s partner in crime. He is terrified of going to CFIC because????? Someone help me out here. Found out he was going to Wg scheduling, and has had to stop himself from breaking out into song and dance every day until he moves.

A1C Taylor “No Hands” Manz – Our beloved squadron designated driver. He’s old enough to deploy but not old enough to buy a beer. Maybe you can get a free beer on your birthday at the Fox Sports Bar. If you ever have to pick teams for football, be careful - his height will deceive you as he can’t catch a football to save his life.

TSgt Sandra McClard wait...Fernandez...nope definitely McClard... – Sandy is the “boom mom” giving out motherly advice to the new guys. She’s currently back in MCT but telling war stories about refueling F-4’s and retiring the F-14. We’re excited to get her back in the fight!

SrA Shane McDonald –Part of the cool kids, with his Ray Ban’s...Shane is our resident mobility enforcer. He’s got the key to the gun safe so you better update your vRed or else! We hear is fantasy football guru and studies football harder than SMSgt Cobb studies for promotion. Now that is something folks.

A1C Michael McNicholas – McNicholas is getting his feet wet on his first deployment. If you ever get close to this guy watch yourself as he will spit it all over you. He’s the one guy in the squadron trying to beat the 8:00 min mile and a half...just for fun. Someone mentioned something about pickle back. What does that mean? He must know.

SrA Christian McPeak – Christian just returned to us from CFIC and already argued to change the dash-1 on his first day back. Christian recently relinquished his position in the Fantasy Football league because he didn’t want to cheat on his team. *Pop Quiz the only ass-whooping the Carolina Panthers will give is Cam Newton beating up his Cornerbacks.

A1C Jason Miller – Jason is the strong silent type unless you ask who wants out of Scheduling...has the best ride in the dorms with his tricked out purple mustang named “Barney”.

A1C Kasey Miller – Kasey just returned from her first deployment and is now performing her Wonder Woman duties in mobility. She’s cleaned the place up and is keeping the guys honest. Scheduled to deploy with Pease this winter...better bring back some Lobstah!!

A1C Jan Perez-Fontanez – Found out he’s going to be a daddy! He just returned from his first trip to the Deid and now works in scheduling. His accent is so tough to understand when he notifies you to fly, we have just resorted to the POW tap code to relay messages.

A1C Luke Pommier – He’s the newest addition to the training shop and kind of has a big head about it. No seriously, that thing is huge. Rumor has it he had his helmet custom made like Shaq’s shoes. If only we could somehow get some systems knowledge in there. He’s also got some awesome sock/sandal game.

A1C Jacob Reid – Reid is the newest addition to the 91st. He’s undergoing MCT and is very sharp. One of the few new booms that didn’t sleep through all his systems briefs at Altus. Welcome to MacDill!

SSgt Brandon Roberts –Brandon’s the NCOIC of Stan Eval and the resident “old man”. He reminisces of his sports days when he doesn’t hurt himself. He’s enjoying being a new daddy and is ready to head west to chillax in the 100 plus degree heat in Altus. Hopefully his comic books don’t melt.

SrA Aerial Sacia – BTZ!! In the first five minutes of her meeting you, you will know that she loves crossfit and pretty much knows everyone in Tampa. Honestly she’ll tell you. Aerial is also the girl to talk to in RA if you want to get rejected for new flight suits.

SrA Matt Sadler –Matt gets all the best jobs in the squadron. Training to Sq Exec then back to training. But he’d rather be out deep sea fishing on his (dad’s) boat, or golfing with the Reserves. Says he likes the Ravens, but he is a closet Patriots fan. No really, he has represented the Pats jersey the last two years.

SrA Matt Scott – Scott is currently a SQ CC exec, and rumor has it that he still has Tennessee moonshine under his desk. That’s the only way they get anything done apparently. Although, by the time you read this he should be a civilian and training to be a Super Trooper in Tennessee...Can I have a Liter of Cola?

A1C Ryan Seiler –Our boom legacy, the product of SMSgt (Ret.) Ray Seiler, is following in his father’s footsteps. Apparently Ray didn’t give him much gouge.....

SrA Evan Simpson – He hosts “Game of Thrones” parties dressed as Khalessi (true story). No really though, he has great hair and his fake Brittany Spears smile is addicting. He has been a work machine in the Sq, and thankfully his GF keeps him in check.

SSgt Ryan Stewart – Technically still part of our roster, yet Ryan hasn’t been to work in over a year. He has a grizzly lumberjack beard and is waiting on his VA paperwork to come through so he can retire.

SSgt Derrick Wagner – You’ll know him by his beat-up hooptie pickup truck with the subs in the back or his new Ram on 26 inch bling-bling rims. You can always tell when Wagner needs something, he’ll just walk past your door opening again, and again, and again until you make eye contact with him. He also picked up a weekend job to pay for that nasty scratch he left on an F-16 earlier this year.

SrA Jordan Webber –Who?? He’s so quiet when there’s role call the CC asks, “Anyone know this guy?” Jordan is our mobility expert and you’ll know him when he tracks you down to do your IA CBT. He’s also pretty good at carpet cleaning...right Hambrick?

MSgt Rory Wilcox – Got tired of being made fun of with his little orange Dart, so he decided to go back to his “I’m a Man!” truck. Word on the street is that he is working on a remix of “I’m on a boat” with Lamar Daniel and owns boat shoes. MSgt Wilcox has taken his leadership role to heart and has been awarded with Wg SNCO OTQ and Tampa Chamber of Commerce Leadership awards in the last month.

6 AMW

TSgt Roger Braun –He’s that dirty old man that makes you uncomfortable with the amount of man to man contact. That Thailand PTSD hasn’t quite worn off yet. We hid him away in the XP vault with no windows, only letting him out to teach 8010. Luckily he’s got that built-in tan to make him seem normal.

SrA Corbin Mattson – BTZ! Mattson got the thankless job of working at Wing XP. He's locked in the vault for 8-12 hours a day with Braun which has made him very skiddish. I don't blame you, I'd have nightmares from it too. Mattson specializes in taking leave on every Wing exercise/mandatory event, he must have Ms. Cleo's number on speed dial or his own crystal ball.

SrA Sean Brown – Almost single-handedly rebuilt our 8010 program from the ground up. He had his face reconstructed after a "mountain bike crash" which didn't help his appearance much. Apparently earning a "commendable" for instructor ability at CFIC gets you an 18 month no-flying assignment to the XP vault. Tough luck buddy.

6 OG

TSgt Michael Fagan – Pretty sure our OGT expert still has yet to learn how to properly fill out a TAPR. Most of our time is spent trying to track him down to fix folders. The only time you hear from Mike is when he submits himself for an award or when there's a TDY.

MSgt(s) Lamar Daniel – Has the ugliest Hawaiian T-shirt known to man. Recently conquered the Fantasy Football league and won the championship. If you can't find him at work, check the tides as he's probably out fishing with Rory or Roger.

6 OSS

SSgt Josh Eidson – He's the "NCO I never C" at Wing tactics. He's currently living in his cardboard box because he spends his entire BAH each month on his big diesel truck he bought to impress the ladies.

MSgt Select Jack Hester – Hester hides over in the wing scheduling office as the NCOIC. He spends most of his days looking up Transformers, drinking Dr. Pepper and avoiding answering any phone calls. If only we could get night fighters scheduled more than once a semester...

SrA Jacob "Jughead" Seibert – Jug works with Hester doing whatever he does over there. Loves to hate on any SEC team or NFL team besides the Colts. Has an uncomfortable passion talking Tom Brady's deflated balls and dreams of snuggling up on Andrew Luck's neck beard.

MACDILL AFB, FL

KC-135 ATS BOOM INSTRUCTORS

Mr. Nathan Peachey – Nathan.Peachey@kc135ats.net Nate's latest project has been reviewing maintenance manuals (electrical wire diagrams seems to be his specialty). He believes he has found a method to fix a DC power loss in the boom pod by dragging the APU battery back to the pod and somehow jerry-rigging it into the system. When not working science projects, he is busy catching tarpon from his dock.

Mr. John Mercer – John.Mercer@kc135ats.net John managed to have his foot run over by a float during the Gasparilla Pirate Festival Parade this year. Trust me, he's getting full use of his handicapped parking sticker on base. I'd like to say he has learned a few new tricks from all of Nate's science projects, but he's still stuck on teaching strict EMCON discipline and the use of AUTO Disconnect.

MARCH ARB, CA
Headquarters 4th Air Force
Boom Operator FAM

CMSgt Russell Martin Russell.Martin@us.af.mil

I still get to go out and fly with the units and have been assuming HQ AFRC evaluators duties since CMSgt Bob Wolfe retired. Involvement in the first Reserve base for KC-46 has been interesting and should be announced by years end.

“THE FIRST AND THE FINEST”

Another busy year. The clock definitely keeps ticking away. We lost a few good folks this year...some for happy occasions and some for sad.

The synergy of the 336th and the 912th ARS boomers is super fantastic!!! Thanks to all of these folks for making this another great year!

Thanks to Parker, Phi and Alex for putting the 2015 signal together

Deb McGuane

CMSgt McGuane, Deb “Mama Boom”- deborah.mcguane@us.af.mil. (ART/Chief Boom) Nothings too cruel if it’s funny... batting less than 1000 for our boom hire success rate. She is also our SARC Representative/Trainer... need we say more

SMSgt Horner, Kenneth “The Silver Fox”- Kenneth.horner@us.af.mil. (ART/TRAINING) He mentioned retirement so we hired his Ex-wife.... Girlfriend is next.... Awkward . Plus we can add hypnotherapy to his list of accomplishments

SMSgt Sammons, Brian “General Sammons”- Brian.sammons.1@us.af.mil. (ART-OP STAN/EVAL) Officially off the market with the same hair style since 1977, and the party suit doesn’t fit as well as it used to /at all

MSgt Allen, Michael “Teddy Bear”- Michael.allen.17@us.af.mil. (ART – VCO/Flightline DL). Just getting back from his recent deployment and says war is not the same as it was in Vietnam. By the way... nicest person you will ever meet

MSgt Castro, Osvaldo “You’re Dangerous”- Osvaldo.castro@us.af.mil. (ART/Stan-eval). Still dangerous... to himself... only boom operator to tear his meniscus while lying down in the boom pod. Recently regained driving privileges on the flight line

MSgt Irish, John “Mr. Pleasant”- John.Irish@us.af.mil. (Traditional) Unofficially known as the angry Irish Man, but has recently curtailed his geriatrics prescriptions to become more of a pleasant Irish Man. He has recently improved his fit to fight score with a 11/2 mile hike to his mail box on his avocado farm

MSgt Preston, Tim “Giggity”- Timothy.preston.1@us.af.mil. (Traditional). Always working and if he ain’t working he’s making jokes that no one understands

MSgt Ramirez, Robert “Tammmaaaalllllee”- Robert.ramirez.8@us.af.mil. (Traditional). Newest instructor paired with the Chileans for translation... btw the weeds in the parking lot aren’t going to pull themselves Rob

MARCH ARB, CA

912 ARS

“Hollywood Tankers”

Greetings from the 912th ARS! We have had another fun-filled year here in sun-soaked SoCal. Our 336th compatriots are still some of the most outstanding people to work with and always an enjoyable experience sharing the journey. As always, if you're in town, swing on by and say hello.

MSgt Daniel Beecher – Superintendent, Chief Boom

He's been having fun filling Chief Jacobs' shoes handling all of the EPRs, decs, etc., but really misses the TDYs. So much so that he found a nearby plane taking off and jumped aboard. He then decided that the plane wasn't up to his standards, so he hurled himself out of it at 8,000 ft. Unlike the -135, this one did have a parachute. He can be found most weekends travelling around SoCal with his better half.

MSgt Patrick Martin – OGV

Enjoying the world of OGV and is always on us to keep our EFBs up to speed. He is chasing his dream job of teaching cargo hauling and how to play video games on the new tanker. We figure that he and Kim are going to be the first Crossfit box owners in Altus so that he can get those calf muscles evened out.

TSgt Jonathan Brown – Stan/Eval

Jon continues to raise hell and wreak havoc in Stan/Eval and is doing a great job keeping all the booms honest. Pat and Jason rubbed off on him, so to speak, and inspired him to take up Crossfit as well. He recently found out that he made MSgt but it doesn't look like it will be enough to keep him in the Active Duty. He will be joining our sister unit, the 336 ARS, early next year.

TSgt Jeremiah “Blue” Ibarra – Scheduling

Blue is still our resident sports junky, and is ramping up for fantasy football. He has recently discovered that a hangover and two hour boat ride do not mix well. However, we are told it was worth it by the dance moves he displayed the previous night. Also found out the hard way to take a warning from Kenny seriously. He's been keeping our Scheduling shop headed in the right direction and most crew dawgs happy.

TSgt Levi “Sideburns” Knepper – Training

Proudly representing the Booms on the Ping Pong table where he is continually showing everyone how it's done. We are also hypothesizing that he has something to do with all of the local drone reports. He's gotten tired of receiving the pain and now wants to inflict it, so he's off to TACC this fall.

SSgt Kenneth Arcibal – Training

Kenny is trying to get a Teen Mom show gathering here at March, but for some reason not everyone is onboard. While rooming together, Kenny was quite hospitable to Blue and even gave him a heads up that he has been known to yell in his sleep. After getting his heartrate back down, Blue started to take him a bit more seriously. He is currently taking over the reins of Training from Levi.

SSgt Jason Duckett – Current Ops

Duckett was tired of Pat being the only Crossfit junky around here, so there have been reports of muscle-ups and burpee competitions in the squadron. He has been the funnel (not filter) between TACC and us while working Current Ops, but he hasn't found the block function on the phone yet.

SSgt Bruce “Batman” Freed – Mobility

Batman is still enjoying himself here at March. It might have something to do with our proximity to Comic-Con. He continues to master his craft of brewing and we are still confirming the stories of him LARPing. His crew on the last deployment found out he was serious when he asked them what color cards they wanted for Magic. He is been doing a fantastic job keeping the UDM shop afloat.

SSgt Matthew Nelson – Mobility

As our newest IB, Matt can find anything in the -1; just can't find Duckett's cat still. He is currently experiencing the wonders of fatherhood as one of our newest papas. He is also keeping our UDM shop in line while trying to get as jacked as Kenny.

SrA Justin Davis – Scheduling

2014 Boom Signal data is still applicable, #fatherhood. The AF decided Justin needed to hang up his flight suit and was recently selected to attend OTS to become a butter bar in the space career field. Justin has been rocking the scheduling shop and training up Maria and Love, so they now have now excuses.

SrA Matthew O'Daniel – Training

Another Kadena alumnus, Matt is still taking advantage of the sunshine and trying to prove that a XS tank top is the way to go. Likes to think that he “Curls for the girls,” but it doesn't seem to be panning out that way. For now we are only seeing the curls.

SrA Danielle Warren – Training

Danielle recently arrived from MacDill, so we are still digging up the dirt on her. For some reason she was very happy to see Maria.

SrA Maria Wilson – Scheduling

She is a lot happier now that she and her BFF are together again. We heard something about them commemorating their friendship by seeing Magic Mike whatever-it's-called. We are thinking of moving her over to the Mobility shop since she likes to store Squadron members' passports. She has been trying to learn the scheduling trade, but we keep sending her to places like the desert, ALS, and soon CFIC.

A1C Naim “Kulchure” Love – Scheduling

Naim showed us no love by showing up without a driver's license. Adult supervision still required. Got a busy deployment under his belt and now that he's back, he is spending his daytime shuffling crewmembers and free time dropping beats.

Outbounds

Pat Martin – KC-46 at Altus

Levi Knepper – TACC

Justin Davis – OTS

Inbounds

MCCONNELL AFB, KS

22 ARW

CMSgt Don Breitreutz: Formerly known as the Operations Superintendent and now known as the Group Superintendent. Still lurking around the flightline to find the cargo loading team just waiting to be asked -9 questions. Has a knack for making cargo straps fall off of “properly” tied down cargo all while the cargo team looks on in sheer disbelief. Don seems to have developed a new catch phrase when looking at improperly configured aircraft on the ramp. “UnFreakinBelievable!”

CMSgt Todd Daniels: Formerly Group Superintendent but now Operations Superintendent just conducting Group Superintendent duties at another location. You are doing good if you can figure that one out. We are pretty sure it was a boom conspiracy to split up the pair of vultures who circled McConnell’s flight line looking for a fresh kill. Little did they know that while they felt victory for only having one Chief at home station they forgot the other Chief now lurks their home away from home with the same eagle eye for spotting four sets of main wheel chocks strapped to the galley. Todd doesn’t have any catch phrases he just glares at the booms and they are like roaches when the lights come on.

Mr. Mike Sage (IB retired) – Special Operations Air Refueling

Mr. Ken Crowe (IB retired) - Special Operations Air Refueling

Mr. Steve Yavornitzki (IB Retired) – Wing Plans and Programs

Honorable Mention

CMSgt Mike Morris: Just departed the fix as our Command Chief and headed North to Offutt as their new Command Chief. Booms have been trying to take over the world for decades and now that we have many serving as Command Chiefs the plan seems to be coming together nicely.

CMSgt Shawn Hughes: Just arrived this week from Charleston to take the reins as our new Command Chief. It was a classic look from the other wing Chief’s when they found out we were having back to back Boom Operator Command Chief’s. I am sure he will do well for all of our enlisted!

MCCONNELL AFB, KS

344 ARS

“Ravens”

Liv Hoornstra: As Sq Super Liv has safely made it another year without killing anyone. She came close, but TSgt Staton and SSgt Gidaly have run interference nicely. She says she drinks wine because punching people is frowned upon.

Berneburg, Kevin: A solid contributor to the new “super OST,” Kevin can still always be counted on for a laugh (AT him). Aspirations of more service as a TACP on his horizon.

Burton, Jacob: Newest member of the SOAR shop, Jacob continues to shine the brightest of all booms.

Carl, Tyler: Finishes MCT, goes on leave, has major knee surgery! Seems to be a motivated Airman, but needs to get out the door ASAP!

Childs, Liahna: New responsibility is the name of the game for Liahna in 2015. Not only is she a new mommy to a beautiful baby boy, she comes back from maternity leave only to find out she’s the B Flight NCOIC as well as the Scheduling NCOIC! #noprobblem #igotthis

Clark, Patrick: You will be lucky to have a Clark sighting in the 344th. We know he’s assigned here, and that he deploys, but that’s it.

Clawson, Joe: Clawson is rare...no really it’s rare to see him in the squadron. Ever! He has been slowly progressing through pre-CFIC. All we can hope for is that he makes it without going postal on OST.

Cofield, Joe: Left the squadron and has not looked back once! He is doing great things at XP and is expecting his first child. It’s a girl; he just doesn’t want to admit it. We will all know soon enough.

Daschner, Eric: “Man I shouldn’t have made Staff” Eric. He was hoping for an easy transition from Mildenhall, hide in the shadows, be invisible, NOPE! Earn that stripe buddy.

Dossman, Giani: Started CFIC with a smile on his face (crying on the inside). Recently moved to the scheduling shop, looks to have a bright future.

Fuller, Rob: Instructor Boom extraordinaire! Rob has been doing great things for McConnell’s boom force, and has recently moved up to OGV! Although he is doing a great job, you could never stop him from “California Dreaming.”

Gidaly, Nick: Nick has taken over the DOV shop and is still trying to figure out how that happened...flying under the radar doesn’t work for him even if he is in his wife shadow. He is expecting a baby girl...life as he knows it is about to be over.

Gomez, Daniel: Quiet as can be, if you didn’t look away from your computer you already missed him.

Harnish, Mark: No TDY to tough for Mr. Harnish. If it's on the scheduling board, he will go. Good thing he got a last-minute deployment to Guam, CFIC in the near future!

Huggins, Chuck: Ball is life.

Jackson, Kyle: From running the scheduling shop single-handedly, straight into the exec shop, Kyle is a glutton for punishment! One of the best IB's in the 344th, and well on his way to stardom.

Lafever, Darrin: As the squadron's newest IB, a lot will be expected of Darrin (oh wait, he's had a lot on his plate since he got here). Sorry big guy.

Mays, Andrew: We are fairly confident that he will figure this whole Air Force thing out some day. Someday soon, like right after this next deployment... please?

McAllen, Kelly: Kelly has turned out to be a real go-getter. Aside from jumping in feet first with scheduling, she volunteered to do a back-to-back deployment DURING THE SUMMER! Hopefully she stays around for a while so she can learn how to fly a local.

Mossing, Matt: Pressing through MCT, hopeful for good things to come.

Parks, Forrest: Forrest has done an outstanding job as a boom operator and Airman. He is off to pursue civilian endeavors; we wish him the best and appreciate his service. Good luck young man, enjoy.

Staton, Chris: Between filing claims for his apartment getting broken into, play golf, and swiping right looking for chick online, it's surprising that Chris has time for anything else. Promoted to TSgt and instantly became the Ops super and is determined to fix the problem of the world. Good Luck !

Targos, Corey: If a boom operator with a more positive attitude exists, please show yourself. We don't think he ever gets mad (might be because his wife bakes sweets all the time, that might help).

Thayer, Ryan: Poor Thayer. The young lad is a gullible one; he spends most of his day avoiding SSgt Gidaly because he isn't sure when to laugh or take him serious. You always know when he's at work because "Rough Country" is out in the parking lot.

Toney, Kevin: Kevin got orders Travis and immediately bailed on all things McConnell. He is super happy at Travis. We wish him the best of luck!

Woosley, Alex: Sometimes his girlfriend lets him out of the house to hang out, but most days he still just works on his car. Now getting used to the idea that he is an IB, Alex is standing in as an OST instructor.

A1C Collin “Hermes” Green

The Greek god of speed has been known to go from 0 to 100 real quick. If you see him ask him how his Prelude is running.

A1C Brandon “Smiley” Divins

A1C Cody “Shu-ma-tay” Shumate

The deer of the squadron spooks very easily and gives you the deer in the headlight look when asked questions.

CCSSSgt Vanya “CHOCKS” Cook-Leotaud

Hey last I checked we had configuration 1 and nothing in the regs says I can’t put that there.

SrA Bria “Nola” White

Recently requalified in primary duties, so what does the squadron do??? We send her to have fun in the sun.

SafetySrA AJ “Roids” Langs-Hunter

SchedulingSSgt Andrew “Rudy” Cohea

Off DNIF long enough for the squadron to kick him out the door for a deployment but will return in time to play Santa for Big Brothers Big Sisters this Christmas.

SrA Zachary “Coach” Rambo

SrA Ronald “ACE” Fallows

Put more F-16’s on the ground than Iran, has a running competition with Medeiros for sexiest hair of the year.

A1C Joseph “Pug” Cadwallder

A1C Kowan McFalls

Just got here so we don’t have any dirt on him yet.

Stan/Eval(T)Sgt Samuel “Deuce” Martinez

Spends most of his time sweet talking the local authorities out of a speeding ticket! Recently earned his freedom papers and is heading to earthquake central

SrA Codey “LB” Gerlach

At one point he was an amateur MMA fighter but that went out the window along with his manhood. LB is code and I will let him tell you what it means.

TacticsSrA Damon “Tactical Tuna” Tunender

TrainingSrA Michael “Bookie” Buchanan

SrA Alexis “Swag” Avery (Mitchell)

Snuck out of the squadron and was believed to have been recruited by OGV. We tracked her down and is now safely tucked away in the Training, er uh Stan Eval section.

“RED FALCONS”

SMSgt Jeff Bishop – He is retiring in the fall. Maybe he will get off of DNIF in time to have a fini flight

MSgt Brett Prothe - New Superintendent.

MSgt Al “Angry Al” Pelletier – Still angry as ever, just in a new office.

TSgt Adam “Smoke” Mosier – He is the squadrons Ops Sup. He recently got surgery on his knee and is now on crutches. It’s not hard for the young booms to hide from him when you can hear him from a mile away.

TSgt John “Turtle” Ertle – Ditching the 350th and defecting to another squadron. At least he passed on his legacy with his green office chair.

TSgt Bartek “The Head” Bachleda – When he is not dropping knowledge bombs on young booms, he is hidden away in some office.

SSgt Killian “Waitforit” Stone – Has been hiding at the SOAR shop

SSgt Kris “Mustachio” Wiggins – We ran out of NCO’s so we had to steal him from the 349th. Ask him about how many fish he caught in Alaska.

SSgt Travis “Pretty Boy” Moore – Began detailing cars to pay for his hair products

SSgt Justin “Angry Ginger” Walsh – First boom to get a Q1 for leaving secrets on the jet. Besides that, you can find him at the smoke pit complaining about something.

SrA Jesus “J-Rod” Rodriguez –Just graduated ALS and then we shipped him off to OG Mobility.

SrA James “Diesel” Shaffer – Had a proxy marriage while deployed in Afghanistan. Upon returning from the deployment he put $15,000 into his jeep. Then he decided that he needed the AF to keep his paychecks rolling so he finally graduated instructor school.

SrA Josh “Leather” Garrett – Sold his car and bought a motorcycle to join the squadron biker gang.

SrA Seth “Mother Lover” Corliss – Finally caught himself one. Wedding date TBD. Don’t bring your mothers when you attend.

SrA Katie “K-wow” Kuhar – Bride-to-be. Doing great work in training shop! Keep it up!

SrA Jameco “The Offendee” Edwards – While on a lunch push with another boom, he got into a car accident, during which he performed the boom cringe. He is now on car #3. He also just recently became a dad! Hopefully his wife will be doing the driving with baby.

SrA Jake “Freaky” Frisch – This guy never shuts up!

SrA Justin “SrA (S) Elliott –When he is not trying to boss around the new A1C’s, he is going on road trips down to Dallas, where his car has broken down... twice. He probably should have taken Pawnee.

A1C Shelby “Dory” Bowling – She is known to have short term memory loss and also makes sure she lets everyone know how she feels about EVERYTHING.

A1C Mike Lawson –New guy to squadron but already has several call signs including but not limited to “English Ahole”, “Rooster” and “Big Mike”

A1C Max Smesney – Another new guy. He has a baby face but surprisingly is 24. Hopefully we will have more dirt on him next year.

Departures

SSgt Cody “Trailer Trash” Beverly – A newly certified redneck. When he separated, he bought a trailer and a case of PBR lite, funded by a “Go-Fund Me” Page, and moved down by the river.

SSgt Ryan “Proud Papa” Cornell – Left McConnell to join the Okies. Were pretty sure he is still impersonating Adam Lavine down in OKC.

Ops Super

TSgt Davie “Mouth Piece” Hobbs – FINALLY became an Instructor and made Master, on his way to the CRW at Travis... You will hear him coming!!!

A Flight

SSgt Kyle “Iceman” Engasser – Snagging up all of the TDY’s he can before he moves onto Altus and to bigger and better things...like Scooters. He will be leaving behind his legacy piranha tank for some new airman to gum up.

A1C Andy “Old Man” Fallert – Only boom we know that came into the Air Force with his Master’s degree. Constantly works on his newish bike that will never be ridden.

A1C Ray “Downtown” Brown – Fresh out of MCT boom. Please don’t tell us about how you had to wait forever to get night fighters we’ve heard the story. You will see him out at the Died soon enough.

B Flight

A1C Marnel “Kid N Play ” Wheatley – Walks in the squadron like he and his flat top owns the place until one of our NCO’s notices his Gerald (Hey Arnold Character) looking flat top.

A1C Sam “Fix The Keg” Mills – Called off of crew rest to fix the keg you may think he is some kind of frat star but he used to work for Anheuser Busch.

C Flight

SSgt Adam “Thor” Clark – Outstanding flight super don’t even try to compete with this guy when it comes to #winning awards. Currently he is taking a lot of pictures with Gumby?

SrA Jonathan “Nee_Gul” Nigl – He has been on 2 deployments and still hasn’t gotten a assigned to a shop yet? He will tower over you and move as fast as a tower, but he’s pretty sharp.

A1C Owen “Lawn Fairy” Derksen – Chill as a cucumber but that all changes when he steps onto the soccer field. 14 years young married with a little girl not kidding.

Readiness

SSgt Andrew “Doctor Light Purple” Lavender – He will kick you off the squat rack if you are wasting his time, more than likely you are because he has more squats to do. Just barely getting used to readiness and he’s out the door...standard.

A1C Jeff “J2” Jaskela – “My names Jeff” (in my Channing Tatum voice) Jaskela has proven he can hold down a shop single handedly and then some! You can find him holding down mobility, VCO, flightline driving, etc.....

A1C Gabby “Ghost” Campbell – She’s there and then before you know it she’s gone like some kind of Houdini. Now she’s DNIF and counting push-ups for your PT tests.

Awards and Decs

SrA Roslyn “ROZ” Longmire – Big help to the squadron while she is DNIF. Randomly she will bring in her service dog that you can’t even pet.

Safety

SrA Alex “Ey...BooBoo” Ortiz – Gets a paper cut...DNIF. Spends most of his Boom career in DNIF status recently got back from the Honor Guard to fly, but not until he goes through requal.

SrA Tiffany “Southern Twang” Ellerbe – Newish boom from Kadena, she has been giving system briefs for weeks and you can’t understand a word she’s saying.

Scheduling

SrA James “Any Short Joke Works” Walker – I think his phone can only be used for Instagram, more specifically for women...”My Team”. Praise the Lord his wrist isn’t broken anymore that’s one less broken boom.

Training

SSgt Colin “The Boom with the Dragon Tattoo” Gregory – Tinder game strong, should probably up the age on his search...On his way out the door to McGuire.

Stan Eval

TSgt Marcus “Vespa” Barnes – The only one in the squadron that doesn’t play dumb when it comes to Apple products so his desk is piled high with iPads that need their brightness changed or airplane mode turned on.

SrA Mikey “Big Daddy” Perez – About to become an instructor and his favorite word is “Spokes”...just ask him.

Attached/ On Loan

SrA David “Davery” Avery – EQ through Instructor school, OST scooped him up as soon as he returned so he can mold young booms.

TSgt Jason “Brain” Burianek – “Crusty Tech Sergeant” is this guy, if you ever run into him be prepared for a back in my day story.

SSgt Jason “Bane” Coffey – He’s the only boom chosen to swap over to the KC-46 from McConnell. Take that! He also cheers for Kentucky sports 90% of the time all the time.

SrA Autumn “Durka” Hedrick-Cox – Baby momma coming due!

SSgt Grant “Ringenburglar” Ringenberg – Eager! to jump on flights with pre CFIC or new booms to spread his knowledge and hand on the control stick.

Departed

SMSgt Tom “Timmah” Ireland – Chief Select recently left the squares for Fairchild to where it all began for him.

SSgt Ryan Nelson – Crossed trained from AF Honor Guard, he was only in the squadron for a little over a year before getting out.

TSgt Adam Mosier – He was a Square, but PCA’d to the 350th to fill their Ops Sup role. If he’s not in his office, then look for him at the smoke pit.

SSgt Ky Larkins – If he’s not at work, then he’s most likely at the gym trying to get those gains. He also likes to torture new people with his Ghost Pepper hot sauce. Just PCS’d to Kadena.

SSgt Sam Johnson – Recently got out of the Air Force to pursue his career as a taxidermist. He is now rockin’ a Paul Bunyan beard.

SrA Royce Bluford – The only SrA we know who somehow could afford a Range Rover, a Cadillac CTS-V, and 2 motorcycles.

SrA Adrian “Sleepy” Snelson – His time with us was short lived before getting out of the AF. That’s all we have to say about that!

Honorary Mention

Capt Cliff “Eric” Leclerc – He’s currently a Navigator here at McConnell, but he was a boom before. There is talk that he would like to become a Pilot. Better be careful or else you’ll get stuck at McConnell Again!

“NO SCAB IS TOO SMALL”

Greetings and salutations from the First KC-135 associate Reserve unit. We currently have 28 booms and hoping for some expansion soon. The current rumor is that we may become a wing in the near future...for 17 years running now! That has about as much truth as when MX says “the jet is crew ready” or ATOC says “you have no passengers.” We are soon to be hot and heavy in our four month rolling activations. Of course we get to start out in the Deid. But Turkey isn’t so bad. If you are ever in the area, stop in and say hello. The boom shop has a beer machine that is always running and stocked with good, cold beer. And if you’re lucky enough, Kathy has cooked something good for lunch.

MSgt John “Tex” Austin (ART) – Tex is actually lifting anchor and moving to Robbins to be the Enlisted Aircrew Force Development Manager for AFRC. Congrats! Tex (and his kickass salsa) will be missed. Anyone interested in being the new building custodian?

MSgt Warren “Bear” Bearup (ART) – Bear has been running long range and has been getting us some killer trips. He still drives the Big Blue Michigan truck and is in negotiations with AMC on how to get the “M” put on the side of a tanker and paint the fleet Maize and Blue all while avoiding to land in or even overfly that four letter word state. GO BLUE!!

SMSgt Brad Bever (TR) – Recently promoted!! He is still tethered to the 22ARW as their long range scheduler. He says that he loves his job but we all know that he just wants to sit and ogle his wife who works two cubicles over...which has led to their second chitlin. Maybe we should separate their cubicles?!?! Congrats Brad!!

SSgt Brandon Blodgett (TR) – Brandon came to us from our CE folks. He figured it would be easier to join us than to hate us. He’s studying to go to the dark side and actually FLY the airplane. Good luck Brandon.

TSgt Kevin Bouchard (TR) – He never ceases to amaze us. He is still a conductor for BNSF working the trains way up in Casper, WY. Never misses a UTA and still manages to make it back to work on Monday.

SSgt John “Baba” Bui (TR) – We finally got John up and running as a boom. He goes home to Topeka one night and walks in on a burglar in his house, catches the dude and gets him convicted. We’re all scared of John. For some reason, he seems to be good at electronics.

TSgt Jacob Cross (TR) – Recently promoted!! Our resident Texas native, Jacob bristles every time he comes up because he has to drive through God's country (Oklahoma) to get here.

A1C SaraJo Danis (Trougher) – SaraJo is our resident Derby High School grad. And our very own squadron tree hugger.

SMSgt Darren "The Wedge" Demel (ART) – Recently promoted!! AND, he officially signed his life away and become part of the cult known as ART. Congrats on the promotion and congrats on becoming an ART...we think!?!

A1C Sierra "Nevada" Dopfel (Trougher)– Sierra is our star high school athlete. LOVES playing volleyball. We're expecting big things from Sierra.

TSgt Clay "Chemo" Dotson (Trougher) – Kathy threw a rock at him and he actually deployed! He recently finished helping out the 22ARW process the backlog of travel vouchers for over a year. We appreciated Clay helping out over there but it's good to have him back in the squadron flying more often.

MSgt Jay Guldjord (ART) – Jay is another one of our dedicated and highly motivated boom operators, always dependable and ready for any task. So much so that he fooled everyone and got Enlisted Aircrew of the Year for AFRC! Great job Jay. Kathy felt she had no choice at that point but to hire him as an ART. If not at work you can find Jay at the gym working toward his next career as a Chippendale's model.

MSgt Tonya "Dangdo" Halenka (ART) – She gave up being our UDM and is now working mission development again. She's recently recovered from back surgery and rediscovered how much she likes to fly.

MSgt Mark Heithoff (TR) – Comes to us from the NE GUARD and continues to "play boom" on his days off from the fire dept. He's considering retirement this summer.

SMSgt Ray "Glare" Lewis (ART) – Ray is Kathy's "special projects" bitch. Whatever she needs, Ray does. Training flight guy...check. Scheduler...check. Tactics guy...check. TDY...check. But it keeps him flying and he's very happy with that. He's heard mumbling much of the time, "death before a desk or staff job". He's currently doing a second stint in Stan/Eval after a year and a half away from it.

CMSgt Kathy "Sheba" Lowman (ART) – Has been running the "short bus" for a few years now and is promoting folks and giving awards left and right!! Even if we don't deserve it! If you need something she knows exactly where to get it or who to call in Oklahoma for the answer. We think her truck could drive itself from Wichita to OKC. She recently acquired a new roommate in her dog Pumpkin-butt. The Boom shop is always open for a cold beer and Kathy is always there with a smile.

TSgt John McIlvoy (TR) – Recent DG of the NCOA. Way to go John!! He recently got married. Poor SOB. Now he and the family live in Wichita he is a great addition to the 18ARS. He reflects great credit upon himself and the USAF.

MSgt Mark "Mac Daddy" McIntosh (TR) – Recently promoted!! Msgt (he REALLY likes hearing that) Mark is living happily in Dyess, Texas and is our "inside" guy to scheduling A/R's with the B-1's there. We never see the guy (literally...eat a cheeseburger Mark) but he always current and bean complete.

TSgt Chris "Gump" Norris (Trougher) – Chris is happily married and just had his first chitlin. Congrats! When he's not flying or TDY he is playing rugby, wanting to talk about rugby or wanting you to come watch him play rugby. If he could, he'd wear a rugby uniform instead of a flight suit.

TSgt Brian Olson (TR) – He is still working as a fireman/EMT in Missouri. He is our go to guy if we need a fill in for any trip heading east. He is working hard at completing his Bachelors degree so that he can tell them city boys a thing or two.

TSgt Mike Stahl (TR) – Married and recently moved to Hesston, KS. Works as an engineer for AGCO and is gone now more than ever.

SSgt Matt Tener (the Wener) – Matt comes to us from the messed up world of the T-tail. He was a load on the C-5 and in spite of that, we still like the guy. He's been a great addition to the unit and is always good for a laugh. His only problem is that he keeps trying to tie stuff down walking back to the boom pod and then falls asleep as soon as we takeoff. And don't even THINK about getting close to his box nasty. Old habits I guess...

SSgt James "JD" Utash (TR) – JD is our ghost boom. You "think" you see him on the UTA but aren't sure. Recently engaged and soon to be married. Congrats JD.

SMSgt John Wallman (ART) – John recently moved back into Training Flt. We still find him at his old desk talking to Yokom more than his new desk. You can usually find him plowing the fields at his family farm in Syracuse Nebraska.

SSgt Tom Wicks (Trougher) – We know Tom is part of the unit because he's always current but he's TDY so much we're not REALLY sure he belongs to us. Thanks for all the hard work Tom.

TSgt Jim "Jimmy" Yokom (ART) – Jimmy has been working in body scheduling and does a great job keeping people flying and paid. We're not sure they're all legal ways so we don't ask! He tells us the new Duty Boom program will be ready "anytime" now...for 2 years running. If you need a fresh cup of coffee...or a speech in quantum physics...go see Jimmy!

TSgt Matt "Ziggy" Ziegelbein (TR) – Matt is our resident airline pilot. Shows how much wisdom the AF has huh? Can fly for the airlines but not the AF. He just recently had another chitlin with the new wife. That makes 5!!!! Uhm, Matt, they know what causes that now...

On Short Final (Inbound Booms)

SSgt Gabe Miller – Currently at the lovely location of Altus, America trying to pass boom school and not knock up any of the local lovelies.

SSgt William Baker – Yup, this is Bill Baker's boy and in spite of that we still hired the guy. PROMISED in the interview that he wasn't like his dad and then promptly went into a "so there I was..." story. The apple doesn't fall far huh?

Go-Around (Quitters)

TSgt Mike Kissire (TR) – Mike took the test boom job down in San Antonio. He still comes up here to stay current and flies with us. Always has something new to share about the jet that only a test boom would know...or care about!

TSgt Tracy Purdy (Trougher) – Tracy was our resident EPR/awards decorations person. If anyone has received an award in the last year, it's been looked at by Tracy. Also, repainted the boom shop and anyone's house that will offer her beer! She recently followed her husband up to Alaska where she has joined the Guard. Best of luck Tracy.

TSgt Kenny "Gazer" Stewart (ART) – Kenny left us in August as he got a job working for the FAA in Memphis. Be afraid...be very afraid! Also...there was a mini-Kenny last July! Congrats!!

SSgt Jason Wesche (TR) – Jason moved out to DC to take an ART job and be closer to Madelyn. Rumor has it he's their new Tactics boom. Can anyone tell us what a tactics boom does?

Full Stop (Retired Booms)

MSgt Debbie "Deb" Lee – Deb finally retired after years of threatening to. She is still working with "Sherman" Williams paints as a HR rep.

TSgt Morris "MO" Loncon – Mo lives in Kansas City with his wife Kerry. We miss you MO.

TSgt Greg Carron – We had a Greg sighting awhile back and he's got a full beard going. You have to double take to make sure it's actually Greg.

SMSgt Gary "Cookie" Cook – Finally retired and is living in Colorado with the Mrs. He says if you're ever in Colorado Springs to look him up...although he won't be there. He's always on vacation somewhere.

MSgt Eddie Estagin – Eddie retired last fall and is still in Florida working with Northrop Grumman. Rumor has it he's moving back to Wichita.

SMSgt Ken Girty – Our newest retiree as of last May 2011. Ken is living in Enid, Oklahoma working on T-6's at Vance.

MSgt Joe "V Check" Halenka – Tonya's ex retired in Dec 10 and has been working in McPherson at a pharmacy company. When not working, he can be found at the gym walking around but not working out. We've asked around and no one has actually EVER seen him working out...hmmmm.

MSgt Darren "D-HO" Horton – Darren retired in Dec 2010 and never looked back. He moved back to Cali and we think he's already forgotten how to spell Kansas.

SMSgt Dennis Struve – Recently a new dad to twins. Still working as a flight test boom with Boeing.

MSgt Brian King – Still lives in Derby, KS. Both of his kids are in the AF Reserve with his youngest joining the unit as a boom.

MSgt Kathy Pett – Still lives in Wichita, married with two daughters and works for Cessna on the Citation jet as the branch manager.

The Dark Side (Prior Booms)

Maj Travis Clark (ART) – Travis is doing well and is our Safety officer but is soon to be the 18ARS ADO.

Maj Mark Villacis (Trougher) – Mark is the squadron’s go-to guy. If we need a pilot to go TDY or to the desert, go to Mark. We’re pretty sure he has an apartment somewhere in the Died! He’s currently at ACSC causing trouble. Some things never change...

Capt Dave Seeman (Trougher) – Dave left us this last year. He went back to his roots to fly with the WA ANG. But it’s getting him back to Spokane and close to home...so he’s happy as can be. Great job Dave! We miss you man.

Maj Trey Forrest (Traditional) – Married with two kids. We love Trey a lot because he hates Barry Jones as much as the rest of us!!!

Lt Greg Brashier (Trougher) – Our newest Lt. Greg is married with a son. He went to the dark side to show our pilots how it’s really done and is now at UPT in Vance, America. We should see him back here this time next year. Best of luck to you Greg.

“Home of the Tennessee Volunteers”

Bo “Big Bo” Sunderland: Bo is currently serving in his 3rd year Chiefing various things around here. He has an active duty retirement waiting on him yet for some reason he is still here. We are all waiting.....

Wayne Atkins: Yet another guy that has reached an active duty retirement and he is still hanging around. I seriously think there are about 10 promotions coming down if we can get these two to leave.

Ronnie “Crash” Dixon: Crash is starting to assimilate with the “old crusty” crowd. He walks around the building quite often complaining about the way things are and reminiscing about the good old days. Honestly, I think he is just upset about the lack of Business Effort’s to Alaska.

Randy Keener: For those that know Randy, I am sure you are aware that patience is not his strong suit. Even though I thought it impossible, now that he has a retirement date his patience has completely disappeared.

Brian “Trigger” Thomas: We are all enjoying the fruits of Triggers labors over the last few years. He apparently succeeded in spear heading the BOSS project to completion and was rewarded with a seat next to Keener in Stan Evil.

Lennie “Coco” Tipton: Lennie has a toddler running around the house now which arrived just in time for him to leave us. Rumor is his last flight will be later this year as he moves on to greener pastures.

Eric Jones: Still running.....

Bo “Lil Bo” Rogers: In an ever creative-way of finding new ways to get paid, Bo has taken a Technician job in Scheduling. So, in addition to being a Boom Operator, Fireman, Hockey coach, and amateur boat captain – he is also a glutton for punishment.

Brent “Under Shirt” Seymour: Now that Brent is finally on the downhill side of his career, he has decided to finally take on some responsibility. He walks around in ABU’s chastising all of us on a routine basis under the guise of his recently assigned first shirt duties.

JJ Davenport: For a guy that never gets in trouble and always gets his training accomplished, I never see him around here. I am pretty sure he still works here.

Tyler “Tater” Ott: His new position in Training has provided countless opportunities to “go to the Sim” for some “training”. He’s always looking for a tag-a-long partner, so, if you are need of some night contacts on June 30th or December 31st, just let him know.

Shannon “Blue” Price: Rumor is Blue is still a technician working for us in Current Ops however he hasn’t been seen in several months. He has also recently taken up a side job so make sure you ask him about if you see him out there.

Melvin Brandenburg: Melvin has moved on to yet another failed business venture as is evident by his lack of participation out here. If you have a few hours of time to waste, I am sure he can fill you in on it.

Jody McKee: This guy has recently discovered a way to double dip as an AGR. We are not sure of the details but we are all impressed. On that same note, if you bump into one of us on the road make sure to ask us to share our golfing experience with Jody.

Tommy Cole: Our resident snake oil (Advocare) salesman is the new picture of fitness around here. If you have a few minutes and a couple hundred dollars I am sure he can set you up with some products.

John “Abe” Whaley: The hillbilly extraordinaire has lived in the city for a year now. He has started attending a lot of concerts and social gatherings with all the uppity city folk he has always abhorred. It is quite entertaining to sit back and watch this gradual transformation.

Nick Pierce: It is hard to believe Nick has grown up and entered the instructor ranks. It seems like he only got here last year. We should all say a prayer that he sticks to airplane topics and that he doesn’t teach any of the new kids how to act when on the road.

Josh “DB” Lane: Our squadron’s disgruntled boom is entering his prime. The level of his displeasure with things has increased exponentially after pulling two tours in the Deid but at least he got a promotion out of it.....

Anthony Flores: Stories of the epic squadron parties at Casa de Flores have become legend. The man really knows how to throw a party but we are all still waiting on the infamous Flores sisters to show up for one of them.

Chris “Sponge Boom” O’Donnell: Local Fireman, pillar of the community, and Big Bo’s right hand man. On a serious note, he has a tendency to break everything around but the recent birth of his kid has significantly softened him.

Michael Porter: Michael is a recent prior service acquisition. He very quickly got a job at the local airport and hasn’t been seen since. Seriously, if you see him tell him we have some scheduling holes we need filled.

John “Candy Crush” Pollard: For a new guy, the material to describe his short career with us is astounding. Next time you run into him just ask him to put his phone away and I am sure he will be willing to fill you in.

Brian Trent: Rumors of Brian’s mental acuity have proven true over the last few weeks as he finished MCT in record time and quite honestly taught us more than we taught him. His humbling is due any day now.

Amanda Walls: So much material but really very little we can say here. For those that know her you understand what I am saying. She is our newest baby boom and is chomping at the bit to get to the Deid.....

Demoted to Pilot

Lt Col. Liz Matthews: Liz came to us from Forbes a few years ago. She was an engine shop troop until 1993 when she went to Castle. She was commissioned in 1996.

Lt. Col. Jeremy Taylor: Jeremy was a crew chief from 1988 to 1995, went thru Altus as a Boom in 1995 and was commissioned in 1997. He's back to the tanker from flying Reapers in Nashville.

Maj. Hiram Williamson: Hiram was a crew chief from 1991 to 1995, went thru Altus in 1995 and was commissioned in 1999. Hiram is now the Tactics pilot. We look forward to seeing how tactical he can be while flying locals.

Maj. Jason Reed: Jason went thru Altus in 2000, and was commissioned in 2005. He is one of our full time pilots in Stan/Eval.

Maj. Chad Cheatwood: Chad went thru Altus in 1998 and was commissioned in 2002. He left us for Charleston for a few years but very quickly remembered where home was.

2Lt. Andrew Burress: "Burress County" is currently at Altus for PIQ. The local gun shops have reported a stark rise in sales.

Moved On

TSgt Jared Morgan: "Beef" moved to Nashville to become a Sensor Operator. I don't know what that is, but it sounds really important.

Capt. Richard Alan Potts: R.A. is still at the 119th Command and Control Squadron here on base. We occasionally see him at lunch wearing his Spwings around.

TSgt. Dennis Greenwood: Dennis always has a home in Knoxville at the 134th but for now we have loaned him out to the active duty AWACers at Tinker as a flight engineer. No more four hour FTPs for Dennis.

Mark Allen: Still working at the Sim for FAAC. His Bluetooth earpiece is a little unsettling, but he always answers the phone whenever we are calling to see if we can bring a student down with no notice.

Terry "Rev" Mull: Terry has moved out to the Reserves at March AFB, Ca. He'll be back. They always come back.

SMSgt Andrea Inmon – Showed up DNIF and has been ever since, although Inmon has become an expert in all things paperwork as well as an awesome squadron superintendent we can't wait for her to return from baby leave and start flying with us.

TSgt Geoff Schultz – After a billion attempts Schultz's palace chase package was finally accepted, he will be crossing to the dark side as a guard pilot here at Pease this fall. He will be missed but at least we can still bug him on a daily basis that is, of course, if we can ever find him.

TSgt Terrell Frideger - Just showed up from the CRW at McGuire, since he missed the Deid so much we will be sending him there as soon as he accomplishes a quick equal. Frideger has not been around much so we don't have any new dirt on him yet, however I did see him drink something other than Mt Dew for the first time since meeting him over five years ago.

SSgt Antoine Nguyen – Nguyen has recently moved into training flight after becoming the newest instructor here at Pease. It turns out Nguyen has been working so hard that he has not taken leave in several years, earning himself an entire summer off to enjoy some New Hampshire sunshine and unrestricted gym time.

SSgt Kyle VanderWagen – VW is loving the life of a flyer and does not regret his decision to cross train one bit. This newly awarded "John Levitow" winner learned quickly on deployment number one that going DNIF during a preflight wasn't something he would soon live down, so he decided to make "better" decisions on deployment number two.

SSgt Amanda Ampey – Loving Pease and is a welcomed addition to the squadron. We moved her into XP where she has been doing great work ensuring Pease is ready for any readiness inspection. Unfortunately for her there are no windows so she will volunteer for any TDY that gets her outside.

SrA Loraine Ermel – Ermel has officially been restricted to checking her vMPF to three times a day as it has been determined that nothing will change during her normal 30 second refresh habit. Lucky for us the job of her choice was never listed and we get to keep her around for a few more years to teach us about all things Air Force.

Departed

MSgt Mike Webster – After twenty-four short years and a month long hardship deployment to Guam Webster has sadly retired. Although his return date to Japan is undecided due to his denial of retirement and his love for the New England hunting season, his family will be excited to eventually have him back. We wish you the best Mike!

SSgt Shaun Connors – With less than one year here Connors got his palace chase package approved and moved back to Tampa before he had to experience another winter in New Hampshire.

Inbound

(T)Sgt Jon Britton – Not sure exactly when he will be showing up as his dates are always changing but eventually he will be joining us from McConnell as a newly selected Tech Sergeant.

TSgt Heath Tuma - October cannot get here soon enough as Frideger is excitedly awaiting the arrival of his long lost friend here at Pease. Tuma will be joining us after a short vacation at Hickam and we can't wait for his arrival to see why Frideger is so excited!

SrA Keith Prochaska – Another addition to the Pease family from Hickam. We don't know anything about him yet, however Prochaska will be joining us in October just in time for the lovely New England winter, hope you didn't get rid of all your winter clothes while in Hawaii.

SrA Tristan Henthorne – With Henthorne joining us in January from Mildenhall it is beginning to look a lot like a Mildenhall reunion around here, we are excited to welcome another instructor to the Pease family.

PEASE ANGB, NH

133 ARS / 157 ARW

Greetings from New Hampshire, the future home of the first ANG KC-46A unit. The unit has been pretty busy getting ready to receive the first aircraft in December 2017. We have been aggressively working on hiring boom operator candidates to plus up the squadron from 18 to 43 boom operators. This has been a monumental task that is still ongoing. If anyone is looking to join the team at Pease please let the Chief know.

CMSgt Tony Casella: Chief has been busy informing NGB how to get the BOSS program certified with AMC. He is on the NGB CEA Council, and is the groups Resource Advisor. His biggest task for the year has been staying off the DNIF list and advocating for more full-time and traditional boom resources in the ANG squadrons.

SMSgt Glen Starkweather: Starky is our OGV boom and we figured he needs more on his plate so we are going to make him a resource advisor and the groups SAPM. Since most of his kids are out of the house, he and the wife decided to adopt a baby!

SMSgt Mike “Mick” George: Mick found out that he had to give up his cozy office location to actually work in the Readiness office with everyone else! Hopefully, we can get him a new additional duty because his grumpy prior coast guard attitude is starting to show (just kidding Mick!).

SMSgt Jim Doyle: Jimmy chaired the latest hiring board selecting 6 new booms! With the air bridge gone, he’s focusing his time working on homes as a contractor and doing some LTMPA here and there.

MSgt Gary Howard: Gary has had a rough year after a fall in the boom pod and hurting his back. He’s been DNIF for a few months, but is on the slow road to recovery. In spite, he has the ultimate job – Teleworking from home!

MSgt Mike “G-Rod” Girouard: Mike is finally back flying after a LONG med waiver process. He can finally pull his weight and take some trips and deployment lines! He’s still working late and crazy hours with TTF.

MSgt Alan Beaulieu: Al is busy in the training shop. He just bought a classic 1976 Firebird and is trying to grow a mullet to match, but he hasn’t had much luck.

MSgt John Lennon: John is still using a Samsung flip phone from ‘96 and refuses to use anything but paper pubs, but that’s what we love about him! He keeps busy with his full-time civilian job, but is always willing to help out when needed. John keeps his currency flying the Thursday night line.

MSgt Dan Luter: Another Thursday night flyer, Dan is a wealth of knowledge both in the plane and with his full time career of project management in commercial real estate.

TSgt Mark Brophy: Mark is busy in his new role in Training. When he's not busy building the drill weekend schedule, he's sailing New England on his Sailboat with his family.

TSgt Christie Tetley: She has been a glutton for deployment punishment this year, spending 3 months this spring in the sand box and going back for 2 more this winter.

TSgt Eric Diaz: When he isn't flying with us, he's been protecting the lakes in NH as a Fish & Game officer or saving lives as an EMT with the Fire Dept. He's been a rare sight this year, with the airshows being put on hold.

TSgt Jamie "Shrek" Marier: As the newest scheduler, Shrek is learning fast how to FIX the weekly schedule after he published it. He's in the process of buying a new house and is staying busy volunteering in his home town during his free time.

TSgt Daryl McPhee: Daryl is busy on the road as a new AGR and filling shortfalls for most of our TDY's. He has been working in Mission Development for the last 6 months buying some sweet trips. Pay attention to his emails, they're pretty important. He was selected to become an instructor and we plan to ship him off to Altus after the next deployment.

SSgt Samantha Yeanish: Still working on her education in nursing. With her husband back from deployment, Sam is enjoying her summer with family and flying locals.

SSgt Kevin Johnson: Juggling Temp Tech with his at home business of baking artisan breads and pizzas. Think tandem trailer with a homemade brick oven on top. With him making a killing at farmers markets, it may be hard to keep this borderline hipster in the office. He was also recently selected to go to instructor school but unfortunately we could get the same dates with Daryl. Oh well, congrats to both!

SSgt Nate Tarleton: Nate is now happily engaged to his longtime girlfriend! He bought a house in the heart of Portsmouth. It is now the official crash pad for drill weekend. Nate has been jumping from temp tech and LTMPA, getting stuck on the road in horrible places like Italy for days at a time.

SSgt Brett Peterson: Brett was hired as a security officer at the local passport center (he loves carrying a gun) but is currently taking leave from that and is on orders as our LTMPA planner and doesn't want to go back.

SrA Matt "Puppy" Pongrace: Matt has been busy with coaching lax this summer and doing some LTMPA. He's currently on temp tech and keeping all of our pubs and iPads up to date. With his new sporty hatch back, Matt has been living up the "guard bum" life.

SrA Chris "Storm Trooper" Storm: Newly promoted to SrA, Chris is still serving as a NH State Trooper. Chris has been busy between both jobs. He has received every award our state has for police work and is frequently in the paper.

“ENDURING”

MSgt Justin “JB” Brundage: Training & Standardizations - The past twelve months in Australia have been filled with professional and personal milestones. With the implementation of the air refueling boom system on the KC-30A, I was certified as the first Instructor and began training other Squadron Air Refueling Operators. The Squadron is also now operational in the Middle East and building a strong reputation with Coalition partners. We will be looking to boom refuel in an operational environment when I head over in a few short months. The Squadron has participated in several Exercises throughout the year and continues to expand their capability worldwide. On a personal note, my wife and I welcomed our Aussie born daughter Evelyn into the world this year, knocked out my Master’s Degree, and got promoted. All in all it has been a very busy but rewarding year here in Australia. I input suggestions to AFPC for the next Exchange Boom Operator on the KC-30A. If you meet the criteria and are interested, look out for the job advertisement on AMS and the RNLTD should be 10 May 2016. If you have any questions about the Exchange or are ever in the Brisbane area feel free to say G’day! Cheers - justin_brundage@yahoo.com

RAF MILDENHALL, UK

“THE BLOODY BOOM ASSOCIATION”

Yet another banner year for the Bloody Booms – from directly supporting the American Embassy evacuation out of Libya to daily Ukraine ISR crisis support and adding weekly Aeromedical Evacuation and bona fide cargo missions – we did it all without fail. We still try to do as much as we can to support our AMC brothers and sisters with crews “downrange” and lately picking up a lot of TACC missions. We finally pulled out of Moron but still executing the French combat support mission in Africa from home station.... extremely brutal, long sorties with no end in sight. As most of you heard, the EIC was announced and it looks like we will pack up and relocate our squadron to Ramstein in 5 – 7 years when Mildenhall closes, so now is the time to put in for this base if you ever dreamed of living in the UK. Nevertheless, our booms stay motivated to do the mission, take care of the squadron; and most importantly, take care of each other.

Fellow booms: if you're on your way through, don't hesitate to drop by the squadron. There's usually at least one of us here. So here's to wishing you all a good and prosperous year.

USAFE Stan/Eval (Attached)

MSgt Justin Konicke-- We keep him at Ramstein and only let him come visit at certain times. As part of our ploy we also pretend we don't know him to help decrease our chances of him inspecting us...which by the way doesn't work at all. We need a new plan, Pinky!

100 OG

MSgt Jeffrey Sparks – Known as a “pitcher's dream” in Kickball, he is definitely kicking butt as Mr. OGV. Certainly upholds standards with the booms and continues to mentor at every turn (just not in sports).

TSgt David Thoresen – Still the smooth boom operator, “Diggity” Dave Thoresen is the brew master! He loves to invite everyone over to his house to brew beer..... but always finds an excuse to cancel. It's too hot, or it's too cold, or no we can't today it's the vernal equinox. I'm sure the beer is good though.

100 OSS

MSgt Lawrence Nahalea – LAWRENCE is his true name. He is no longer answering to Larry. Living the dream every day in Wing Scheduling Execution. Leader of the “Ex-Altus Cadre Mafia,” he has high hopes of taking over the Chief Boom throne from MSgt Blakely.

TSgt Daniel Maas-- Dan the “Family Man” Maas. Had a great time TDY in Hungary learning how to offload pallets on a Forklift. Nothing else needs be said.

(T)Sgt Steven Mertens – STILL a man of few words! When it comes to playing Skyrim on the Xbox and eating only meat pies from the local grocery store, Steve is your man. He also enjoys long walks into town to admire, but not talk to the ladies. His shyness will not allow him to communicate with the opposite sex no matter the cost.

SSgt Andrew Valence – He has been hiding out in the vault as of late. He swears he actually does something up there but we have yet to see it. If you need some read file review or anything tactics related, he’s your man.

351 ARS

Command Section

SMSgt Cesar Flores – Does Squadron PT by running the mile and half for the booms...all the booms...and therefore ends up running over 30 miles for his "daily jog"(or something like that nobody can keep up to count). He also finally bought a real man's grill...and then subsequently burnt 4 packs of hotdogs on his first morale boom BQ cookout! Good Job, Sir!

MSgt Joseph Blakley – Ensures the mission is firing on all cylinders as the Operations Superintendent and recently named USAFE’s Instructor of the Year. He is the head of the Blakely tribe of 7 kids and is a devout member of a motorcycle gang. He recently broke all ties with the squadron and took the tribe out on vacation to Ireland. Surprisingly he did return the following week on the motorcycle.

Stan/Eval

(M)Sgt Augustine Marshall – He is the head boom in Stan/Eval, at least on paper. He has recently disappeared only to make short guest appearances in his civvies. The beard looks good man! Congrats on making MSgt as well!

TSgt Ryan Clauss-- New EB from Altus set to take over the reigns as NCOIC, Stan/Eval. Comes highly coveted and should do amazing things for the squadron.

SSgt Bobby Cash – Congrats to him and his wife Tabetha on their first child! Is currently on his 8th tour working in Stan/Eval. WAS leading by example by running a half marathon... but hurt his foot in the process and now whines about it every day. Just like Dunsmore, he is surely waiting for the next 4-day weekend to cash in his DNIF ticket.

SrA Donovan Kennedy-- Investigated by OSI and STILL somehow managed to make BTZ! More of a full time college student than a line boom and is working on crossing over to the dark side soon. Keep up the hard work and we may actually salute you one day..... probably not though.

A1C Lyndon Stoudmire -- Showed vast improvement in MCT on learning to use the radios. He proved this by calling command post on frequency and requesting they contact the flight kitchen to correctly send out his Colonel's Chicken sandwich...numerous individuals on comms that day will verify his improved communication as will one surprised Colonel.

A1C Joseph Wukasch-- Newest addition to the Stan/Eval team. A great example of someone who cares about the environment. This environmentally friendly boom proved this at one point by taking "atmospheric" samples to send to AF HQ...Thanks for your air sample consideration, Joe!

Scheduling

SSgt Serjay Ficeli – Upgraded to instructor and WANTS to go to Altus! Lost to his wife in Fantasy football but he's not bitter. Hoping to not have a repeat this year. Has a nice Viking River cruise planned for him and his wife this year - have fun with all the old ladies!

SrA Danielle Repp – AKA Reptar. New IB, promoted to Flight Scheduler and recently moved out of the dorms. She now realizes all her friends are still there. You will find her house full of all the dorm kids every weekend and is now debating the pros and cons of living off base. She may soon return to the safety of the dorms.

SrA Amy Lizauckas – She is the old soul of the squadron. Should have been named Agatha instead of Amy. 351st team mom for all the young booms.

A1C Thriston Noel – “Thirsty” just recently showed up to Mildenhall. He bought himself a nice BMW and was learning the ways of the other side of the road. Unfortunately he learned the hard way that it is frowned upon to run over pedestrians in the UK as well.

Mobility

(M)Sgt Roger Vula – Weekend TDY guru and will dodge any and all check rides by any means necessary. If there's an extension, he will try and find it. We finally forced him to get ready for his final check ride prior to his non-flying assignment at Scott AFB. He has assured us that he will accomplish it on the last day of the last month of his check ride window.

SSgt Michael Eiland – Congrats to him and his wife on their second child. Has more hours playing Destiny than flying hours in the jet. Also known as the Enforcer of the squadron - Airmen run in fear when this big future MTI walks in the room. Ironically, Mike runs from the idea of upgrading to instructor.

SrA Bryan Flory – AKA “The Crusher,” give him an F-16 and an Ice shield and he WILL prove his name. He bought a brand new 2015 Shelby Mustang Cobra GTO (best investment ever!) in hopes of getting the ladies. Recently followed by two ladies only to find out they wanted a picture of his taillights..... Money well spent..... Better luck next time!

A1C Marcello Navarrette – The silent assassin of the squadron – does his job with pride but just pretends he doesn't care. Holds the standing record for how many consecutive times he asked the commander if “you know what I mean?” But it's no big deal “or whatever” to this smooth operator.

Training

TSgt Mathew Ohle – Just promoted to TSgt! Has been on-station now for over two years. His wife Icy and him make up most of the squadron's morale. He lost about thirty pounds on his last deployment, and gained it all back within 2 months. Better luck next time Mat!

SSgt Catherine Norcom – Relative new addition to DOT. Didn't have a big enough house for herself and her electric car so she then moved to a 5-bedroom place in the middle of nowhere to facilitate this. She is the only boom who will pick up and deliver for a “double AA” pack of batteries instead of gas money.

SrA Jacob Dunsmore – Awesome boom and quickly mastering the ropes in DOT. Decided he was over flying every weekend so he had his eyes laser etched to ensure he gets every weekend pass possible. See you in Amsterdam buddy.

A1C Alex Esquibel – The “teacher's pet” of the squadron, was hired by DOT two days after showing up.

A-Flight

SSgt Christopher Ramey – Will give you a hug or a shoulder massage if he sees you. Supervisor of Airmen’s “Super flight.” Talks about only wanting to fly and not be at work but complains when he has to fly all the time.... future guard bum in the making.

SrA Tristan Henthorne – The only boom who has been on-station longer than any of us, and also less than all of us. He has PCS'd to being TDY. Confusing but it seems to work. When he is here we try to put as much as possible on his plate just to make him love being here, which for some reason doesn't work... Got an assignment to Pease and will move in December.

SrA Devaughn Granger – Lots to say but we can't. In his attempt to see the world he has gotten an assignment back to his hometown of McConnell AFB. Yippee!!

A1C Tyler Romeis – Completely replaced Chief Wallace as the most long winded person in the UK. Likes to show off his $1,000 movie quality Indiana Jones bull whip. Unfortunately, all the other parents and children in the park do not find it entertaining.

A1C Warren Handshumaker – Best athlete amongst the booms despite his amazing beer belly, he is constantly buying parts for his BMW and Facebook messaging all the booms for validation. His car is faster than yours, just ask him. Staying out of trouble lately, we will see how long that lasts. Hopefully his assignment to Fairchild will help as well.

A1C Kendall Bryant – Soft spoken and shy when you first meet him. Has answered his door in his boxers for room inspections many times with a platter of Burger King spread out on his floor. “Sir I am ready for my inspection Sir!” It took him a while to get the hang of those pesky radios when refueling fighters, but he is now sporting his fancy Friday MCT patch..... EVERYDAY!

MCT

A1C Kaleb Bourque – New guy from Altus. Made an awesome first impression in the squadron with what looked like a mullet and a beard.... IN uniform!

Amn Avemaoe Liaiga – New boom in the squadron. No one has yet figured out how to say her name properly. Still working the MCT grind. Hopefully she will be wearing the chicken bomber Friday patch soon.

Departed

CMSgt Paul Wallace – 24+ year boom operator and Awesome Chief.... Truly an example to all Airmen. Just PCS'd to a non-flying assignment to Minot and likely saw his last flight in the -135 a couple months ago. His leadership, wisdom, and care will be missed by all. Suddenly, every boom has an extra hour to work instead of engaging in one of Chief's famous 1-hour “mentoring” sessions. All kidding aside, Chief will always be known as a phenomenal instructor and even better person who was always willing to give others the most important thing in life – his time.....

SSgt Gabriel King – Decided he would rather be a Mountain Man/Park Ranger instead of a Boom Operator. We are all jealous of your pictures on top of the mountains with full beard flowing. Keep living the dream.

SrA Kayla Whorely – She loved being a boom, but decided living on the beach in Rota would make for better quality of life. Good choice!

SrA Kyle Cleis – Was tired of the terrible internet here in England. He thought it would be better at Fairchild. PCS'd so he would be able to crush it on WOW back on the fast internet in the USA.

Inbounds

RAMSTEIN AIR BASE, GERMANY

HQ USAFE-AFAFRICA /A3TV

STAN/EVAL

MSgt Justin D. Konicke: “Guten Tag” from Germany! It’s a lonely place as the only boom in HQ USAFE. Fortunately, I can drown my sorrows with quality beer and raise my self-esteem by picking on fellow Stan/Eval CEAs! Although staff work keeps me fairly busy, the great folks at RAF Mildenhall allow me get a few contacts and so I can maintain some semblance of proficiency (and sanity). For those not familiar with USAFE A3TV, we are quite a small office, and handle all the typical HQ Stan/Eval functions, just with less manpower. The past year has been a steep learning curve, but has resulted in ample opportunities to gain insight into how other USAFE units do business. Spreading best practices among various units is something that I believe is beneficial and that I hope to impact during my tenure. Booms, keep up the great work, and if you ever drop into Ramstein don’t be a stranger!

Separated, but in the area

James “the baby boomer” Coomer: Coomer separated many years ago from active duty as a KC-10 boom, and after nearly 12 years we crossed paths again in the commissary parking lot at Ramstein. Apparently he is working at the 603rd AOC and has unleashed his beard in civilian glory. Coincidentally, Coomer is living in the same village as I, so a reunion is in order. I’ll report back in the next Boom Signal to give a status update.

HOME OF SLARCO

Greetings from beautiful Salt Lake City and the men and woman (yes, there is only one) of SLARCO! I've been given the distinct honor of writing the 2015 version of our SLARCO Boom Signal as I have been non-retained and will be leaving 31 Dec 2015. At least that's what I've led the O's in charge around here to believe. They tell me it's so someone else can get promoted but by my recollection I'm the only person in this "chicken %#! outfit" to ever take off a stripe! I plan to pop up somewhere just like the gopher in "Caddyshack" in the near future. If I were a betting person I'd put my money on Busch Stadium as the location for the next Joe Mace sighting.

Things have changed considerably here in the shadows of the Wasatch Mountains since I wrote SLARCO's first boom signal back in 1992. Lots of folks have come and gone in that time and the mission has completely changed. Through it all though, today we find our section still staffed with some of the best boom operators in the world! (With a couple of exceptions that may or may not remain nameless).

Since last year's Signal one of the biggest things that has happened is, like many of you, we received our BOSS. The delivery was just in time for our most recent retiree, Jarvis Brown, to roll into the contractor position and remain employed. Not sure how he was hired. It must have been his close ties to the Wing and Ops Group commanders.

CMSgt Daniel B. (Ben) Williams – Ben has his hands full trying to keep SLARCO headed in the right direction. With the direction the rest of the Wing is headed though we think he's doing a pretty good job. According to some he has me to thank.

SMSgt James L. (Jimmy Z) Zaelit – Jimmy was quoted recently, while sleeping in an airplane at Doha, International; "I'm too OLD for this shit!" He has been a SLARCO member longer than any of the current booms here so when he leaves, much of the SLARCO tradition will go with him.

SMSgt Joseph R. (Papa Joe) Mace – Arguably the best boom operator SLARCO has ever seen or likely to ever see. The first of the “Fab Four” to retire. Excited to once again get my Chief stripe back in retirement.

SMSgt Brian D. (Bugs) Lawson – Brian is also getting the non-retention shaft this year after almost 30 years of USMC and USAF service to the nation. SFMF!!

MSgt Timothy L. (Timmy) Molder – Tim is still in current ops and hopes to stay there until he retires in 10 years. He also has the fortunate distinction of being married to my BFF. Every four years he pulls his trailer out of mothballs and we all go camping. Good luck Tim with your five, or is it four now, year plan.

MSgt Brian K. (Grumpy) Jensen – Brian is the boom in our section that seems to get all the additional duties that everyone else refuses to do. He does them all with a cheery smile and hello to everyone though. Hence the nickname.

MSgt Kurt A. Armstrong – Kurt has so many toys that he had to buy a diesel tractor to tow them all! His motto is; “If it floats, flies, or, buy it”.

MSgt Jason D. Blood – J-Blo is finally back on flying status after a long DNIF from an apparent heart attack. We are all sure that the condition was due to the skill, or lack thereof, of the pilots he was flying with at Altus CFIC.

MSgt Charles D. (Dave) Hudson – Dave currently lives in the Netherlands and is the ANG Boom rep at Geilenkirchen. He doesn’t get much sleep during the summer months as he gets up at 2 AM to watch the Orioles play. Who does that?!

MSgt Derek R. (D-Rock) Larson – D Rock is just a joy to be around! He has a sunny disposition while at work and loves to extol the virtues of our leadership. He is especially vocal as to the virtues of the current administration.

TSgt Santiago (J) Avila – Depending on which J you talk to (he has severely split personalities) he’s an OK guy. Most of us agree however that “Training J” is a real A-hole!! Hoping “Scheduling J” will be an improvement.

TSgt Vincent M. (Vinnie) Littlejohn – Vince is our favorite, perhaps only, hippie. He also has the distinction of owning what some (training J) say is the world’s dumbest dog.

TSgt George A. (Tony) Kalakis – 2015 has been a very eventful year for our Tony George. He married his better half and I’m still not sure what she sees in him! The blessed event will be known for all time in the Utah ANG as “Wedding-gate”.

SSgt Sean G. (Glumshanks) Price – Sean works in scheduling as our long range guy so all we see now are C-17s and the occasional C-130. F/U Sean, you AMCART lover!

SSgt Patricia (Trish) Rich – “Girl Boom” is the delicate flower stuck in the midst of the thorn patch known as SLARCO. We’ve tried to convince her that making fun of each other is how we bond.

SSgt William (Bill) Nielson – Bill is responsible for our newly remodeled boom operator lounge. We’re hoping that his flying skills will someday match his abilities as a handyman!

SSgt Brad Harris – Brad continues to enjoy flying and tripping. He reminds me of a MUCH younger version of myself. He thrives in spite of his brother in law the SQ/CC.

SrA Brandon M. Molder – Brandon is one of our trip whores, I mean guard bums, here at SLARCO. He loves being a boom operator and is a great addition to the team.

SrA Chris (B-2) Bermensolo – Chris has applied for dual citizenship in Qatar since he has been spending so much time there. In fact, his favorite basketball shoes are from there.

SrA Cody Harper – Cody is one of our new baby booms and is enjoying the job. He can be found hanging around XP saying; “Joe, please tell me another story about the good old days”.

A1C Bryan Hall – The newest of our baby booms, Bryan is fitting in nicely to the section. Especially when he buys lunch!

HQ AIR MOBILITY COMMAND
BOOM OPERATOR CFM

Booms,

Greetings from Scott AFB! Scott is the home of Air Mobility Command, USTRANSCOM, 18th AF, TACC, the 126th ARW and the 906th ARS. Boom Operators are assigned to all entities located on Scott AFB, as well as 50 retired Boom Operators reside in the local area. Over 700 Boom Operators are currently serving on Active Duty, and nearly as many Total Force (Guard and Reserve) Boom Operators currently serve. During this busy year, almost half the daily combat refueling sorties were flown by Guard and Reserve crews; all Tanker units are extremely busy. We are currently 100% manned, but under manned in the NCO and SNCO ranks, which made it a great year for promotion. NCO and SNCO promotions have been well above Air Force averages, this may change within 2 years due to several manning initiatives, so this is the time to study and get promoted.

This past July Scott AFB hosted the Boom Symposium for the second year, Booms as far as RAF Mildenhall, UK attended the Symposium. Travis AFB won the Al Evans Trophy for the second consecutive year. Last year the 6th ARS from Travis won the trophy, but this year the award went to the 9th ARS at Travis, making the 9th ARS the best Air Refueling Section in the Air Force. The Symposium will be held at Altus next year, please come out and show your support. 15 Boom Operators are now Type 1 trained to facilitate the incoming KC-46, this program is well on its way.

Air Refueling is the backbone to the United States air supremacy against every enemy, without each and every one of you the United States military mission would not be superior. I want to thank you and your families for your sacrifices and service; God bless each and every one of you!

HQ AMC/A3C

EXPEDITIONARY OPERATIONS DIVISION

Greg Conrad (SMSgt Ret/GS-13): AMC/A3CC - Theater C2 Branch Chief; living the dream at HQ AMC and still heavily involved in Boy Scouts. Oldest son Bryan just graduated high school, youngest son Justin is big time into lacrosse, daughter Kristen is still an elite dancer, and wife Angie is a dance mom.

Randy Seip (MSgt Ret/GS-12): AMC/A3CP - Planning, Scheduling & Secure Communications Branch. Randy enjoys riding his motor bike across the Flats of Illinois. He and Marla just finished up a Very Enjoyable Camping trip to South Dakota. Randy will be joining the group again at The Fall Boom Campout!

Anthony Nicholson (MSgt Ret/GS-12): AMC/A3CG - Global C2 Operations Branch. Doing well, getting 120 miles ++ a month on the running trail, also lately just added some bike rides back in to The Training Plan with Fran! Getting another 120 a month on the bike. Just picked up a New 2015 (Orange) RAM 1500, Love those Dodge RAMS. Boys are doing great, Justin is 19 and Wyatt 17. He still follows The Green Bay Packers and gets up North to Wisconsin when he can. Stop in and say HI if you get to the Scott AFB area or join us at The Spring or Fall Boom Campout.

Fran Nicholson (TSgt Ret/GS-12): FMS Line Manager. Fran is doing Great, she just bought a Specialized Road Bike and is starting to do some Biathlons and Triathlons. Keeping up with Justin and Wyatt's schedule is keeping Fran busy as well. Justin still works at Schnucks Grocery In Produce and will be starting year 2 at SIUE Edwardsville working on his Associates degree in Criminal Justice. Wyatt works at Dierbergs Market as a Bag/Cart person, he will be starting his Senior Year in High School and is thinking about joining The Air Force!

Rick Spejewski (MSgt Ret): He did join the Springfield Guard unit and has moved on to work another contractor job.

“PERFECTION DRIVEN”

Greetings from the basement! A3N Booms continue to dream of “Peace, the Old Fashioned Way” and “Peace is our Profession” as we look at nuclear operations and policy. General LeMay would be pleased...

MSgt Tim Blackburn timothy.blackburn.1@us.af.mil

MSgt soon to be Mr. Timothy Blackburn, has been an “Army of one” when it comes to anything TF-294 or computer related issues within A3N. Tim seems to always be in a great mood when at work and lifts the spirits of all the policy guys on a regular basis. Tim will retire next summer with 25 years of service and is hoping to land a cushy civilian GS job somewhere here at Scott AFB. Anybody would be lucky to have this guy!

MSgt Rob “Tweaker” Hansen robert.hansen.5@us.af.mil

Tweaker continues to do what he does best...Tweak! When the mad scientist is not talking with units on the mission he can be found reading various AFI's that most of us have not heard of in his ultimate attempt to take over the Nuclear Mission, run Rob Hansen style. Rob is possibly the smartest guy in the AF when it comes to this mission set and although he does not gloat, deep down inside he knows he's the best! Tweaker, in his off time likes anything guns and will be entered into the exclusive “I own 100 guns club” very shortly. This part-time carpenter takes out all of his aggression and stress on his Missouri house which is currently a nice weekend getaway.....FROM the Family!

This part-time Boom Operator, Full Time Country Boy is constantly trying to scam out of work in order to go hunting, fishing, or just plain skip out on office chores. Tony took over as President of the Gateway Boom Operators Association and now knows why SMSgt Grant was so eager to get rid of it! Since experiencing all the stress involved with putting on a Symposium, Shooter is planning on taking time off in pursuit of scouting deer (whatever the heck that is)? Anyway, Tony always talks about missing the atmosphere of a flying squadron and I gotta say, I feel the same way!

Departed the fix for greener grasses:

MSgt Warren “Dotcom” Weldon warren.weldon@us.af.mil

Dotcom left us for greener pastures and finally gets to fly again after serving a 3 year prison sentence, also known as AMC. This international man of mystery was selected to lead the 906 ARS across the ramp. This will allow him more opportunity to serve in the leadership capacity that he is capable of, all while molding young impressionable Airmen. We are happy/jealous of this man because he will no longer be the A3N whipping boy as we suffer and await our future. Good luck!

In the Area:

MSgt (retired) Lance Onenga

Lance “Boom 1” officially retired last year and lives in the local area. Has grown a very respectable goatee (looks like the guy on “Gold Rush: Alaska”) and helped with the 170-mile motorcycle ride for the 36th Annual Boom Symposium.

“Tanker Training”

As the senior enlisted member in AMC/A3TK, Jason has had his hands full trying to be top cover for the rest of us and working the KC-46. He is still doing his best to understand an airplane that can actually carry cargo with famous quotes like “It’s a tanker not a cargo hauler” and “Just because my e-mail says that, doesn’t mean I said that”. Jason continues to be the kinder/softer of the HQ Boom’s, always needing a hug. Just don’t call him “Hall”.

Justin has been doing a great job managing the KC-135 fleet until we can get a dedicated 135 pilot to do their portion. When we asked him how he was doing after his first complete year, he had two phrases “He is Livin La Vida Loca” and “[REDACTED]”

Jen is the branch's voice of reason, we have lost track of the number times she has had to keep Poteet out of trouble. She too is about to lose her pilot and will take on that additional responsibility. Jen is also the key to our customer service department. She deeply enjoys every single call/message and we encourage all of you to call her more, even if you just want to chat.

Despite being retired Jim is still a crew dog at heart. After all the kids grew up and left, he got an apartment in downtown Saint Louis to be within walking distance of the ball games and everything else downtown has to offer.

MSgt Rafael Cruz Oyola: If Cruz were an author, his first book would be titled, “Boom Pod—The Silent Killer.” “Boom Back” struck Cruz like a Boom Signal IG complaint, swift and painful. Fortunately Cruz is recovering nicely and he should be Code 1 soon. In the meantime Capstone Visits, emails, and staff work provide Cruz with the happiest of thoughts.

KC-10

MSgt Kevin Hill: Kevin is holding down the “Big Sexy” side of the house while Trussell plays Pegasus. Experienced a “Texas Flood” in his house when he returned from leave recently, SWAT team was called in for cleanup.

KC-46/KC-135

MSgt Jamie “JL” Smith: JL continues to be the Stan/Eval pioneer for the KC-46. During one of their vacations...I mean TDYs...to Seattle, they discussed a new name for the KC-46. While he was disappointed his submission, “Magical Unicorn” was not accepted, he was elated to lose to “Pegasus”.

Mr. Garrett, Douglas G Jr "Doug": douglas.garrett@us.af.mil 10001010111010101001 = Head Explosion. When he is not engaged in "Evil Doug Mode" you may find his quad copter hovering over your homes... Hide yo kids, hide yo wife! Now that Jim's back, Doug's workload should drop but his in office computer repairs will probably increase.

Mr. Hudnut, Larry W: larry.hudnut@us.af.mil Larry "The Strat Guy" is the king of the Strat Barrel. He also just gained a new grand baby, which proves the AWACS radar dome doesn't kill everything. Future boomer... Maybe! Now Larry's just an old SAC guy trying to make a living in a MAC world.

Mr. Norris, James J "Jim": james.norris@us.af.mil When he is not keeping everything on his desk fresh with aluminum foil, you may find Jim sailing the high seas of Carlyle Lake in his boat. Even though he was thought to be the toughest, meanest barrel master around, he kicked it up a notch by also fighting a battle against cancer. Chuck Norris better watch out, he has competition here. Jim's battled back and is on the job again.

Ms. Wallace, Tina M: tina.wallace.ctr@us.af.mil Tina is called "the quiet one". Attempts have been made to produce a megaphone capable of projecting her voice, but to no avail. SMSgt Palmisano, Douglas M: douglas.palmisano@us.af.mil What can be said about Doug that hasn't already been said about Sasquatch? He's a pillar of a man that has 5 o'clock shadow by 9 am. MSgt Galloway, Roy T: roy.galloway.1@us.af.mil Picture a man in a hat wearing a horizontal striped shirt. Some may think of Freddy Krueger, but in Roy's case we think of Where's Waldo. TSgt Noriega, Luis C: luis.noriega@us.af.mil KC-10 Boomer from Travis AFB. For a code 50 assignment, Luis has managed to use his charisma to get catered around the world. TSgt Taydus, Justin L: justin.taydus@us.af.mil Justin comes to the barrel from the lovely, and friendly, Garden State. Mission Support Directorate (XON)

Tony and I spend a lot of time trying to reconcile tanker mission data with emphasis on the air refueling event which is input by the tanker units around the world. It's an interesting job, and we are happy to be able to stay in touch with the air refueling world through our contacts at TACC and occasionally at the Wings. If you have any questions about inputting data into the AMC Fuel Tracker, and the newly incorporated FARM (replaced AM CART), feel free to give us a call at DSN779-3865.

Mr. Taylor, Joseph A: joseph.taylor.7.ctr@us.af.mil Tony has been assigned at March, Wurtsmith, Barksdale, McGuire, Scott and McConnell in both KC10 and KC135. He works in TACC/XON for Unisys as a Tanker Data Analyst and can be heard muttering "You've got to be @#4! me" throughout the day.

Mr. Winter, Oliver M: oliver.winter.ctr@us.af.mil Lee served at Minot, Riyadh (Saudi Air Force Trainer), Loring, McGuire, Robins, Fairchild and Scott. Now working for Unisys as a Tanker Data Analyst with Tony.

Current Operations Directorate (XOO)

Mr. Anderson, Scott D: scott.anderson.8@us.af.mil Scott has been in the SAAM Division for 17 years and has 13 more to go so he says. Still plans missions with high level cargo (sometimes the cargo are VIP passengers) that can be very unforgiving if the plan doesn't go perfectly. He likes to torture himself by spending his spare time training for half marathons and triathlons. His reason he says is to eat good food and drink good beer. Big hockey fan hoping the St. Louis Blues will play the Philadelphia Flyers in the Stanley Cup Finals so he can, hopefully, see one of his favorite teams skate with the cup in person.

Mr. Glast, Erskin D: erskin.glast@us.af.mil Erskin's been acting as the Director of New Requirements supporting the POTUS, SECDEF, and Bomber moves, but don't let this professional title fool you. SMSgt Ward, James M: james.ward.6@us.af.mil Jamie is doing his best to scam the government out of as much money as possible doing both Contingency Airlift Plans as a Civilian and Tanker Plans as a Reservist. It must be paying off because he's able to go to every single home Cardinals game. Recently his shop upgraded to a 39" HDTV, but he still insists on watching Rockford Files and Bonanza reruns in standard definition.

MSgt Brady, Jayson R: jayson.brady@us.af.mil As a former CRW guy, it seems fitting for Shady Brady to be excelling at his current position as a Mission Support Coordinator. Between Facebook updates and the occasional phone call, Brady spends his time looking as busy as he possibly can. His spirit is up though as he looks forward to another disappointing season of '49ers football.

TSgt Brooks, John C: john.brooks.9@us.af.mil Brooks is doing his best to maintain whatever personal life he can while working World Wide Exercises and completing an "accelerated" version of Course 14. However, his arrival to the St. Louis area has enlightened him to whole new world of BBQ, which he indulges as often as he can. It's easy to spot him with the giant "advertisement of the month" on his car.

TSgt Jefferson, Jerome E: jerome.jefferson@us.af.mil JJ decided the grass was greener here at Scott, so he left his hardship tour at Hickam for paradise. He was a very quick learner once he got here though; if there is something wrong, the floor can handle it. Right now he's standing on pins and needles waiting for his beloved Carolina Panthers to start another unfruitful football season.

TSgt(S) Bush, Gregory C: gregory.bush.1@us.af.mil Greg has been following JJ around for most of his career. Perhaps this time following JJ was a poor choice. However the Illinois native is enjoying being back at home. He's been setting up deer stands and checking out trail cams to be prepared for this year's rut. His form of stress relief from planning World Wide Exercises is performed through furniture remodeling. Perhaps someday he'll finally finish those shelves.

SSgt Pingleton, David M: david.pingleton@us.af.mil Dave finds himself lost as a boomer in the airlift world. To stay up-to-date to boomer gossip, you'll often find him wandering in "The Tanker Barrel". His aspiration is to become a pilot, which he is working rigorously to achieve before he leaves his TACC tour. Becoming a new father, getting assigned to Scott AFB has been a dream come true for this die-hard Cardinals fanatic.

HOME OF THE MID AMERICA MILITIA

The revolving door into the 108th boom world is slowing down. We have replaced nearly half of our traditional boom force with FNG's! That's worked out great for all of the old heads though...just in time for more of the Dirty Deid.

SrA Richard "Poo Hands" Bradford – Rich is finally acclimating to the guard life after too many trips to the base pharmacy. He hasn't gotten in any trouble since losing that Active Duty benefit. He's attempting a semester at McKendree College but "School is hard man!"

SSgt John Carrico – FNG #3. He just transferred to us from the Reserves across the ramp. Heading to Altus in March.

TSgt Jaime "Jeff" Castillo-Liceaga – Castillo finally left the Enterprise corporate office for Express Scripts. We know he likes it there because he refuses to get off the government tit.

MSgt Paul "Fusebox" Fusek – "Look everybody! I have a girlfriend!" He will tie the knot someday, right after he deactivates those 12 Match.com accounts. Look for Fusek stumbling on Ambien at step time.

CMSgt Sam Gerros – We thought he was retiring. We thought wrong. Chief is trying to set a record for time in service. All SMSgts standby...

TSgt Ashley Hogman – FNG #1 just got sent off to SERE/Water Survival. According to her, she will not need the LPU's.

SSgt Deker "Bro" Lankford – Bro, Deker applied to DirectTV to be Meathead Rob Lowe, Bro, but got a Technician job instead Bro. "Dude, Man and Bro" are the only words he knows.

SMSgt Arie "Busta" Latimer – Slipped on a large cheetah print thong, fell down the stairs, and literally broke his neck. All that just to go on convalescent leave during our AMC IG inspection. Who knew that convalescent leave includes Disney World, Six Flags, Busch Stadium, New Orleans and skydiving? Facebook friend him for more medical leave tips and tricks.

TSgt Jameson “Staphy” Liggett – Author of this year’s boom signal. It’s a miracle he finished it. Good thing he didn’t have to submit it through DTS.

TSgt Kate Lowry – We aren’t sure if she is in our unit or at the WANG. We hope she’s theirs now. She is currently working at Boeing and riding on the KC-46 without a boom. A perfect job for her. Good Luck Kate!

SSgt Brandon “Who?” Merano – “This just in!” You can find our reporter partying with/hitting on...cough... I mean interviewing dudes in the Grove.

MSgt Nate “Big Spoon” Moore – Opened a halfway house for wayward booms the 906th keeps sending our way. Set a record for time off this past year. Somehow has the most use/lose in the Wing.

TSgt Chistopher “Huckleberry” Nikonovich – Commutes nearly 3 hours each day. His commute is longer than his work day. He is heartbroken that he lost his only friend, Almquist (906th). Did he tell you he’s a firefighter? If not, you probably just heard an obscure 80’s movie reference instead (just like Almquist). Big Gulps?

SrA Kevin O’Reilly – FNG #2 just left for BBOC. He has more questions than you could ever answer.

SMSgt John “Nancy Kerrigan” Reed – Reeder finally got Senior and is already on the hunt for Chief. Those silver locks already make him a prime candidate. Still the smartest Technician we know...married into the AGR benefits package.

SrA Nate “Little Spoon” Smart – Nate lets everyone know he dates a Hooters waitress. He resides in our other Nate’s basement. LtCol Moore (Nate Moore’s wife) has a thing for Nates.

SMSgt Keith “Mt Wagsuvius” Wagner – Happier than ever. We hear Wags before we see him. Passes his time mentoring our young airmen. Retirement can’t come soon enough... at least that’s what he tells us.

A1C Ethan “Creeper” Wheeler – Ethan is smelling hair around the world. He loved to be duty driver to “meet” new people.” If you are missing recently deployed members check his crawlspace. He is our newest AGR. Strange, considering he was the least qualified of all the applicants. Good thing his dad’s a chief.

TSgt Jason ”Dude” Wheeler – Jason recently made a pact with Satan and started an internship at Monsanto. Even after missing three flights he still isn’t sure when he is supposed to come to work.

MSgt Chris Zahner – We are told he’s still in the squadron. The only proof however, is the manning document.

SCOTT AFB, IL

906 ARS

HOME OF THE DAK-RATS

Greetings from the Mighty 906th! Booms continue to lead the way as times get tough. As part of the 126 ARW Illinois ANG TFI unit, we have stayed gainfully employed. We are continuing to fill deployment lines along with our Guard brethren and getting our new booms the experience they need to develop. It was also an honor to help put on the 36th Annual Boom Operator Symposium here at Scott AFB.

MSgt Mark “Mac” McCaughtry mark.c.mccaughtry.mil@mail.mil

Mac is still around for now, but not for long; he has dropped retirement paperwork and is envisioning a day when he is wearing civvies with a goatee and pony tail. Until then, Mac has been working hard keeping the booms trained and ready as Operations Superintendent.

MSgt Warren “Dotcom” Weldon warren.weldon@us.af.mil

Arrived in July from HQ AMC, Dotcom has learned that things move at a different pace than over on the other side of the runway. Dotcom will be taking over as Ops Superintendent and is eager to get back in the jet. He talks a lot, I assume they didn't let him say much over at HQ and now he is trying to make up for lost time!

Jarrett is another short-timer separating in December. Just because he is on short-time, he is still working hard with training flight duties. He is looking to get a job in the Predator world after he leaves the Active Duty.

SSgt Tyler “Senior” Williams

“Senior” is our in-house Tactics guru, but he keeps himself busy with instructor duties with the influx of new booms to the 906th. A level-headed individual we expect great things from.

SrA Joseph Brendel joseph.l.brendel.mil@mail.mil

Joe is our representation in Scheduling and Current Ops. He is a hard charger and is destined to get a slot to IB upgrade when we finally get him out of the desert.

A1C Tyler “Junior” Williams tyler.i.williams6.mil@mail.mil

“Junior” is our guy about town. Fresh back from the desert, Tyler has been keeping up on his knowledge by training up the copilots on “how things are done.” He has shown good knowledge and a good attitude. No worries to Junior, we will keep him gainfully employed for the future.

A1C Lucas “nickname to be determined” Tysol

Lucas is our newest boom and is out on his first (and most likely not his last) desert tour. He has a great attitude and we look forward to great things from him in the future.

In the Area:

TSgt O’Thello Harris othello.r.harris.mil@mail.mil

Othello has been called up to the “big leagues” and had joined AMC A3T. Good luck and don’t be afraid to visit!

Out of the area:

Jamie has volunteered for a “hardship tour” by joining the Contingency Response Group at Anderson AFB, Guam. Best wishes to Jamie and his family as they sit on the beach under a palm tree.

18 AF

MSgt Christopher “Dim” Witt

MSgt Chris Witt--you probably know him as the aptly named, “Dim”--remains a “Jack of All Trades, Master of None.” Having been at 18AF since the fall of 2011 (having forgotten what the business end of an airplane looks like) now enjoys not just one job, but many. For example serving as 18AF/A5’s TRANSCOM air component planner for USCENTCOM plans (job one?), ol’ Thumper spends as much time ‘thumping data’ into JOPES/DCAPES for the lead USTC team as anything else. Never mind that he is not JOPES-coded for such, for neither is there any logic in the half days (or better) he spends in the AF’s automated orders system managing man-days for the NAF’s guard/reserve staff. Yes, the good ol’ days of beating up the pattern at McConnell are long behind Dim, and sorely missed. At least he can take solace in his lasting lifework motto and legacy, “You’ve done nothing ‘til you’ve built a slide.” Dim will retire from the AF after 23 years in March 2016, Boom stowed and latched, leaving postion!!

ATLAS AIR

Bricker Martin: Still working for Atlas Air as their Director, Defense and Government Programs. Have enjoyed the past 10 years of retirement and look forward to many more. Rode across Iowa in 2014 with some fellow Booms along with several thousand other cyclists.

SCOTT AFB, IL

KC-135 ATS BOOM INSTRUCTOR

Mr. Todd Salzman – Todd.Salzman@kc135ats.net Salute, from the corn fields of Illinois! Home to the Cardinals, the Rams, and the Blues. Lost my amigo Jeff Whited, but as luck would have it, he got picked back up by CAE for the tanker program in Australia! Throughput had slowed a bit but on the up side it's starting to pick back up and on the down side more additional duties are coming my way. Can't wait for DMO to come on line... Cheers!

A big "Hey Y'all" from the booms here at the 77th, "Home of the Totin' Tigers". When Y'all come over to accomplish your BOWST profiles Stop up & say Hi. If you have enough time we'll take you out for some Carolina BBQ & sweeeeet tea! This year our deployments have been continuous 1-2 crews at the beach, actually it's dirt. We 'shall see what next year brings. We continue to fly with mixed crews with our sister Squadron the 911th & on occasion we have crewmembers on each other's deployments. Active duty still finds a lot of reasons to have time off, although they typically deploy more. We are still doubling our crews & hiring people & some ART's (Air Reserve Technicians), So if you're thinking about leaving active duty or want to come to a Real Reserve unit, give us a call. We've got some great schools like NC State, UNC, Wake Forrest, East Carolina, Campbell University, Duke, and Meredith all within an hour and a half of the unit, this is a great way to go to school and still be a Boom Operator.

Carolina Blue Skies,
SMSgt Barry Bradley
916 OGV Superintendent

TSgt Sena "The Boom Princes" Alfaro - Apr 09 - Present

SrA Sonya Alexander – Boomer Apr 15 - Present

He's one of our newest Baby Boom's, she's from right here, Home grown North Carolinian. She is fresh out of Altus & keeping all the instructors in the books with lots of questions. She is currently residing in the "Shady J Boom Park" (base Fam-Camp), with several other newly hired Booms, The battle over the nicest RV is under way.

SrA Kijuan Amey - Apr 15 - Present

He's one of our newest acquisitions from the 911th down the hall. He's from Durham NC, so he might stick around a while, currently going to school.

TSgt Jeremy "Tin Man" Bennett- Apr 07 - Present

His newest project at Cherry Point Depot is making F-35's able to fly, that's challenging. He FINALLY made SSgt after 50 years, BUT wait he has made TSgt in record time! He comes up about once a week and a few trips here & there. Still loving life on the beach with his ski boat, he has recovered from his attempt to tear limbs off while skiing! He's always looking for friends to ski with so give him a call if you're on the NC coast.

SSgt Roxanne Best – Boomer Aug 14 - Present

She's one of our newest Baby Booms; she was in the Marines in her previous life, now she's ordering everyone around here respectfully, especially finance. She obviously enjoys flying; she's a flight medic on the outside. She has more energy than the entire boom shop combined.

SSgt Cody Beverly - Mar 15 - Present

He's another Active duty hire, fresh from McConnell, & our newest ART how did that happen? Sena gave him great reviews & we gave him an interview, now he has to live up to all the hype!! He is another resident in the "Shady J Boom Park" (base Fam-Camp), with several other newly hired Booms, he is leading the pack with the least of anything inside a camper, tents have more amenities. Ask him about how to inflate an escape slide in the aircraft, he has perfected the technic. His first questions as a reservist "What's an IDT, TP, UTA, AT,RPA, "what, what??" can you start over. His first ART job is body scheduler, wow who did you piss off! What do you mean I can't use everyone ever day, what, what?!

SMSgt Barry "Stan Evil" Bradley - Nov 93 - Present

Barry is our group Stan/Evil "The Hammer" boom! He's been deploying & flying a lot lately, always looking for the next good deal trip. He keeps picking the WEST PAC AE's not sure if that's a good deal or not. Other units are still asking our unit & him to come out to do a SAV's for their NORI's & Stan-Eval inspections. He still wants a new Harley to travel the world on, but his rental empire is sitting empty & stealing his Harley dollars.

MSgt Jorge "Habi" Brewer - Jan 04 – Dec 14

Jorge has retired & will be concentrating on his North Carolina State Highway Patrol job pulling everyone over with a bad attitude! He's trying to talk the NCHP to give him a Jet so he can pull air planes over & write tickets to the pilots for doing 300 knots at 26k above I95! If you're ever in NC & want to see or meet Jorge do 100 mph on interstate 40!

MSgt Rich "Bowl O' Chili" Bonicelli - Oct 04 - Present

He is still Captain of his sail boat; his crew has not mutinied so he's still enjoying it as often as he can. He has moved down to the Current OP's/scheduling position, which has presented all new challenges for him, but he seems happier. Still the building manager he did receive a replacement Adam but he has decided to become a recruiter instead. Hey Adam recruit a building manager.

TSgt Adam "Shot Gun" Craft – Jun 14 - Present

We'll Adam one of our newest ART's will be leaving us by the end of this year, he has decided to become a recruiter for the reserves, obviously drank too much Reserve Kool-Aide. Working in the civilian world wasn't all that it's cracked up to be, now working as an ART is not all it's cracked up to be! Hmm next! He's currently in Current OP's training his replacement MSgt Bonicelli. Still has his chopper although he just bought a crotch rocket, we never see him ride that either! Hmmm.

SSgt Christopher Davis – Aug 14 - Present

He's one of our newest Baby Booms, a previous Loadmaster. He has been busy with his civilian life lately, coming in to visit us as often as possible. Shhh, be very, very quit, wait be yourself he's very, very quit.

MSgt Keny "Dammit" Fallin - Aug 06 - Present

Keny's reign in flight Scheduling ended during the last Boom Signal, moved to Body scheduling to work with Bonicelli. As mentioned in the last Boom Signal "Stay tuned for the next episode of "As Body Scheduling Turns". Keny is now in Training representing OGT, finally away from the scheduling nightmare. Keny still believes Budweiser is the only beer in the World.

MSgt Kevin "NSACAR Insurance King" Hughes - Jan 03 - Nov 14

Kevin has retired, but Kevin is still the King of everything NASCAR. Need insurance? He is the Big Cheese in the insurance biz, his clients are the NASCAR teams, if it's fast, and if it's Big he'll insure it! If you want the experience of your life you must attend the big Coca Cola 600 tail gate party to see that. Give him a call and "Let's Go Racing". The complete takeover of NASCAR is still underway! "The HUGHES NASCAR Series" tune in next season.

TSgt Tara "Scratch 'n Dent" (formally known as Hopewell) Kirkpatrick- Sep 00 – TBD & May 13 - May 15

After Tara's short stint in Family Readiness she came back to the Boom world spring 2012, now she has gone IRR (inactive ready reserve). We'll miss her. Tara & her husband run their own "Herbal Life Club" in Asheville; She & Mike (AKA husband) have plans on dominating the WORLD.

SrA Alex (first name, first name) Mark – Boomer Sep 12 - Present

Was our newest baby Boom, Wants to be our newest Baby ART, (we know the truth wants to be a Pilot). He still says he's really good at putting out fires, only as a civilian firefighter. He's getting ready to go to instructor school, Deploy, & go TDY all before the end of this year, He's also renovating his OLD house. That's a lot of fires.

MSgt Mark "Beerman" McElmurry - Apr 97 - Present

He has moved to the Command suit helping with all things that are late, EPR's, DTS, RTS, Training, Orders, finally a little bit of sanity brought in (just in time). He has not started making beer again still hiding out from the Feds. He brings his minions to work to help out on occasion, but has to watch out for the child labor laws, we need more minions!!

SSgt Mitchell "Miller Lite" Miller – (Joined Mar 10) Boomer Dec 10 - Present

He has drank the Kool-aide & become one of our newest ART's, & trying to figure out why he has no leave. As one of our newest Instructors we have put him to work with all our new baby booms that are continually arriving!

SSgt Patrick "The Future of NASCAR" Muckey Apr 14 – Present

Muckey's fresh out to NASCAR School, top of his class, 1st place on race day! He's now on the fast track to get back up to speed as a Boom. He's out job hunting for a NASCAR job, but for now he'll be the "GAS GUY" on a Military Race Track, if your jet needs gas give him a call. If you want to talk NASCAR or Mustangs he's your guy, but he may only have 12.3 seconds to talk!

CMSgt Tony "Frank the Tank" Parris - Nov 93 - Dec 03 & Apr 08 - Present

Chief Parris is our Chief Boom & program manager. Chief has really slowed down as the new car test GURU; he has 2 Volvos, 1 VW & a Nissan Titian Truck so he can crush all those little skate board cars out there. He's still enjoying his Harley. We can't wait to see what's next.

MSgt Jeremy "GE" Reynolds - Apr 08 - Present

Jeremy deployed this past year; GE is still trying to recover from him being deployed. Since there was know one there to save the company. He's enjoying the time with the family & he always has a smile on his face. Has drank the Kirkpatrick Kool-aide, he's killing the PT test. Now he's getting more unit members to drink the Koll-Aide! Stay tuned for the next seasons episode.

SMSgt Billy "Mr. Deployment" Somerville - Dec 00 - Present

BJ is Cheer Point's heavy weight & balance guy, he bench presses aircraft for the fun of it. He used to be our Thursday night guy but now he's our regular "when can I deploy next" guy (hence the new nickname). He's the senior Boom in the Boom shop by rank & age, not hair! Rides his Harley in all weather (except snow, well!). Bj still goes on every deployment & fights the rest of use for the Good TDY's. Where is he right now here but for how long!!

MSgt Steven "Butter-bean, aka Loverboy" Stanton - Jan 06-Apr 15

Steve switched to Current OP's/MSN Scheduling, and then said I'm out & on my way to Tinker AFB. Chief Robinson now has our head chef, enjoy just not too much, you still have to pass the PT test. He still has his NEW 2009 HD Rocker, why because he only has a few hundred miles on it but he still has it. Want to buy it?

SSgt Andrew "Ricky Jug's" Steuart - (Joined Nov 07) Boomer Sep 08-Present

He's a full time online student working on his degree, he still hasn't decided if he will be the next Presidential candidate. He's moved up in the world he doesn't buy POS cheap cars he buys newer nice cars & they don't blow-up! He hasn't blown up the new car yet!

TSgt Kenneth Stoddard – Mar 15 – Present

He's one of our newest booms arriving from NJ Guard. Now we have to convert him to be more "Reserve". He is currently residing in the "Shady J Boom Park" (base Fam-Camp), with several other newly hired Booms, we are going to have a competition for the nicest RV. Stay tuned for the "RV Reality FAM-Camp Show" next year. It's all an act, just ask him. He's the Weight & Balance guy for Boeing in SC, so if you want to discuss W & B he the one.

TSgt Travis "Swine King" Swinson - May 11 – Nov 14

He's one of our newest ART's but he has gone on to McConnell AFB. As mentioned in the last Boom signal "he had embraced Current OP's, then moved to Training Flight & took over UDM duties, you know what that means he will be leaving soon. Our UDM's don't last long here!" Maybe he'll start his reality show now "Swine Kingdom". Green Eggs & Ham anyone!

SrA Derrick Yelverton – Sep 14 - Present

He's one of our newest Baby Boom's full up, qualified & doing an outstanding job. Training was so tough he's currently on vacation in the desert, soaking up the sun & fun. He was a former Coast Guardsman, which explains why he keeps wanting to throw the life rafts out the door every time a boom yells help!

Booms of Yore & the date they were here

Listed by departure Date:

2015

TSgt Tara “Scratch ‘n Dent” (formally known as Hopewell) Kirkpatrick- Sep 00 – & May 13 – May 15

Tara has her own business “Herbal Life Club” in Asheville we will miss her.

2014

TSgt Travis “Swine King” Swinson- May 11-Nov 1

He's one of our newest ART's but he has gone on to McConnell AFB. Rumor has it he will be part of the KC-46 program.

MSgt Kevin “NSACAR Insurance King” Hughes- Jan 03 – Nov 14

He has retired from the Air Force Race, to concentrate on being the Big Cheese in the insurance biz, & the complete takeover of NASCAR! “The HUGHES NASCAR Series” tune in next season.

MSgt Jorge “Habi” Brewer- Jan 04-Dec 14

Jorge is retired but still with North Carolina State Highway Patrol.

SSgt Bill Frazer – Mar 07 – Sep 10 - He's back at work with his civilian employer has gone IRR (Inactive Ready Reserve) to work on his civilian career for a while. He's all over face book Look him up.

SrA David “Chando” Chandonnet- Aug 99-Apr 09 – Last rank MSgt - Dave is now IRR (In active ready reserve) & ihe & his wife are now drug dealers, the politically correct word is “pharmacist”. He now makes more money then all the boom combined. Unless you're an ART then he make 20% more then all of us combined.

Sgt Sean “Bimmer” Martin – Sep 91-Jun 09- Now a retired CMSgt. He is “The KC-46 tankers Boom Extraordinar” & still training Booms but as Mister for Boeing. If you want to buy one give him a call.

SSgt Rodney “Rowdy” Smith – Apr 97-Oct 08 – Now a MSGT - at “TWISTER AFB” (Tinker) as a Test Boom. Wishing for better weather to ride his HD. Rowdy in the past year has gotten married. The twisters missed leveling his house by 10 feet but received a lot of damage, he's moved back in, but his Vette was stored for safe keeping got totaled (Soap Opera Story) before he got it back. He has a new old one. Stay tuned next year for more.

SrA Brice “Surfer” Hayden- Mar 86-Dec 08 - last we heard is in the Savannah National Guard as C-130 pilot. I mean Navigator...

CMSgt Jerry Snyder – Jun 90-Aug 06 – Retired - is retired and riding one of his Harley’s as much as possible.

SEYMOUR JOHNSON AFB, NC

911 ARS

“Red Eagles”

OPS SUPERINTENDENT

(S)MSgt Nixon, David Z. “DIAMOND DAVE” – Fearless leader made Senior this year, he had to buy a step-stool to high-five everyone. He can usually be found in the Boom Pod looking at guns with Gibbs online.

BOOM SHOP

(M)Sgt Berglund, Bruce E. “BERGLE” – The Bergle decided he was going too fast in his Mustang, so he just bought a brand new Ford Fusion, which has 3 less Turbos than Gaughf’s Charger but still goes faster.

SrA Seale, Austin W. “BSAL” – This entry was much easier last year because of how stupid he was in 2013/14. Austin has stepped his game up and become a very valuable member to the Squadron, unless he’s doing Open Book Testing.

A1C Saulnier, Stephen P. “DOBBY” – Got promoted to A1C this year, and instead of being the AF’s oldest Amn, he is now the AF’s oldest A1C. He’s never met a car payment his in-laws couldn’t pay, and really gets into his hobby of crashing $2,000 drones. Oh, his wife and he made a baby this year, it’s already taller than him. Congrats Steve!

A1C Austin, Zach – Zachariah has an affinity for Beanie Babies and checking his text messages on Final. He’s officially a seasoned warrior and is just back from his first deployment. He followed the route of his favorite band “The Jonas Brothers” and got himself and his girlfriend promise rings. Rock on man!

A1C Gradney-McCastle, Timothy – Newest boom to Seymour and a huge LeBron fan! He wouldn’t stop talking about how much he loves LeBron at the last Boom cookout.

READINESS

TSgt Gibbs, Nate L. “ADONIS” – Continues to be punished as he welcomed another daughter into the world. Congrats Nate!

SCHEDULING

SrA Morrison, Kevin M. “BEAKER” – Kevin....Kevin....Kevin. Where do we begin? He drove around in a car with expired registration for almost 2 years. He’s a swingin’ bachelor with the highest water bill in the Greater Goldsboro area. If you let him dogsit, just pay him in Peanut Butter.

SrA Phelps, Shelby A. “SASQUATCH” – Shelby tried a little softball this year. She bought a new glove and everything, but then decided time and time again that it would be easier to just catch the ball with her body. Scheduling literally falls apart when she’s not here.

SrA Gaughf, Taylor W. “7-Up” – Spoiler alert!! This guy really likes Dominican food and communicating by snail mail with long lost buds. He’s the master of the 200 hour work week and has the first Dodge Charger with a triple Turbo. I’ll stop now, because he has a very large gun collection and an itchy trigger-finger.

UDM

SrA Loudenburg, Brian J. “EVERYDAY IS ARM DAY” – Making GAINZ!! Brian and his wife just welcomed a brand new baby girl into the world. Congrats Brian!

TRAINING

SrA Frost, Dan R. “FROSTY” – Fresh back from CFIC he got sent to deploy because he needed something else to complain about.

SrA Bottass, Everett M. “BERNIE” – This guy wears his Instructor Boom Patch every Friday so all of the non-IB’s will fear him and his Ginger fury! He also likes to give more advice during R&C’s than our Commander, making the process infinitely more painful for everyone.

STAN/EVAL

TSgt Montani, Anthony L. “LUNCHBOX” – When he gets to drinkin' he thinks he can wrestle anyone and win, only to tap out after getting put into headlocks from his airmen.

SrA Anderson, Drake C. “” – Puts the SWEAT in sweaty! The Commander won’t even shake his hand anymore, and will only ever offer up fist bumps. If you need an iPad updated, don’t bring it to him, the only technology he can figure out is the browser on his Smart TV. INCOGNITO MODE IS YOUR FRIEND DRAKE!!!

916 OSS

SrA Lackie, Casey J. “SLACKIE” – Casey is about to leave and go onto bigger and better things as a Combat Controller. He shaved his head recently so he’d look just like his SOF hero...G.I. Jane.

DRG – The BOWST Jeff’s

CMSgt (Ret) Sidles, Jeff – Supplements his Chief Retirement/DRG pay by posing for GQ’s Beard Edition every year. Word is they pay him in hair gel, which I think we would all believe.

SMSgt (Ret) Ledoux, Jeff – Still cranky. Still beardy. Still Cajun. Still married to a lady that passes for his daughter.

RETIRED

GONE

SrA Kijuan Amey – Went to the 77th. We try not to associate with him anymore. Has the 2nd fastest Dodge Charger in the parking lot.

SrA Geordon Miller – In the process of becoming a prison guard in NY, easy way to get dates he said.

TSgt Earl Mayhew – He’s in Altus now.

“FIGHTIN’ TENTH”

Greetings from the Air Logistics Complex side of Tinker AFB! The saying around here is “If you don’t like the weather now wait an hour and it will change”. Oklahoma continues to be an interesting place to survive. Not only are we ducking for cover from the weather, we now must keep the breakables off the walls due to the earthquakes!

The 10th’s mission is to perform post-depot level maintenance Functional Check Flights and Acceptance Check Flights on nearly all C-135’s of different series (E, Q, R, O, N, T and W) on a typical five year cycle. We are the only remaining depot facility for the KC-135. The 10th also performs check flights on B-1B, E-3A/G, and B-52H, aircraft variants. We pride ourselves in sending the “Best airplanes back to the War Fighter”.

This year wrapped up GATM modifications on three French KC-135R tankers, as well as Phase 1 of Low Rate Initial Production for the KC-135 Block 45 Avionics. We will be starting Phase II of Block 45 here at Tinker this fall. We are on pace to set production records for PDM jets, especially with the additional workload of Block 45. We are looking forward growing the Boom Shop to accommodate for the increasing workload. The rumor is that Tinker is also building hangars for future KC-46 work. Maybe we’ll see them some year...

SMSgt Michael Kissire (AGR): Our Section Chief and TODO, Mike is keeping busy hounding the Flight Manual Managers around the world about their erroneous and ridiculous updates. We’re worried he is not challenged in his current position and are encouraging him to run as Hillary’s VP! Mike’s been quite busy around the 10th, revamping any program he can find. If Hillary says no, there’s always the Mayor of Mustang; he ensures us he’s qualified! michael.kissire@us.af.mil

MSgt Rodney “Rowdy” Smith (AGR): Rowdy always says the man with the most toys wins. He is only months away from retirement, which has reminded him of all that's wrong with today's Air Force. Just ask him and he’ll tell you all about it, and how good the glory days were! He continues to finish his college education, in hopes of running against Hillary and Mike. We’re sure he has a bright future and wish him the best of luck. Thanks for 27 great years Rowdy, you deserve it! rodney.smith.11@us.af.mil

MSgt Jeff "350" Bass (AGR): Jeff recently became an AGR here at the 10th. Jeff is grasping the fact that every noise he hears on an FCF is not an IFE or catastrophic situation. (Squirrel!) His maintenance background has been useful, so he says! Jeff ~~doesn't~~ say much, only to remind us that we should be compensated better and Democrats are evil. jeffery.bass.2@us.af.mil

MSgt Frank Valley (TR / “Zipper-Suited Santa”): Frank was nominated for Extreme Makeover and they (finally) convinced him to shave. We actually started a collection to buy him some razors, although hedge sheers may have been more appropriate! Frank continues to keep us cracking up with stories of a NARC officer, which really sound likes quotes from the Jerry Springer show. With all the talk of hookers and drugs, we think he might have been fired 10 years ago and just enjoys hanging out in that work environment! However, due to the pictures of his 500 yard heads shots, we will not investigate the truth of these accusations. frank.valley@us.af.mil

MSgt Dave “ATIS” French (TR): Dave’s experience and attention to detail drives maintenance (and Mike) crazy. Dave spends more time on a pre-flight than Tammy Faye Baker does on her make-up! His experience from working as QA for Boeing has been invaluable, and we’re thankful to have him at the 10th. Dave’ plans to pick up the role of Air Force bashing from Rowdy, having put in his paperwork to retire next summer. He will be missed. dave.french@us.af.mil

CMSgt John “Tex” Austin (AGR – attached flyer): Chief “Tex”, now known as “Chief Blackcloud”, is the newest addition to the 413th Flight Test Group. After twenty plus flights cancelled due to snow, ice storms, tornados, hail, and record rainfall, he is finally FCF qualified. We’re trying to convince him to go fly at Edwards AFB and save California from the drought. Weather emergencies aside, it hasn’t been too bad; he brings salsa and BBQ every visit! He’s saved us all thousands on our water bills, due to not having to water our lawns. john.austin.2@us.af.mil

WORLD FAMOUS “SH OKIES”

CMSgt Steve “Bif” Robinson Chief is down to zero functional knees, but has kept the vultures at bay by assuring everyone that he will continue doing the bang-up job as Program Manager that he’s always done. Does he have your back? Yes! Will he kick your ass if required? You betcha! Does he know how to run the schedule when McGougan is deployed? Ehhe...not really.

CMSgt Phil “X-Man” Brand Our Chief of Stan/evil, Phil is the consummate student. When he’s not chasing down Booms to sign form 8s and what not, Phil pretends like he enjoys studying for his Physician’s Assistant degree. Don’t count him out yet, he still has a few good years left in the squadron, but with his lovely wife Sally at his side, we are confident that Phil’s 2nd career will be every bit as valuable and rewarding as his 1st has been!

SMSgt Darby “@Tinder” Perrin After failing to get his Tinder account up and running, Darby has recently dabbled in Farmers Only, OK cupid, Plenty Of Fish, Match.com, and Our Time.....Did I miss one??? Darby has two fascinations in life...women and paintbrushes. Needless to say, Darby has been doing a lot of painting and was recently awarded the Founder’s Silver Award for an A-10 painting and 1st prize in the Civil Aviation category in the American Society of Aviation Artist’s Annual Forum. Way to go Darby!!!

SMSgt Justin “Mayo” Hopkins Justin is still up to his elbows in electrical work, has 2 boys that he tries to keep entertained and a steady girlfriend who likes him for his personality and not his vault of cash. I know, right?! Justin is not only a dependable and necessary Okie Boom, but also a very in demand Electrician. Not a lot of Okies that don’t have some of his handy work lighting their abodes.

MSgt Steve “Breakaway Barrie” Switzer Even though Steve treats most people like dirt, he may very well be the most likable guy in the Okies. Just short of retirement, and suffering heavily from empty nest syndrome, Steve and Phyllis have purchased a lovely plot of land in the hill country of Texas. Steve has been a regular supplier of NBA tickets for the last 3 or 4 years and will only retain good Okie status if the flow of tickets continues. Paying attention Steve? Chesapeake Energy Arena, section 116 or 117 will be fine.

MSgt Mark “McGoo” McGougan There are those who have been “McGoozeled” and those that will eventually be “McGoozeled”. McGoo still runs the Boom Scheduling office when he has time in between selling cars, guns and tires. He’s also the Okies version of Angie’s list! Need your windshield repaired? House painted? Teeth pulled? Talk to McGoo! Wife Sandra and son Kyle keep him motivated.

MSgt Charles “Shatz” Dalton Wow, another extremely busy Boom. We hired Chaz 37 years ago as a Boom with the assumption that he would eventually be a pilot. Well, the best laid plans of mice and men...things just didn’t work out. Not until now. Chaz resigned his ART position and got hired as a pilot by ExpressJet and couldn’t be much happier. His wife Darby and 2 kids fill up whatever left over time he may have previously used to kill ducks, geese or musk ox.

MSgt Ben “Benny-Rooster” Brent DO NOT... I REPEAT, DO NOT RUFFLE HIS FEATHERS! You will immediately be removed from the Okie refueling list, he will attempt to dismantle your squadron and possibly your family. Ben still resides in current ops and every now and then he comes out of his office for oxygen after someone ruffles his feathers by cancelling a flight. Ben still enjoys hunting and four-wheeling with his wife, and strutting around the squadron looking for a debate!

MSgt Scott “Whistle-Britches” Montgomery Scott is “Able with the Cable” as they say. He’s acquired a nice business selling “Dish Network” to unsuspecting Airmen, and seems to be doing quite nicely. When he’s not raking in the Dish Dollars, he’s busy collecting toys like ATVs, boats and Harleys or you might find him at the lake with his 4 kids and wife Freda.

MSgt Steve Stanton Our new papa bear to the squadron, Steve replaced Chaz in Current Ops. Maybe that’s why it’s quieter and less hostile in there. Weighing in at 250 pounds and standing 8’6” tall, if he were in a fight with a bear, I suggest you jump in and help the bear. Steve is an extremely knowledgeable Boom and apparently intimidating to fly with...I wouldn’t know because I jump off when I see him on the schedule.

TSgt Sean Gilson The Photo shop artist himself. Watch what you say around this guy or you will become a meme. Sean likes to work hard and joke harder. He is currently working in Flight Training and does a spectacular job, although, Jeff Bass is all we have to compare him to. Sean enjoys working out, barely eating, and working out. Poor guy has no fat on his body and all you can see is his muscles. Wait....Sean did you mean to do that?

TSgt Steven “Selfie” Bowman Whether you know him as Selfie, Rugburn, Boner, Shark Bait, or Bridge Builder, Bowman thinks nothing of hoarding call signs and avoiding the water. Still new to the Reserves, Steve is finding his place and learning to blend in without pissing us off with his active-duty antics. Hoping to be a Doctor someday, we’ll keep giving him “study time”. Some people call it “deployment”, but whatever...

SSgt Ryan “Bravo Shamo” Cornell Ryan is one of the new guys to the Okies. In attempt to look like Adam Levine, he went with the full sleeve and all. At 28 years old, Ryan has a litter of 4 kiddos. Ryan is so committed (or brainwashed) to the Okies that he just moved his family to OKC in hopes to secure a coveted ART position. He recently began his Pre-CFIC training against his own will. Good Luck Ryan.

SSgt Dalton “Slingblade” Williams New SSgt Dalton has had a busy year. He got married to Danielle, trained to be a railroad conductor and just returned from a desert deployment. On top of that, he’s brought squadron pranking back in to style. Blindly throwing caution to the wind, Dalton is fearless (perhaps even mindless) about victimizing those who would destroy him for laughs! Oh, he’ll pay....oh yes he will.

SSgt Michael “Robo-Cop” Moore Mike had an EXTREMELY busy year, with attending the police academy and all. Rookie cop Mike was making a name for himself as a leading agitator of crackheads and vagrants when he decided that testing his brawn against a 300 lb. suspect was at the top of the “Good Idea List”. 300 lb. suspect went down like a tazed Rhino with Mike underneath him and a foot trapped under a car. SNAPPO! Lots of surgery and lots of new hardware has immobilized Mike’s Police and Boom Operatin’ careers for the time being.

SSgt Shaylon Ladd Cocoa Butter got tired of the Stan Eval admin life and decided to become a boom (of course). He is still in Altus as I type.....More to come

SSgt Tyler Sorrells Tyler is another new hire to the Okies. He is still in Altus and sells houses for a living. Big Moniessss!!.....More to Come

Departed and Legacy Okies:

6 ARS

“VIS EXTENSA”

Greetings to everyone from Northern California and the men and women from the 6th Air Refueling Squadron. 2015 has brought many changes since the last boom signal. We have seen many of our old squadron mates move on and have welcomed in our newest boom operators with open arms...well, most of them!

Squadron Superintendent

CMSGT Randy Kay – In case he hasn't told you yet, Randy made Chief Master Sergeant. By carrying around two iPhones he has mastered the art of trolling Facebook and the rumor is that he will be leaving us at some point later on this year, he will certainly be missed!

Chief Boom

MSgt Kenny Harwood – Kenny was finally able to redecorate the Chief Boom office this year, unfortunately he filled it with pictures of the baby tanker. Don't let him get drunk or he will tell you his life story, whether you want to hear it or not. He has welcomed a new member to his clan this year with the birth of his son, hopefully this will help him finally act responsibly.

Stan Eval Flight

TSgt Christopher “Villa” Villanueva (NCOIC) – Mr. “They hate us because they ain't us”, has perfected the same speaking style and mannerisms as Dan Long, and hopes to take over his life at some point. It didn't take long for Chris to make in impact in the squadron and has done a great job taking over the Stan/Eval shop.

(2Lt) SSgt Ken Barber – He has been accepted as one of them. That's right SSgt Barber is headed to OTS!!!

SSgt Drew McGarrell – Drew came back from his 6 month deployment and got back into the swing of things head first and upgraded to evaluator. Unfortunately he is so quiet that we have no dirt on him.

Training Flight

TSgt Devin Kay (NCOIC) – The Squadron's newest Master Sergeant select. When he isn't threatening to throat punch or zip-tie space-a passengers, Devin can be found instilling fear into the young students by yelling at them. He is currently the president of the squadron booster club, and is doing a phenomenal job running Training Flight

SSgt Andrew Bear – Bear has moved up to the front office to be the CC's right hand man, speaking of right hands... I think he took a right hand to the face at some point this year. Says he is getting out soon, we are hoping he will change his mind.

SSgt Josiah Harris – Mr. Atlas of the 6th ARS, Josiah is single handedly pressing the weight of the earth while instructing students. When he isn't eating or food blogging, he can be found in the gym lifting heavy objects and then putting them back down.

SSgt Dan Long – The only IB that happens to continue to go TDY without a student. "I never go TDY" is currently TDY and completing the vital mission of the USAF. When he isn't fist pumping in a dark room filled with beach balls, glow sticks, and a bunch of sweaty 18 year olds he can be found in the squadron training shop complaining about not going TDY.

SrA Arriel Bromley – Decided to go fishing off of the company pier, unfortunately he is a boom from the 9th. She continues to do great things in the training shop, hopefully she finds that next stripe here soon!

SrA Uriel Escamilla – Recently completed IB upgrade and has been a positive addition to training flight. Don't ever let him get an oil change; it will take a week.

Scheduling Flight

TSgt Kevin Gregory – When Kevin isn't working on his car, working out in the gym, or doing any other work aside from work in the squadron, he runs the scheduling section in the squadron. We are hoping to get him back up flying so that we can put his wealth of knowledge to good use flying with students again.

Line Booms

SSgt Jason Vance – Has taken on the responsibilities of the Awards and Dec's shop and continues to try and catch up to his wife's rank of MSgt. Always the quiet professional.

SSgt Kenneth Cook – SSgt Cook has the toughest job in the squadron currently supervising 90% of the Amn booms. He personally oversees their daily workout routines and is getting them ready for power lifting...or their PT test.

SrA Justin Murphy – Justin has continued to do good work in the Readiness shop. Hopefully he has learned his lesson and no longer does motorcycle stunts in front of the commander's wife and kids....out in front of their house

SrA James Stanley – James currently holds the record for the longest re-qual program in Air Force history, his training plan was so confusing that even AMC/A3T was scratching their heads. He is off to ALS to learn to the art of supervising Airmen... God help us all!

SrA Jared Sanchez – Apparently everyone is his "Boss" because he calls everyone that. He has more appointments in GDSS II than anyone in history and still hasn't convinced his wife to get her drivers license.

SrA Abbey Braunstein – Abbey has been taking strides in the readiness shop and dreams of one day being a civilian. We’ve tried to convince her to stay, but she is having none of it. We are going to miss her in two years when she gets out...

SrA Cory Peterson – If the Air Force had a super hero, it would be Cory Peterson, minus the extra-large snout. He continues to set the bar high for his fellow Airmen and is slated to go to instructor upgrade in a few months.

SrA Steven Karall – Believes that he has mastered the art of cargo loading. Steven has been doing great things in the mobility shop and will still build you a clock instead of just telling you what time it is.

SrA Justin Lewis – Justin just graduated from ALS and is ready to take on new responsibilities. We are sending him to the OSS to start a new job in Long Range Scheduling

SrA Eriberto Lopez – Eddie still believes that the Cowboys are the best team in the NFL and isn’t afraid to tell anyone, even random Raiders fans in the men’s restroom. Make sure and ask him how that turned out...

SrA Justin Haughn – Justin likes to keep his deployed crew up all night yelling at 12 year olds for not following his orders while online gaming. He has completed ALS he can finally put those skills to good use.

SrA Zach Doyle – What can we say about Zach.... Not much, he keeps his nose clean and his mouth shut.

SrA Quinten Moore – SrA Moore finally returned from a 6 month TCN deployment where he enjoyed the sunny skies of an undisclosed location in Southwest Asia while watching groups of men restock toilet paper. We are glad to have him back in scheduling.

SrA Garret Jacobs – Garret aka “Mr. Conservation”. He has perfected the art of not expending any energy during PT or any squadron event. He is currently ensuring the squadron is mission ready through mission resource where he passes out iPad’s with a smile on his face.

SrA Ralph Fleurant – When he is not busy procreating, he is currently ensuring the squadron is mission ready through mission resource. He recently added to his army and only gets sleep in crew rest on the road. A true force multiplier!

SrA Michael Gooch – SrA Gooch tirelessly continues to build his pyramid scheme empire in his free time and his hairline is indicating the apparent stress levels. He has continued to do great things in our mobility shop.

A1C Ryan Bayles – Ryan has played every sport known to man, and isn’t shy about telling you. He loves to re-live his glory days of HS football where he dominated the field as the only defensive lineman to weigh in at a whopping 125 pounds....soaking wet...full pads

A1C Hebert Ramirez – 100% invested in Tinder; patented the Right Swipe. Currently holds the squadron record for most lost items in three weeks. Don’t let him rent a car in Germany, he will let someone else drive it into a snow bank.

A1C Krista “The Becky” Briggs – She has THEE slowest, ugliest, Nissan Sentra in the known universe. Don’t get too close though, or she will use her ALLEGED ‘boxing’ skills.

SrA DeShaun Brown- A.K.A the southern Don Juan is always mission ready and offload complete looking for another TDY “let me get on that trip though.” The only boom with two phones and stacks of hotel room keys; he’s already checked in.

A1C Andres “Andy” Castillo – Ramirez Jr. always keeps his hipster flap on point and is too quick to get through training to travel the world. Only takes one evaluation for this dude.

A1C Jalen Hutchinson – He would make Bruce Lee flinch; when he is not working on his martial arts he is a squadron scheduler. Hutch once got bit by a snake and after three days of agony.... the snake died.

A1C Joel Perez – Mr. I can’t wake up on time; He also enjoys purchasing stolen merchandize off of craigslist in his spare time. He just became mission ready and is currently deployed to an undisclosed location in Southwest Asia.

A1C Rodel Ubungen – A.K.A Silent Rod, A.K.A Silent Killer, A.K.A Ladies Man; just got Q-1 and is ready to enjoy the pool side of the desert.

A1C Zachariah Ploeger – You don’t have to be lonely at FarmersOnly.com, he is currently in initial qualification training “looking it up”, when he isn’t at work he can be found fishing in whatever lake that still has water here in California.

A1C Calvin Kim – A.K.A “lil Kim”, A.K.A “Kim Jong Un” He will ask you “why” a million times. He has already made his mark here in the KC-10 community...Ask him why you shouldn’t say “JTT” in mission planning.

On-Loan/Attached

SMsGt Jayde Langley (OGV) – Back flying with us after his stint at Scott AFB, he quickly moved to OGV where he currently scares the young booms with his presence.

MSgt Carl Wise (MICT) – Carl has been doing great things up at the Wing and occasionally we see him when his boss lets him out to fly. He is off to be the chief boom of the 908th in a few months.

TSgt William Blanton (XP) – We still aren’t sure exactly what Bill does at work. He was sighted in the squadron sometime back in 2014.

SSgt Titus Holman – Titus has perfected the “Blue Steel” look from Zoolander and uses it to confuse his enemies and anyone who asks him a question.

PCS/PCA’d

(S)MSgt Christian Leon – Soon to be putting on Senior Master Sergeant stripes, MSgt Leon has left the flying community to become the Wing’s new Career Assistance Advisor in order to mold young minds and yell at young Airmen attending FTAC, or anyone who will listen.

TSgt Corvus Lowry – Corvus has left the US to replace the former Mrs. Lowry in Korea. His car is currently parked somewhere in Washington; hopefully not on cinder blocks.

TSgt Rachel Wentland– Rachel has moved across the street to the CRW and is sure to be doing great things. These halls just aren’t the same without her sense of sarcasm and glowing personality.

Separated

SrA Jon Jackson – Johnny was medically retired last year and the training shop has never been the same. He is sorely missed.

SrA Ashley Brennan – Ashley has transitioned to civilian life and can be found in upstate New York growing grapes and starting a family winery.

A1C Rhonda Wilson – Rhonda found herself a man on his way to OTS and got hitched, she is currently transitioning to civilian life and will soon be adding one more to her family.

SrA Jessica Kirstein – Jessica has been holding down our squadron scheduling shop and will soon be enjoying civilian life.

Boom Stowed Leaving Position

TRAVIS AFB, CA

9 ARS

As the cornerstone unit for Operations ENDURING FREEDOM and INHERENT RESOLVE, the 9th Air Refueling Squadron maintained a significant worldwide presence, ensuring United States objectives were met. During this unprecedented period of activity, the 9th Air Refueling Squadron flawlessly executed over 1,700 combat missions offloading 41.8 million pounds of fuel to 1,700 United States Air Force, Joint and Coalition aircraft over Afghanistan, Iraq, Syria, and the horn of Africa. Moreover, the 9th Air Refueling Squadron was recognized as the recipient of the 2014 SMSgt Albert L. Evans award for the Best Air Refueling Section in the United States Air Force.

SMSgt Shane Hickman: Squadron Superintendent. You can see him running around the Sq complaining about how much work he has and how much time and money he spends in the Squadron. I think he is just trying to recruit bodies for when he PCA's to our sister Sq. We are hoping to see him on the Chief select list this year so he will stop complaining all the time.

MSgt Dave Megill: Chief Boom! He left his sweet and cushy job at OGV for a more challenging position at the Squadron dealing with a never ending supply of drooling youngster's. One last shot for promotion and then a possible retirement next year.

MSgt Luis Acevedo: Flight Chief. Ace is back in the 9th ARS, when he isn't on his bicycle somewhere. He will be finishing his Air Force career in May 2016.

MSgt Dan Falucho: Flight Chief. We still call him the "Hound Dog". Give Dan a task and you can be sure it will be dealt with as some Amn learn. This usually involves some paperwork that he has already prepared on his computer desktop...insert name and print. He is currently working as a Flight Chief, when he isn't the filling in as 1st Sgt.

(M)Sgt Gerald James: "G" finally got paroled from Lackland and decided that the "West Coast" is the "Best Coast." "G" recently completed re-qual and immediately deployed. If I were him I'd try to stay gone as much as I can also. Enjoy your last few months of being a TSgt. I see a lot of EPR and awards writing in your future.

TSgt Jonathan Farmer: Farmer is one of our newest Flight Chiefs' and Instructors'. When we need something done, we can count on him if he isn't flying that day, "trying to gain instructor hours", so he says. He's hoping to get an assignment to Scott AFB for career broadening opportunities but for now he will be moving to OST to take charge of Training programs.

TSgt Sean Scott: Currently at the helm of Stan/Evil. You can find him tracking people down for not completing testing requirements and or some motorcycle safety course they made him in charge of. He did manage to dodge an MEB. Still DNIF though.

TSgt Ken Tockey: Ken managed to make it through Re-re-re-qual. It only took the better part of a decade but he is now a fully qualified boom operator. Seeing as how he has held almost every job in the squadron there was only one place left for him to go and that is Readiness and then the desert.

(T)Sgt Michael Durham: Mike made the Commander mad by calling one of the Lt's a "party ruiner" so he made him become an evaluator. Mike's longtime dream of PCS'ing to Scott AFB and work at the highly sought after job at TACC finally came true. Remember Mike, the grass is always greener and we'll miss you.

(T)Sgt Jessie Eagles: Jesse is still working in Stan/Eval picking up all of Mike Durham's slack. Jesse just recently found out that he will be PCS'ing to Lackland to be an instructor at the Center of Excellence. Have fun buddy! The best part of that assignment is driving away when it's over.

(T)Sgt Steve Wentz: Steve just recently became a daddy. Apparently taking care of all the students and instructors in training flight wasn't enough for this guy. Steve spends most of his days trying to fix GTIMS issues. Next up for Steve will be a move into Stan/Eval later this year....so I've been told.

SSgt Scott Ferguson: Scott has been dodging his Instructor Cert for over a year now. He did a stint working in the supply closet dealing with the MDM change over and is now the NCOIC of Boom Scheduling. He is finding out that keeping the 40+ boom operators aware of training and appointments is a lot like herding kittens.

SSgt Willie Long: Willie is currently going through Instructor Upgrade and will be working in Training Shop as soon as he's done. He was recently head saying "being a COP is better than being a Boom Operator." We will see how that works out for him in the future as I will need a SF augmentee soon.

SSgt Tim Lowman: Tim got married this year and works in Training Shop, at least occupies a desk in there pretending to work. Usually you can find him on the hunt for that next three week good deal trip to anywhere with SSgt Suddy and no students.

SSgt Ian Musgrave: Ian also recently became a daddy this year. Ian can be found tracking down his EFB when he isn't playing ball with his dogs at the local park. We can't blame him for the EFB. As it has been scientifically proven that any EFB he has been issued (3 if you want to put a number on it) will escape from his car at the earliest opportunity. Keep up the good work Ian!

SSgt Paul Santos: SSgt for life! Paul got qualified and is now the RA for the squadron. To get away from his duties, he deploys as much as he possibly can. When he's at home, Paul spend most of his time playing video games, piano, and having Ariel make him sandwiches.

SSgt Ryan "Guido" Sickle: Ah, good 'ol cranky Guido is back from his stint in the CRW. Ryan was recently moved out of training flight into the Mobility office then volunteered for a very short notice deployment. He may be cranky but he still gets the job done "Gucci Style."

SSgt Kevin Simon: Kevin recently upgraded to instructor and is working hard in the Boom Training Shop. He found out that spending too much time in an elevator while TDY will cause temporary loss of conciseness. It's even more fun when your Sq/CC is the one to find you. That is some Crew Dog Thug Life right there!

SSgt Jeffrey Suddy: Jeff was finally released from the confines of Mobility and is now in the Boom Training shop. He appears to work when he's here, but like Tim Lowman, he's probably working on an angle to get himself put on a good deal mission away from home station for weeks at a time.

SrA Nicholas Bertell: Nick has had a good year. He was selected for SrA BTZ, has a couple of deployments under his belt and currently works as a SELE in Stan/Eval.

SrA Tonia Henry (former Catalano): Tonia had a very good year gaining experience and deploying quite a bit. She recently got married to a fellow Boom Operator and has some important life decisions to make this year. Hope she makes the right choice, love to keep her in the 9ARS.

SrA Joseph Diver: The Mobility Guy that is never in mobility because he is always gone...Go figure! Joe continues to dream of being a tractor salesman, but for the time being he will have to settle for traveling the world on the government's dime; such a rough life.

SrA Micah Elias: Micah got qualified and was sent to work in Stan/Eval as a SELE. He must have not liked the job because he volunteered for back to back deployments. He recently moved in to the illustrious world of mobility. At least now he has constant sight of those deployment lines.

SrA Joshua Gamble: Josh is trying to be on the SrA for life plan and has managed to dodge ALS three times, but it finally caught up with him. He does a good job holding down the training shop while all the other instructors are TDY. We can't blame him for most of the fires that need to be put out, he's only an Airman.

SrA Matt George: Matt has continued to fly under the radar watching ESPN in the Readiness office. He has also managed to dodge IB upgrade for another year by taking every boom planner deployment available. He continues to work on his sports management degree while occasionally taking a class that actually counts towards his CCAF degree.

SrA Shawn Lanmon: Shawn has been working the scheduling desk due to extended DNIF for half of last year. He had an unfortunate incident with a broken water main causing his house to flood. After that we're pretty sure he just decided he needed a pool and busted out the lawn chairs and sunscreen. He still rides his Harley as much as he can and has become an avid bowler in anticipation of the next intramural bowling season. One day, we'll convince this cat to go to IB upgrade.

SrA Henry Moon: "Enrique Luna" as they call him at the local Mexican meat market, is now working at the supply section trying to buy expensive bags and sunglasses to make other Boom's as "swaggy" as he likes to think he is.

SrA Cody Naylor: Cody has been working in Mobility for just about his entire tenure here at the 9th. Although he stays busy out-processing and in-processing deployer's, he still manages to volunteer for just about everything and is a lynchpin for the squadron intramural bowling team. Headed off to ALS soon, with a supervisor roles to follow.

SrA James Pascal: Jimmy the Tulip, as he is now known, finally got out of the supply closet and is working in scheduling. He is still trying to tell everyone that this is the year for the EAGLES to win it all. Earlier this year, Jimmy and a couple of booms went out to the Mt Home airshow and came back with matching tulip tats to commemorate the occasion. It also cemented his nick name.

SrA Sergio Quezada: Man that hair! He spends at least 45 minutes a day getting that Faux Hawk perfect. He also deploys a lot and tries to get on all the coronets we get.

SrA Spencer Ross: MR. 305 was recently selected to attend IB upgrade. Yes! He is going to be an instructor. Can you believe it? Dale!

SrA Derrell Vann: Vann is working hard at his new job managing our EFB's and Supply office. He will be looking to complete ALS this year and then either OTS or IB upgrade for this super star.

SrA Grant Villwock: "Butterfingers". Grant managed to drop and break the Al Evans trophy at the Boom Symposium at Scott AFB. What else can we say about this guy? Finally moved out of mobility and is now a scheduler.

SrA Eric Williams: Working hard in the mobility shop. He has deployed twice and can always be heard saying, "I'm from Jersey girl...I ain't got no fear in my heart".

A1C Zachary Bieber: This cat took A1C Ruff's name when he was born. He has been a great addition to the Squadron and got DG out of the KC-10 FTU.

A1C Mallory Cook: Mallory just recently arrived at Travis and has completed Flight Safety. She is now learning AAR over at the FTU.

A1C Cornelius Frazier: Frazier finally made it out of MCT and is now working in the supply shop. He is slated to deploy for his first time later this year.

A1C Kenneth Grove: Ken is a very quiet guy. So quiet that we always forget who he is. He is currently in MCT waiting around for cargo missions so he can finish training and deploy.

A1C Ben LeClerc: Ben is also brand new to us and is also over at the FTU learning how to put the pole in the hole.

A1C Andrew Miller: Miller made it through MCT despite his best efforts to convince us that he didn't know what he was doing. As soon as he was finished we made him a scheduler then sent him out to Sand Land. Super nice cat, but don't expect him to buy a round while out TDY.

A1C Terrance Robinson: Terrance is another resident MCT student. When not in MCT learning about cargo you can see him breaking ankles playing B-Ball during Sq PT sessions.

A1C Zachary Ruff: Ruff lost his nickname as "Bieber" when an actual Bieber showed up. Part of the resident MCT students. Zach have been DNIF for a while and has been holding down various jobs around the squadron and the base. Luckily football season isn't going on right now or we would all still be subjected to his matching Oregon Ducks shirts, shorts, shoes, and hat. Hey it's only weird if it doesn't work right....

ATTACHED or ON LOAN

MSgt Dex Morton: Rarely seen but currently working at AMC Det1, and thinking about retirement.

MSgt Casey Cooper: Current Operations Superintendent. Casey has been rocking it over at OSS. He will be heading back to the Sq in Oct to possibly get some Stan/Eval experience under his belt.

(T)Sgt Russ Hobbs: Russ took one for the team and made the move over to Wing Tactics. It must be a good job because we never see him anymore. If you do happen to see him, please let him know that he's in phase for a checkride and that he needs to come accomplish his testing.

SSgt Justin Newsom: Justin was volunteered to go work over at Current Operations. We rarely get to see him anymore as he is kept fairly busy in his new position, but when he comes over to the Sq you can see leadership scrambling for the most current copy of AFI 36-2903 to check sideburns and hair standards for men.

SrA Erik Henry: Erik is currently working at Current Operations and recently got married to Tonia. He is still hoping to pursue his dream of becoming a pilot. Good luck buddy!

LEAVING US FOR GREENER PASTURES

SSgt Lamar Brown: Lamar busted his butt getting through MCT, finally got qualified, and has since decided that he will be leaving us to go be a civilian, probably a cop or something. He still has a really good attitude and will be missed when he is gone. We wish him luck in his future endeavors.

INBOUND

MSgt Ebony Hill: Ebony will be returning to us after her 2 year stint in Korea.

A1C Taggart: New boom, straight out of Lackland.

A1C Wilson: New boom, straight out of Lackland.

“GATEKEEPERS”

MSgt Brad Gavin: If he's not in the classroom making students bleed from their ears, he's in our office trying to make us drink the Kool-Aid! Fortunately for us we all have our tricks to fight him off, forcing him back to his tropical temperature office where he can vape in the dark. Truthfully we all like working for someone with this much experience on the jet. The KC-10 community will miss his knowledge when he moves on to the KC-46.

TSgt Ed Soto: Ed was a welcome addition for us this year, somewhat for his instructor ability, but mostly for saving our souls as the FTU Chaplain. We allow him to display his NCO of the year statue on his desk but have to draw the line at him claiming his Predator sensor operator time was “flight time.”

TSgt Kai Bresser: Known for his rants on Facebook (which usually don't end well), he recently decided to delete his account only to reopen it again with an even more epic rant. You can find him most evenings relaxing in his newly installed swimming pool that he filled with 24,000 gallons of water during the height of the California drought.

SSgt Mike Meitz: Mike is finishing up his extended long tour at the FTU and moving across the street to fulfill his lifelong dream of becoming a CRW RAMPCO. When he's not flying the occasional Monday morning local, you can find him coaching baseball or checking baseball stats online.

SSgt Jared Muzyczka: Our newest addition to the FTU; he came kicking and screaming but has brought a wealth of knowledge that was unexpected. When he isn't partying or street racing his WRX...he must be actually studying to be a better Boom Operator. Now we're just trying to break him of scamming all the good deal trips.

KC-10 ATS BOOM INSTRUCTORS

This year has been spent finalizing Distributive Mission Objectives and Virtual Flying Formation with the Bot. Many hours have been spent in the middle-of-the-night developing the software/performance of the newest innovation of avoiding local flying, with simulated inflight-refueling with the Weapons Systems Trainers in virtual formation behind the KC-10 Bot. Next we'll be participating in full virtual Red Flag exercises and logging even more training in simulated flight. Then we will spend the rest of the year helping install our full-sized KC-10 cargo loading simulator and bringing up the formal training/continuation training at our new facility. Next year promises a new installation of the latest 4K visual screen for improving inflight refueling realism for logging even more events in the Bot.

Tim Holt- Tim has two CA residencies: one here in Vacaville, and the other located in any stream/river/lake north of here. When Tim's not waist deep in waders fishing the biggest fish, he's in his woodshop mastering his lathe skills and producing the most awesome decorative pen/pencil sets. Somehow, he keeps showing up every morning and still kicking students out. Tim's not only influenced thousands of students but has taken instructors under his wings. He's currently trying to make DMac just a better person.

John Bond- John's still setting land speed records in anything with 700+ HP in it. If John's not strapped in a NHRA dragsters, he's out crewing the Reno Air Races back-to-back Championship Voodoo P-58 Mustang Gold Champion. John provides daily instant wisdom from his desk, when he'll interject with "That's just dumb", "Oh, stop you're complaining", or "Who's up in the Bot." As long as you let John know when he's up in the Bot and don't ask him any IPAD questions, all is good.

Steve Oothoudt (FCA/TOP DOG/HEAD CHEESE)- We think OO is slowing filling up his Lexus SUV with his Vacaville home, and slowing moving it to his Oregon residence. Since Oregon's Measure 91 (Legalization) has passed, no one can figure out why his Drain electric bill has skyrocketed. If DMO keeps bringing him in at all hours of the night, he may not come back from Oregon on one of these trips. Oddly enough, his vehicle is always in the parking lot before anyone gets to work, and still there when you leave. Don't know how he does it.

Shawn McMahon- "Not my problem" Chili just put a ginormous pool in his backyard for the girls, but strangely enough no one here at the sight has been invited over yet. When you ask, he reminds us booms "Pond would be good for you". Working and saving to send the kids to Stanford. Active in the twin's soccer career and still doing us proud in the 79th ARS.

Josh Bracht- The proud owner of a Deuce-and-a-half, Josh is now most popular at Dixon May Fairs and parades. Firing 50 Cals, making the house eco-friendly (solar panels), scuba diving, Caribbean trips, making his own AR15 and wood working on the lathe. It just sounds fun to be Josh Bracht. With his Club Rugby career coming to an end, Josh is still the only Rugby player that doesn't know the rules. He's also the first instructor to go with the black rims look on his silver Tacoma. "Bison? Or Bye Son?"

Jack Lemons- Spent a trip on the Softball disabled list with knee surgery, but was activated back to the full squad. Jack found more than love in Torri, since she goes to Spring Training games and Laguna Seca motorcycle track days with him. The couple that wrecks together, stays together. Jack also has become hooked on the latest California healing fad, Cryotherapy which includes stepping into a -177 degree freezer for 3 minutes. He says it helps him hit the softball out of the park.

Rob Tabor- (FCAA/2nd wipe) Ootie is grooming Rob to for the future FCA position by promoting him to 2nd Wipe/DMO. Rob is the elite when it comes to systems, but has weaknesses for Formula 1 racing, Belgium beers, and supporting Tottenham Hotspurs. He can make a mean Limoncello. When not hosting a get-together in his beautifully manicured backyard, can be found at Bonney Field pulling for Republic FC with DMac.

Dustin "DMac" McMillan- He has now become that annoying California Prius Driver. He'll give you updates on his awesome gas mileage: 48.4 MPG, saved $4.57 on this trip to work. No one cares. He has taken over the role as the Bot Commander. If he's not jumping in front of you to get to Sacramento and beat traffic, he'll be sure to let you know when you're up in the Bot.

Mike Hinton- A full plate for our resident part-timer: Senior NCO Wing Staff in Reserves, second bachelors in computer security in the works, Apple software developer, and pulling 3/4ths time at the sight. All these activities and still finding time for weekend getaways with Debbie. It's still confusing our students that their instructor is the guy in featured in the CBT's they watch for training. Still a youngster.

Lee Bob "Barry" Evans (retired) - This past year saw the retirement of Lee to Minneapolis, MN. He finally pulled up anchor and met Maggie and the grandkids up north. Time well deserved. We all miss Barry, and he might miss us since he finally joined Facebook. With his worst winter behind him, we still don't see any time soon him getting tired of his man cave at the new house until Maggie gets fed up with him. He's now front-row supporter of his Star Grandkids high school hockey team, and probably driving the team bus.

GLOBAL AEROSPACE LOGISTICS

Greetings from the United Arab Emirates!

The OPS tempo is high, crew ratio is low, and management can never turn down a mission. It's like I never left Grand Forks AFB. Except instead of blowing snow, it's blowing sand and feels like the surface of the sun. At least there is good Air Conditioning here.

Training can be challenging but the unit is full of good Boom Operators (even though we are AROs, because "Boom" is somewhat offensive in Arabic). The aircraft is a lot different than the venerable KC-135 but the Cabin Crew and catered flight meals make it more tolerable. We are in an airliner with a Boom. There are a few more countries that are getting this platform, but I don't think it will be done up like the UAE.

Feel free to drop in and visit. Email me at mikward85@gmail.com if you are here and can get a base pass.

KC46 ATS

To: Boom Signal

From: KC46 Aircrew Training System Program Office

Welcome Back to the Signal! Reporting from the basement, under the Aircraft SPO.

It has been and up and down year for the KC46 training system. We continue to learn how the airplane operates. What are all the bells and whistles we are getting, and who is going to do what.

The 7672C is now flying, so the program is moving forward. The KC46 first flight is coming soon, and that event will let us move forward in courseware and operations procedures.

Good news is that the WST (pilot Sim) and the BOT (A/R Sim) are up on motion and are looking good. Still many missing part, as the aircraft development is proceeding, but the sims move around! There are over 40 lessons done in the courseware work, with a couple hundred more to go. Starting out, Flight Safety is planning instructor based training, rather than hours and hour of CBTs.

Boeing has trained about 26 Booms to date, in the Type 1 training program. Although we are not flying yet, the systems training, cargo loading training and continuation training are being completed. It sometimes feels like we are moving slow, as we are all ready to start flying, but there are indeed a thousand things getting done everyday. AMC, Det 1 @Boeing, Det 2, Test center, AETC, Altus training Sq. are all working to solve the puzzle.

As always, if you have and questions, or want to know about the new airplane, just give me a call. Until then...Fly Safe.

KC-46 PROGRAM OFFICE-TANKER DIRECTORATE

“INFLAMMARE PUGNAM”

MSgt (Ret)/GS-13 Barry Mayhew – Resident retired boom who spent so much time pulling his hair out dealing with the Navy that he just decided to go the Bic Razor route. Seriously, Barry showed up on a Monday bald, sunburned, and goateed, and it took us until lunch to figure out that he wasn't some random mafia member eavesdropping on our conversations! When not searching for a third end of the candle to burn, Barry doubles as an entrepreneur selling KC-46 patches and Dayton Dragons baseball tickets around the SPO. Is there anything this guy DOESN'T do around here? Barry.mayhew.2@us.af.mil

SMSgt (Ret)/GS-14 Larry Strong - Larry completed a distinguished career as a civil servant with our program office in Sept 2014. He decided "honey do's" and home improvement projects were the way to go instead of the daily grind at the program office. He was last seen driving east to his home mumbling something about buying flooring or something like that.... He is sorely missed.

MSgt Luis 'L-Rod' Rodriguez-Asad – Our KC-10 SME, Vino Expert, and Gyro Master! Wednesday lunches at the Gyro Palace will inevitably be L-Rod's SPO legacy! Between maintaining -10 currency, leave, and KC-46 SIL training, he has to complete inprocessing each time he comes back. We figure he's been 'TDY' here at Wright-Patt for a whopping 29 days this year. When he is here though, L-Rod makes sure we get our community service done each quarter and can be found jumping IPT to IPT lending his expertise in all things Cargo or W&B related....Cheers! Luis.rodriguezasad@us.af.mil

MSgt Doug 'E Fresh' Boren – New -135 SME who rides his Harley every day simply to use the motorcycle parking spots up front! Doug spent his first 6 months sifting through the Acquisition alphabet soup, but is finally talking in code like the rest of us. Most days, you can find him trying to convince the boss to get a flying position allocated for him, staring at A/R pics on Google, or adorning his office with all things Harley Davidson or Texas. Still can't get past the fact that he has to sit in the back of commercial jets with the other passengers when going TDY. No Doug, you don't sit up front anymore. Douglas.boren@us.af.mil

THE BOOMERS PRAYER

MAY THE WEATHER BE SMOOTH AND THE BOW WAVE SLIGHT, MAY THE RECEPTACLE BE LARGE AND HAVE A PLETHORA OF LIGHTS.

MAY CARGO AND PAX BE NOT ABOARD,
MAY WE NEVER HAVE TO USE THE PARACHUTE RIP-CORD.

THIS WE ASK FROM THE POWER ABOVE,
TO DIRECT THE BOOM WITH PRECISION, AND A TOUCH THAT IS SLIGHT, TO GET THE CUSTOMER ENOUGH GAS TO FINISH THEIR FLIGHT.

OR TO SIMPLY PUT IT,
SO WE CAN JUST ILLUMINATE THE "BOOM ENGAGED LIGHT".

PATRICK QUAID, MSGT, 1997, ILANG RETIRED

Boom Operator's Coin/Card Rules

1. Rules of the game must be explained to all new coin/card holders.
2. If a Boom has never received a coin/card, then they cannot be expected to play the game. This burden of proof is placed on the challenge.
3. The coin/card are interchangeable.
4. The coin card will not be defaced (i.e., drilling, machining, etc.).
5. You can be challenged anytime, anywhere. You must produce a coin/card within 15 seconds of being challenged.
6. When challenging, state whether the challenge is for a single drink or for a round of drinks.
7. Failure to produce a coin/card when challenged results in the challenged buying a drink or round of drinks. If all those that are challenged produce a card/coin then the challenger is obligated to buy a drink or a round of drinks. Once the challenged has bought, you cannot continue to challenge the individual.
8. Under no circumstances can a coin/card be handed to someone. This is considered giving it away and you must barter with that person to regain possession of your coin/card. You must “ground” the coin/card by placing it down on a flat surface. Then, and only then may an individual pick it up and examine it. This is not considered giving your coin/card away.
9. The person who picks up the coin/card is honor bound to place it back where they got it. You cannot be challenged while your coin/card is in someone else's possession.
10. A lost coin/card does not relieve the holder of their responsibilities.
11. These rules apply to any Boom Operator or “Honorary Member.” Local rules can be used; however, apply to local Boomers only.
12. The coin/card should be controlled at all times. Giving a coin/card to anyone is like opening the association to anyone. It is considered an HONOR to be a Boom Operator and have a coin/card. Let's keep it that way!

SENIOR MASTER SERGEANT ALBERT L. EVANS

SMSgt Evans was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans on 16 September 1933, in Eastely, Nevada. He grew up in Longview, Washington.

SMSgt Evans was truly a legend in his own time within Strategic Air Command due to his skill and expertise as a boom operator. He began his military career as an airborne radio operator on KC-97 aircraft. In 1952, he retrained as a boom operator. He held command and base levels positions as an instructor, evaluator, program manager, as well as serving as a CCTS instructor and a CEVG evaluator. SMSgt Evans, or 'Spike,' as he was often called, distinguished himself in dedicated and unselfish service to his fellow boom operator. Described by his comrades as a "Professional NCO," he was a friend to the young boom operator, and was never too busy to lend a hand or provide his much-revered advice. He was gentle when called for, but tough when required, and he always wore a smile.

A devoted family man, he married his wife Irene while serving at Turner AFB, Georgia in 1955. His assignments included Turner AFB, Georgia; MacDill AFB, Florida; Kindey AFB, Bermuda; Loring AFB, Maine; Castle AFB, California; K.I. Sawyer AFB, Michigan and Barksdale AFB, Louisiana.

SMSgt Evans' decorations include the Air Medal, AF Commendation Medal with three oak leaf clusters; Army Good Conduct Medal with one oak leaf cluster; AF Good Conduct Medal with five oak leaf clusters; Combat Readiness Medal, AF Longevity Award with five oak leaf clusters; National Defense Service Medal with one oak leaf cluster; Vietnam Service Medal with two oak leaf clusters; AF Outstanding Unit Citation Ribbon.

SMSgt Evans was fatally injured in a KC-135 mishap at Castle AFB, CA in September, 1979. He was survived by his daughters Pat Fanconi (deceased), Dawn Kinney of Merced, CA, Laurie Evans Smith and Cathy Evans-Jantz of Ceres, CA. Also surviving was his father, Mr. Carl Evans (deceased) of Longview, WA, his brothers Paul Evans from Sacramento, CA, and Richard Evans (deceased) from Longview, WA his eight grandchildren Jamie and Jason Fanconi, Christopher Kinney, Ryan and Tyler Smith, Joshua, Jordan and Chad Evans-Jantz, nine great grandchildren, and 2 great-great grandchildren.

SMSGT ALBERT L. EVANS AWARD RECIPIENTS

The Albert L. Evans award was originally established in 1980 in memory of SMSgt Albert L. Evans, a pioneer in the history of SAC's air refueling operations. The purpose of the award was to annually recognize, on a rotational basis, the most outstanding boom operator section within the Strategic Air Command based on the collective accomplishments and professional qualities, sustained excellence, contributions, improvements, air refueling safety record, and problems overcome throughout the rating period of 1 January through 31 December each year. When the Air Force re-organized in the early 1990's, many SAC-era awards were discontinued, including the Al Evans award.

In early 2000, the Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force received an e-mail from Mr. Dick Evans, Al's brother. He inquired about the status of the award, and wondered if it was still awarded annually. Sadly, the Al Evans award was no longer being awarded and the Evans family asked if the trophy could be returned to the family, unfortunately the trophy was never located. Boom Operators on the AMC staff understood our rich history and traditions in the boom operator community. The importance of the award was not lost on them so they discussed re-establishing this prestigious award, with the AMC Boom Operator Career Field Manager CMSgt Dan Mongeon leading the charge. After a twelve year absence, the SMSgt Albert L. Evans Award was reinstated in 2001. The SMSgt Albert L. Evans trophy is awarded annually at the Boom Operators Symposium in his honor.

MCCONNELL AFB, KS

18 ARS

“Friendly Reserve Guys!”

Greetings from the FRG of the 18th ARS! Exciting times are at hand and every day seems to bring a new challenge. Between covering the never ending deployments and getting ready for the KC-46 it is a great time to be a part of the McConnell Team.

If you are ever around McConnell stop by, in the mornings the coffee is always on. In the afternoon we have other alternatives.

SRA William Baker: Full time Altus aircraft mechanic + part time Boom Operator =Hella systems knowledge. If you want to know how the muffler bearing interfaces with the headlight fluid Bill is your man. Bill and his wife welcomed a baby girl earlier this spring (congratulations!) We are so proud of him we presented him with his first deployment!

MSgt “Bear” Bearup: Bear is still doing great work for us in the OSS. (We are guessing, we never see him) his “stretch” in long range Current Ops is finally coming to an end; maybe he will start showing his face around the 18th again. (C’mon Bear, we miss you!) Bear is still in love with all things Michigan football, his family and stays busy supporting both.

SMSgt Brad Beyer: Man of many hats, Chief of long range scheduling for the 22nd, Evaluator Boom Operator for us and a husband and dad for Mindi and two little kids Brad is a busy man. Brad is what every traditional Boom Operator should be, his training is never overdue and he deploys when it’s his turn without complaining. Brad has a big say in who gets hired as he is the POC and coordinator for every boom interview that we conduct. If you’re looking for a job with us make sure you make a good first impression on Brad!

TSgt John Bui: We are expecting big things from John. He finished his degree, interviewed for a pilot slot, waiting on the results from the AFRC board. Going to miss him if he goes but wishing him all the luck in the world. John works in crew scheduling at the moment and has created his own verb. As in the schedule has been “Bui’ed”

SSgt Dustin Confer: Who? Dustin came to us within the last year and we don't know much about him yet. Makes corn hole boards. (?) Doesn't talk much, keeps to himself. Probably not to be trusted.

SSgt Sarajo "Guys my age are dumb" Danis: Father was a Marine, mother was not. Interesting combination of "I wish we could kill them all. " Mixed with, "why do we need to cut down trees?" Sarajo is presently deployed and loving it every minute. She is looking forward to getting back and starting school full time.

SMSgt Darren "Dammit" Demel: Darren is the prototype for what the leadership at AFRC wants in a SNCO, smart and highly educated, (not always the same thing) he has been a traditional, a troubler and an ART. Darren was recently presented an opportunity to go back to Cessna making almost enough money to support his lifestyle. After three seconds of thought he was gone. We didn't see him till the beer light came on the next day. It's too quiet around here without him.

SSgt Sierra Dopfel: Another Boom Operator that we think has big things ahead of her. Presently deployed she stays busy at home working on her degree, her pilot license and doing tons of work for us as a troubler. Now that she and Danis have recently been promoted Bui will never make NCO of the Quarter.

TSgt Clay Dotson: Clay is back from Altus and back where he belongs. Back to troubleshooting and doing whatever it takes to get the mission done. Welcome back Clay!

TSgt Bryan Fehrenbach: Another new hire we picked up from the Guard across the ramp. Bryan had been a Bomb loader/builder for most of his AF career. We thought that if he has good enough hands to do that he ought to be able to make a decent plug... time will tell. He hunts, fishes, and goes TDY for us. He claims to have a wife and kids but as of yet we feel that this is just an unsubstantiated rumor.

MSgt Jay "Shiny Penny" Guldjard: After 3 years of outstanding performance in Training flight Jay has escaped! Jay is our IOT&E rep. This keeps him extremely busy... we think. Either way he has been a little scarce around the squadron. (Well played sir! Well played!) Jay stays busy by hiking, remodeling his house, staying married and throwing money at a pile of rust. (Also known as a 1971 Land Cruiser)

MSgt Tonya Halenka: The time has come. By the time you read this, Tonya Halenka, legacy member of the 931st since 1995 will be gone. Tonya will leave a long history of great work. Multiple deployments, ORE's, ORI's, ASEV's, MICT, UCI and EIEIO inspections to count. Thank you for everything you gave to the 931st and especially the 18th. Good luck, God speed.

MSgt Mark "Husker" Heithoff: A long time ago Mark decided that being a fireman for Lincoln Nebraska wasn't enough excitement. So he became a boom for the NEANG. After 24 years of service they wanted to retire him. He asked us for 2 more years in exchange for a deployment. We said yes and 6 years later he is still here. Mark's daughter just started her first year at the Air Force Academy, child abuse or great example? Your choice. (Congratulations Mark!)

SSgt Landon "hey man" Iverson: We love having Landon around the squadron, (the 3 times a year he shows up) nobody else brings as much energy and good vibes as this kid. Landon is enrolled at Texas State technical college learning how to be a machinist. In his spare time (none) he is a boom.

SMSgt Ray Lewis: Still the Chief of Stan Evil, still on every TDY to Hawaii or Alaska and still single. Sounds pretty good.

CMSgt Kathy "Have Quick" Lowman: NOBODY works harder at her job (or everyone else's for the matter) than Kathy. If she was paid by the hour she would be a multi-millionaire. Probably puts in 40 hours a week as the 18th program manager and another 80 as the acting 931st Command Chief. I honestly don't know where we would be without her. We have been working for Kathy for a little over 6 years and it has mostly been great. The only qualification you must have is the ability to follow 5 different conversations at once.

MSgt John McIlvoy: John just returned from deployment and found himself in a different job, moving from Mobility to short range Current Ops. He soon figured out the pace of work had changed! He seems to like the job but his racquetball skills have degraded considerably.

MSgt Aaron Meadows: Aaron has been with us for a couple of years now and has been doing a great job. Bogarts every TDY, blames the scheduler. (But honey, they NEED ME to go to Vegas for 15 days!) Aaron also works as a part time cop in Park City, an area known for having a complete disregard for the law. Aaron discovered this lawlessness after taking the job. Ask about his missing lawn mower to find out how.

TSgt Dan Mills: Ah, a Boom of many talents. Super administrative skills, can navigate the black hole that has become medical clinic, coaches high school football, teaches a fitness class for the squadron and can talk about PJ School. (I kid! I kid!) Seriously, Dan has become one of our sharpest new booms, turns out that he had the soul of a Boom Operator and not a "shoe" all along!

MSgt Chris Norris: Chris and his wife welcomed daughter #2 earlier this spring so his summer has been challenging. He recently moved into crew scheduling with Bui and is pleased to discover that he will not have to spend much on stamps for Christmas cards this holiday season. (Don't worry Chris; you can have friends again after you leave scheduling) Honestly Chris is doing a pretty good job; it's just that I wish he didn't feel he had to tell us.

TSgt Brian "hey big" Olson: The sun comes up in the East, water is wet and Oly is in the 18th. Not much changes with our intrepid firefighter from Missouri, comes to drill, goes TDY and deploys. No drama. By the time you read this Oly should be in a warm climate enjoying the sunshine.

MSgt Mike Stahl: Mike is an engineer for AGCO Combine division. He is the only guy we have that has more international travel for his civilian job than he does for us. He has operated combines (the big machines that cut wheat and pick corn for you city guys who don't know where your food comes from) from France, Australia Brazil to Austria. Seriously Mike, you guys hiring?

TSgt Travis Swinson: Travis gave up an ART job at Seymour Johnson to come back home to good old Kansas. He is the trougher extraordinaire as he quickly became indispensable in long range Current Ops. We now know how the Seymour guys were getting all the good trips! Travis stays busy in his off time hunting, fishing and raising 2 boys and a daughter with his wife.

TSgt Matt Tener: Full time student, part time Boom Operator, Matt does great work for us when his class schedule will allow it. He is still one of our stronger instructors. (Just ask him) a former C-5 loadmaster he surprisingly does a good job at staying awake, not shoving everything he owns in his top flight suit pockets, and so far he isn't morbidly obese. Still married too, weird.

VanNostrand: Whew! Sorry for the lengthy intro but I wanted everyone to understand the impact that Dave has had on the squadron. Dave comes to from a diverse background including AWACS scope dope and time as a SARM troop. He gave up an ART position to be a Boom Operator just to prove how much he wanted the job. Dave is what you might call a little more uh, "sophisticated" than the rest of us; but if anyone can make Chief feel young I guess that they are more than welcome. Dave teaches kite surfing in Oklahoma for his real job (which is pretty bad ass if you think about) so if you have the urge to learn look him up. Ask to see his Curtis LeMay blues.

SMSgt John Wallman: Still full time here, still farming in Nebraska and still having kids. Yes, you read that right, John and Christy just welcomed a daughter June 1st. (he likes being poor?) for those that keep score; 4 boys, 1 girl. Karma. John will soon be found in an undisclosed location asking himself how he screwed up his life so effortlessly.

MSgt Jim Yokom: Jim is the same as most of the other ART's around, still here, still plugging along and making life easier for the traditional members. If you listed all of his additional duties it would read like the -1. Not really sure what he does on the weekends, he just kind of disappears. (He is too cheap to spend money gambling or on women so that's out.) The day that Jim learns to take care of himself as well as he does everybody else will be a grand day indeed.

SSgt Waino Yrjanainen: Presently deployed and loving life. Waino keeps things interesting around here. From sending other deployed members pictures of him and his cat, to stories of paintball and girlfriends (not always in that order) it's always a pleasure to see Waino. A full time student when he is not working for us he seems to stay busy all the time. Ask about his cat.

TSgt Matt Ziegelbein: Matt and his family had a rough 4th of July this year. His wife woke up to the sound of the roof on fire! Luckily everyone was able to get out safely but the house and all their belongings were a total loss. Between insurance and whatever money the squadron raised we almost have them back on their feet and construction on the new house is starting soon.

Boom Stowed

MSgt Mark "Mac Daddy" McIntosh: It pains me to write this but as of Aug 1st 2015 Mac will no longer be serving this great Air Force. I met Mark in 1996 and can honestly say that that he is a Boom Operator to the core; nobody lived and loved it more than Mac. He must not have been briefed "don't volunteer for anything" before basic training because he was always first to raise his hand. Mac had his share of health issues the last couple of years but he never doubted that he would be able to stay on flight status. Don't feel too sorry for Mac, he did win the reservist lottery with a full 20 year retirement after all. Mac started his own graphic design business, take a look, he has some awesome KC-135 swag. <http://fineartamerica.com/profiles/mark-mcintosh.html> or <http://teespring.com/nkawtg-from-mcintosh-graphix> Good Luck Mac, we are a better squadron for you serving with us and I'm a better Boom Operator for serving with you.
